Coquille Eagles To Entertain Seattle Guest

On Friday evening of this week, at their regular weekly meeting, the Eagles expect to have as their guest the Northwest District Organizer and Official Auditor of the Fraternal Order of Eagles; Aaron Reese of Seattle, Wash.

Special program arrangements have been made and the Eagles are expecting to have their hall filled to capacity for this occasion. There will be a free feed for all Eagles after the program.

Every member is urged to be in attendance and is assured an interesting and instructive evening.

All members of Plywood Local, 2891, are requested to be at meeting Sunday, Feb. 13, at 7:30 p. m., especially those who are out of work. —W. L. Reed, Pres. 11's clerk.

Auction At Smalley Ranch Feb. 13

Dr. L. L. Gilbert, who a couple of months ago purchased the Smalley ranch, two and one-half miles southwest of Arago, is advertising a public auction for Sunday, Feb. 13, of all the stock and farming equipment on the place. Dr. Gilbert, who is a practicing physician in Nevada, had expected to move on to and operate the ranch himself, but it is impossible for him yet to leave his practice, so he intends to lease the place for two or three years and then come to the Coquille valley to locate after the war is over and physicians and surgeons, for civilian practice, are not as scarce as they are now.

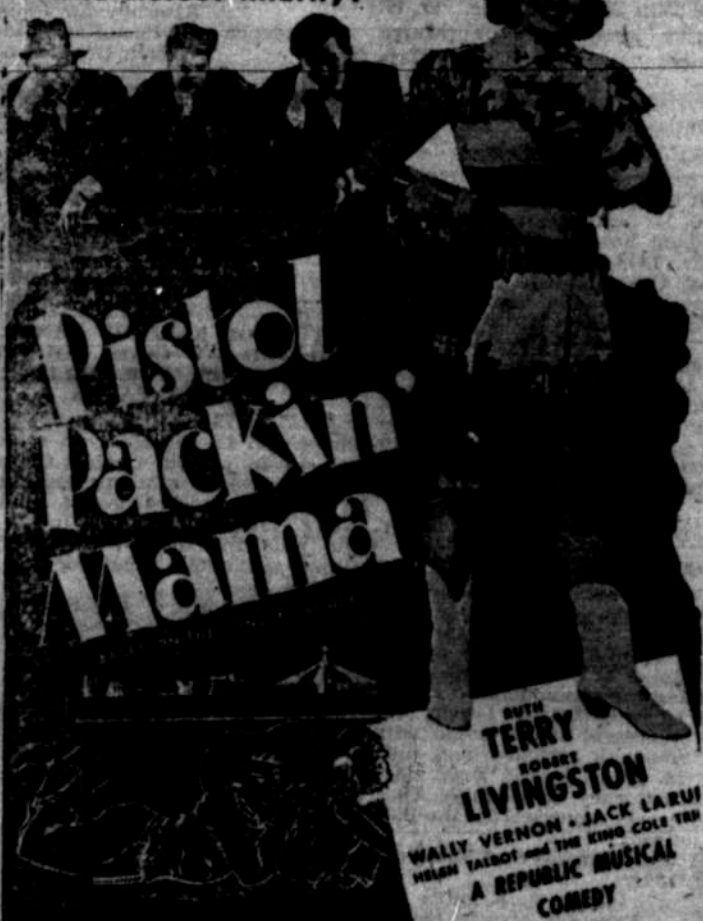

Schwicker & Cooper will cry the sale, with Mike Daniels acting as 11's clerk.
