

Carol Pinkston and Doyle Capps Married

At a candle light ceremony held last Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the Assembly of God church, Miss Carol Pinkston became the bride of Doyle Capps, Rev. G. A. Gray officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, J. M. Pinkston, wore an afternoon dress of powder blue with gardenia corsage.

Rebecca Pinkston, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Cleo Capps, the groom's brother, was best man. Ushers were Miss Vada Capps, Miss Alice Allen and Miss Helen Hickam.

Mrs. Margaret Swanson sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Neil Kyne, who also played the wedding marches.

A large reception at the Pinkston home followed. The wedding cake was cut by the bride, Alice Allen and Vada Capps poured.

The young couple will be at home at 122-South Elliott. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Capps of Sheridan were here to attend the wedding.

Becomes Bride of Coast Guardsman

At an informal gathering of friends Sunday at her home in the Noster apartments, Miss Alice M. Oerding announced her marriage to Mr. William Ernest Klenz, son of Mrs. Ernest Klenz of Everett, Washington, on New Year's eve at the Methodist parsonage in Roseburg.

Miss Jane Davis, of Roseburg, attended the bride and Mr. Hugh McClellan, U. S. C. G. at Bandon, attended the groom.

After a short wedding trip to Eugene, they returned to Coquille.

Mrs. Klenz plans to continue her position as bookkeeper at the Geo. E. Oerding insurance office for the duration as Mr. Klenz is in the U. S. Coast Guard, stationed at Bandon.

Mrs. Moorhead To Visit County Next Month

Mrs. George Moorhead, secretary for the E. C. Brown Trust has advised Martha E. Mulkey, county superintendent, that she will be in Coos county on February 9, 10, 11, and during that time she will accept a limited number of invitations to speak before groups at their regular meeting time on the subject of Social Hygiene. Requests should be sent to the office of the county superintendent, Coquille.

While in Coos, Mrs. Moorhead will also hold a county meeting where representatives of communities desiring Family Relations classes will be present.

Although not coming in that capacity, it might be mentioned that Mrs. Moorhead is president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs.

Lieutenant Leonard Farr and Portland Bride Wed in South

The marriage of Lieutenant Leonard C. Farr and Miss Joyce Addis, of Portland, Oregon, was solemnized December 26 at 5:30 p. m. in the Camp Chapel at Camp Sibert, Alabama. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Farr of Marshfield, and formerly of Coquille. Donald H. Farr of Coquille is a brother. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judd Addis, of Portland.

The rites were read by Chaplain Knott, in candle light and on either side of the wedding group were brightly lighted Christmas trees.

Very special music made the ceremony impressive. Mrs. Marian Hughes of the Saint Louis Opera company sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Private Leo Polski. Mr. Polski is a graduate of Paris Academy of Music. He also played the wedding marches and the recessional.

The bride wore a grey silk crepe dress trimmed with amethyst and her corsage was an orchid. The young couple were unattended.

A reception in the company mess hall followed. There was a ten layered cake cut by the bride and groom with a banquet. Mr. and Mrs. Daily of Gabsden, Alabama, were their special guests.

The bride lived at University House at Eugene where she attended college for two years. Leonard was a junior at the university when he left to enlist. He was manager of Men's Cooperative Houses and majored in business administration.

The bride and groom will be at home at 1001 Walnut street, Gabsden, Alabama.

Lt. Leonard Farr, a graduate of Coquille High school left college in March 1942, to enlist. He got his commission in March 1943 and went to Camp Adair. Before that he was at Camp Barclay. He was at Camp Ellis in Illinois for four months, before going to Alabama where he arrived last December 1.

He belongs to the Medical Administration in the Army.

New Evening Guild Organized

Members and friends of St. James Episcopal church who are employed during the day, or otherwise so occupied as to be denied opportunity to attend the Guild, may now join the new evening Guild. This new Guild was organized last Wednesday evening. Officers elected were president, Georgianna Vaughan; vice president, Ruth Axtel; secretary, Estelle Harbison; treasurer, Bess Maury.

Meetings will be held the first and third Wednesday of each month. Florence Barton and Clara Stauff were appointed to form the by-laws.

Muriel Ardath and May Barton will provide the program and be hostesses for the next meeting. The first meeting of the month will be for transaction of business and the second will be social.

396 Club Met With Mrs. Rocco Friday

The Grange Club 396 met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Mary Rocco. There was the usual pot luck dinner at noon. The election of new officers resulted in the selection of Pearl Ruble as president; secretary, Hazel George; treasurer, Rose Marie Martin. Elsie Wheaton was acting secretary. Meetings are held the first Friday in every month. The next meeting will be at the home of Mary Wimer. Attending were Edna Rakestraw, Mary Wimer, Florence Hallock, Ida Oerding, Mabel Von Pegert, Minnie Clinton, Opal Buckles and Alma Halter.

Roy Mother's Club Elect New Officers

The Roy Mothers' Club met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Opal Buckles. Francis Detlefsen was elected president; Opal Buckles, vice president; Katie Detlefsen, secretary. A belated Christmas exchange was held. The roll included Mesdames Hulda Ellingsen, Bertha Cross, Edna Rakestraw, Elva Green, June Green, Cameron, Patricia Griffith, Mary Johnson, Clara Krantz, and Cora Mackay.

Lincoln Club Met With Mrs. Clara Johnson

The Lincoln Club met with Mrs. Clara Johnson on Fifth street Tuesday for an all day meeting, having a pot luck dinner at noon. The meeting was opened at 2 o'clock by the new president, Mrs. Eula McIntee. Business as usual with no new business as so many are ill. Next month we will get ready for making quilts and hope all those who are ill will be able to be out.

Woman's Club Hears Ensign Hill of Portland

school in civilian dress modeled by Dorothy Harris, Ensign Hill explained the only time a Wave may appear out of uniform is the occasion of her wedding. Portraying this, Yvonne Marneau modeled her own white satin wedding gown with trailing veil. Other Juniors who modeled were Gertrude Swinney, Grace Withnell, Francis Detlefsen and VI McBride.

Ensign Hill, stated the Federated Clubs of Oregon have a project already under way to assist in the recruitment of Waves. More and more Waves are needed. While the real recruiting will be done by the Navy, the new plan should facilitate and speed the work. Interesting girls to become trained to take over any of the two hundred and fifty kinds of jobs open, should release as many men for the armed service. Travel, new friends, becoming a part of the Navy, a good clean life and a chance to serve their country, were reasons given to induce a girl to want to become a Wave or a Spar.

The Style review and talk were preceded by some lively military piano duets played by Inez and Leah Rover. Miss Rover read the words and played the music of the Wave song.

A very fine display of our nation's flags was a fitting stage background for the program. A full rigged ship model belonging to the Chaney family added atmosphere. The tea table bore a centerpiece unique with a tall Goddess of Liberty rising out of novel arrangement of red, white and blue. Overhead a beautiful airplane model of a Lockheed Interceptor V-38 made by Velorous Call was suspended. Mrs. L. H. Hazard and Mrs. Bert Folsom presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Roy Boober and some of her committee were hostesses; many were away because of illness. Among those serving were Mesdames Wm. Caudlin, J. A. Berg, Lloyd Ross and F. M. Shaw.

Red Cross Notes

Coquille Red Cross will meet Friday, January 14, at Guild hall, between 1:15 and 4:15 p. m.

Last week's attendance was very good in spite of flu and continued cold weather and we were pleased to welcome three new workers to our ranks.

Two more lovely afghans were turned in by Mrs. N. Rosa and Mrs. N. L. Springer and five nice ones were brought in made from pieces of blankets and beacon robes by Mrs. Florence Hall.

Contributions during the past week of crochet hook, yarn, wool materials and finished afghan squares were received from Mesdames Ed Aasen, Geo. Sherwood, Lois Stevens, F. Hall and Mrs. Geo. Thompson, and more than a hundred crocheted edged wash cloths were made and donated by Mrs. Horton, a nurse at the County Farm.

"We are continuing work on our quota of Navy knitting which consists of turtle neck sweaters, watch caps and gloves. We are in need of more knitters as our present quota is a large one," says Mrs. D. B. Kesner.

"We have just completed our quota of hospital shirts and outing flannel bed sox so will work on quilts and afghans until new material arrives.

"Please plan to attend Red Cross Friday, if only for an hour or two, and come prepared to work with scissors, thimble, large eyed needle or crochet hook.

"Have you ever stopped to think that the Red Cross is the link between every service man and his home town?"

W. R. C. Hold Its Regular Monthly Session Wednesday

Douglas MacArthur Relief Corps, No. 56, met in regular session Wednesday with president Mabel Von Pegert in the chair. The chaplain read the 91st Psalm. Business was conducted in the usual manner with nothing special to come before the corps.

"There being so many who were sick only seven were present. Cards are being sent to the sick and those who are in sorrow. Our relief committee had a very good report for last year and we hope to do more this year.
