

Job's Daughters Active

Job's Daughters held an interesting meeting Monday night, Feb. 7. An initiation ceremony was held for Ariel Crook. Plans were made that evening for a Birthday dance, to be given in honor of Phyllis Fitzberger, Honored Queen, on the 19th of this month.

A reward was given to each of two girls, Laura Emily Ruble and Bonita Miller, as the result of a popular vote. The points on which the Daughters were judged were: their knowledge of ritual work, attitude, posture, number of guests and neatness during the six months past.

On Feb. 21, there will be another initiation.

The new bookkeeper in the Goodyear store is Mrs. Harold Hansen, recently from Seattle, whose husband is a Coast Guardsman, stationed at Port Orford.

Lincoln's Stand Told To W.C.T.U.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Louis Fugelson, Friday 11. Devotions were given by Bessie Cooper, who used Psalm I. The topic was "Living Memorials."

Quotations were given from an article written by William O. Stoddard, a secretary of Lincoln's, on Lincoln's stand on liquor; the title of the article being "The True Story of a Great Man."

On September 29, 1863, a committee of the Sons of Temperance visited President Lincoln to appeal for the advancement of the cause of temperance in the Union Army. In reply to their request Lincoln said in part: "When I was a young man—long ago—before the Sons of Temperance as an organization had an existence—I, in a humble way, made temperance speeches, and I think I may say that to this day I have never, by my example, belied what I then said."

"I think that the reasonable men of the world have long since agreed that intemperance is one of the greatest, if not the very greatest, of all evils among mankind. That is not a matter of dispute, I believe. That the disease exists, and that it is a very great one, is agreed upon by all."

Plans were made for the China Nurses Tea to be held at the home of Mrs. James Richmond in March. The funds will go to help educate nurses for China. These are to be Chinese girls educated in China. Everyone is welcome.

"Thanks For the Tin Cans and Waste Paper you throw away"

Uncle Sam Says:--

"Every piece of paper, every tin can that YOU throw away is a broken link in the long chain that we are building toward Victory"

This is YOUR war just as much as it is the boys who die in mud and honor of the battle field

Waste Paper and Tin Cans are the most critical items in the Nationwide Salvage Campaign.

If possible, tie your waste paper into compact bundles about 14 inches high.

Wash tin cans, remove label and both ends, flatten and place in boxes.

Leave both paper and cans at the local Salvage Depot (Train Building).

If you cannot bring your own salvage in, or for any other information

Phone Geo. Burr at 195
and a Pickup will call at your home.

Tin cans, properly prepared, may be left at your grocery store if desired
