

Elsie Forrest and John L. Perkins Are Wed At Marshfield

A marriage of interest to friends here was that of Elsie Forrest and John L. Perkins, of Langlois, held at the Methodist parsonage in Marshfield, Rev. G. H. Newland officiating. The bride is a sister of Mrs. E. H. Sommers and Mrs. David Biegger and of County Assessor Forrest.

The bride wore a suit and hat of golden tan, white blouse, corsage of white rosebuds and white carnations. The double ring ceremony was used. Mrs. E. H. Sommers was her sister's matron of honor and wore a dark brown suit with corsage of variegated carnations.

Cadet Midshipman Dan Flagg was best man.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Hillis Perkins, wore a dark green suit with brown accessories and a corsage of coral pink roses. The bride's mother wore a teal blue suit and corsage of pink carnations.

The bride, a member of the Bachelor Girls club here, was in the Southern Pacific office prior to her marriage. She is a graduate of the Myrtle Point High school in the 1943 class. Her mother is Mrs. Elsie Forrest of Marshfield now, but prior to the death of her husband, the late Ed Forrest, lived for years near Broadbent.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hillis Perkins, of Langlois or New Lake.

John L. Perkins attended for a year the University of Washington, where he took naval R.O.T.C. From there he went to San Mateo to the Merchant Marine Academy, followed by active training on a Liberty ship out of Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins have returned to San Mateo, where he will finish his training in another month. His rating then will be 3rd mate in the Active Merchant Marine and Ensign in the Naval Reserve. At present he is a Cadet Midshipman.

Birthday Dinner For Mrs. Davis

The eighty-sixth birthday of Mrs. B. A. Davis, which falls on Feb. 5, was the occasion of a pleasant dinner party, given Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schram at their home. Guest of honor also was their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank Schram, visiting here from Minneapolis. Others present were Merrily Kay Schram, Mrs. Ada McPherson, Mrs. George Closter and Geo. Closter, Jr. Friends who dropped in for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purvance, Mr. and Mrs. Denton Ellingson, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Perrott, Mrs. Harold Varney and Mrs. Beatrice Rhule. Leo Swinney showed films in motion pictures of the Minneapolis Schram family and also some of his own family.

Mrs. Frank Schram, Jr., has gone to Salem for a visit with her family and to attend a family reunion. She spent ten days here.

Associate Grand Matron O.E.S. Visits

Between 70 and 75 enjoyed the potluck dinner, honoring the Associate Grand Matron, Mrs. Hazel Foster, held last Thursday evening in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple. The long tables, artistically decorated and carrying out the valentine motif, were loaded with tempting viands.

Following the dinner the regular meeting of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., was held upstairs. Twelve courtesy girls, charmingly arrayed in floor length gowns of net over taffeta, made their initial appearance. The gowns were in four pastel shades: blue, yellow, pink and aqua. The courtesy girls are: Mesdames Rhea Walker, Garnet Gant, Vera Pook, Carla Savage, Viola Norton, Lorraine Perrott, Estelle Harbison, Viola McBride, Lucille Walker, Josephine Purkey, Hazel Scharfer and Naomi Crews.

Besides the Associate Grand Matron, who was making her official visit, honored guests were: Mrs. Virginia Hillstrom, of Marshfield, Grand Ruth; Mrs. Metta Rosslow, member of the Jurisprudence committee, and Mrs. Margaret Dodge, Matron of Elgin chapter, Myrtle Point. Other Elgin chapter officers were also present.

On March 16 the district meeting of Doric, Coos and Beulah chapters will be held in North Bend.

Under good of the order, Ronald Williams, talented young violinist, played two lovely solos. He was accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins at the piano.

Following the meeting, a school of instruction was held by the Associate Grand Matron.

Methodist Youth Have Rally Saturday Evening

The Senior Youth Fellowship of Pioneer church celebrated last Saturday evening with a banquet held in Pioneer hall. The tables were beautifully decorated and the menu perfect in every detail. Miss Shirley Slater presided as toastmistress and Geraldine Oerding had charge of the music. After an evening of varied program, Rev. Ray S. Dunn spoke, bringing an inspiring message to the group. Special guests included the speaker, Rev. Ray S. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Oddy. Rev. and Mrs. Charles Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Newton and Mrs. E. O. Walte.

Engagement Of Former Coquille Girl Announced In Portland

Mrs. Paul Campbell, of 2939 S. E. Tolman in Portland, was the hostess at a tea Saturday afternoon at her home, at which the engagement of Miss Margaret Ann Wilson and Aviation Cadet Phillip Dean Janney was announced.

Miss Wilson is the daughter of Mrs. M. Earl Wilson, now of Portland, and the late Dr. M. Earl Wilson, of Coquille. Mr. Janney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip W. Janney of Portland. Miss Wilson is a sophomore at Reed college and Mr. Janney is a former student of Reed, enlisting in the air corps in February last year.

The announcement and date of the wedding was told by a large red heart above the mantel, with pictures of Miss Wilson and Mr. Janney, and a gold arrow, with the letters, "March 15."

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Helen Wilson and her cousin, Ann Anderson.

Most of the guests were school friends of Miss Wilson and Mr. Janney from Reed college.

The young couple plan to be married March 15 at the home of the bride-elect. Mr. Janney receives his wings March 12.

Junior Women Plan Dance For Saturday, March 18

The Junior Women's Club met last Monday evening at the Guild Hall. Vi McBride presided. A report was made on the outcome of the President's Ball, for which the club was sponsor.

Plans were discussed for a dance to be given March 18. Committee chairmen named were: Music, Georgia Hansen; Tickets, Doris Sayre; Publicity, Jane Winkle, Verna Earls and Beverly Price. It was decided the club would send cards in cases of illness, etc., instead of gifts. Following the business session the group played hearts. High score was won by Eileen Bryant and second by Vi McBride.

For refreshments coconut cake topped with red jello in shape of hearts, with coffee, was served. Attending were: Alta Matejka, Lavene Ellingson, Vi Connarn, Ruth Dey, Ruth Creager, Mary Stevens, Fay Waggoner, Frances Detlefsen, Vi McBride, Estelle Harbison, Ardis Sherwood, Lucille Walker, Marie Carlson, Vervie Hurrell, Eileen Bryant, Lorretta Watkins, guest, Ione Winkle, Bernice Molthu, Margaret Wylie, Bessie Burgess, Beverly Price.

Zodiac Club Meets With Mrs. Wheeler

Mrs. Robt. Wheeler entertained members of the Zodiac Club at her home Wednesday, Feb. 9, in honor of Blanche Mast on her birthday. Seven o'clock dinner was served and the house was decorated with potted crocuses. Mrs. Mast drew the lucky number and Ruth Smidth, drew the hostess gift. There were two guests,

Myrtle Aasen and Mary Arnold. The club will hold one more party and then suspend meeting until after the war. Attending were Mesdames Edith Tennant, Blanche Mast, Ruby Johnson, Jane Burch, Emily Gasner, Edna Kern, Gladys Jacobson, Ruth Smidth, Florence Smidth and Gladys Wheeler, hostess.
