

Personal Mention

M. A. Bennett, brother of C. A. Bennett of this city, who had not seen one another for 34 years, came in Saturday for a week or two visit with his brother and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Russell Morgan, of Hillsboro, former Coquille residents, came in last Saturday and were members of the gathering which met at the W. H. Fortier cottage at Croft Lake last Sunday. Lieut Earl Hamilton, who is Mrs. Morgan's son, and his wife who have also been here the last ten days were also members of the party.

Mrs. Geo. Wasson and Mrs. Geo. De Noma returned last week from a few days' visit with their sons, Wilfred Wasson and John De Noma, who have been at the state college at Pullman, Wash. They spent Christmas with the boys but John received orders to report to Santa Ana, Calif., and had to leave that night. The mothers report that the boys both like the service and enjoyed living at Pullman.

Ex-County Judge E. L. Peterson, now head of the state's agricultural department, was a Coquille visitor last Friday night and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kulmus, parents of Mrs. Ralph Taylor, are moving later this month to Portland where he has purchased a home and will retire. He has been employed at the Smith Wood-Products plant for the past eleven years.

George McClellan was a Coquille visitor from Lebanon last Saturday.

Possession Ducks Brings 5 Days In Jail

Wm. Earl Sargent and Oscar Kinder Sargent who recently came to Coos from Canyonville, and are living along the highway toward Marshfield were arrested by the state police on Tuesday for illegal possession of a game bird during the closed season. They each had a duck in their possession.

Justice Bull, in court here, gave them identical sentences, a 5 day stretch in the county jail, a fine of $25 and $4 costs. The fine is to be suspended provided they pay the costs and a $15 old fine and costs total levied against them in justice court at Myrtle Point.

Robert Russell Willard paid a fine of $1 and $4 costs in Justice Bull's court for having no tail light on his car when picked up by the state police. Another charge, that of having no vehicle license, was dismissed when he gave evidence to the officers that he had secured one.
