

Red Cross Notes

Coquille Red Cross will meet as usual on Friday, March 17, from 1:45 to 4:15 p.m., at Guild Hall.

Again there is an urgent request for comfort kits and housewives (sewing kits) for the army. These will be cut out, ready for home distribution. Also, there are available three sewing machines at our work room for those who prefer to sew there.

As group work there will be on hand pieced quilt blocks to sew, Afghan squares and wash cloths to crochet; also cutting, pressing, etc., for those who do not sew, knit or crochet.

The yarn for knitting has not yet arrived but is expected any day.

Mrs. Fred McNelly came in to work and provided materials for a great many more snuff slippers. She also brought in a number of attractive and cozy lap robes made and donated by herself and Mrs. Horton of the County Farm.

The local unit will be sorry to lose one of its good workers—Mrs. Grant Taylor, who is moving to Medford very soon. Mrs. Mary Schroeder is still confined to her home by illness but has asked for work to do there until she is able to attend meetings again.

Mrs. L. McGeorge, production chairman of Coos county, accompanied by her daughter, Rosemary, and Miss Grae Aylesworth, Red Cross executive secretary, drove over to visit the work room here and to bring materials, patterns, etc. Mrs.

McGeorge again complimented Coquille on the volume and quality of its work.

Other visitors were Mesdames Scorby, Peppin and F. C. True. The following are thanked for various contributions: Mesdames E. Aasen, Lund, Ruth Candlin, Frank Jameson and M. Grimes.

"We cannot give praise enough to our consistent workers for the marvelous work they are doing but we need more workers to enable us to keep more necessities and comfort rolling for our boys all over the world," says Mrs. Kesner, production chairman. "Please remember that the Red Cross is you—not your friend, your neighbor or some other woman. We all have a stake in this war. Are you shouldering your share?"

Birthday Party For Three-Year Old

Four very little girls helped Barbara Anne Starr celebrate her third birthday on last Thursday afternoon, March 9.

A birthday cake with three candles was the important part of the party. Pretty gifts were received. Barbara Anne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. LeRoy Starr of 260 North Henry St. Her daddy returned from a trip to Portland in time for his daughter's birthday. Little guests were Marilyn Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Anderson; Elsie Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Watson, and Judy and Patty Rogers, granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rogers.

Training School Principal Here Tues.

8:30 and get up at seven o'clock. He added, boys do about what you demand and supervision is just about what you put into it.

The boy has to accept responsibility for his own conduct. Boys are kept at the training school 150 days and when dismissed 80 per cent never come back.

A few random remarks were as follows: "There has been a lot of unrest among juveniles, especially in Junior High; junior high school is more turbulent than at any time in his 20 years' experience." "Out of 350 cases at the training school, it has only been necessary to send eight to the penitentiary." "Our schools have lost faith, faith to teach English and arithmetic." "More home work would keep children busy at night, instead of giving time for trouble."

The speaker approved the Chinese parents' disciplinary method of paddling; a good shingle used at the right time can make a good boy, Mr. Proebstl believes and he closed with the question, "How many saw 'Bambi'?" When the little deer was about to get into trouble, always there was the big stag standing by to help."

The High School band, under the direction of Wayne Smith, played four beautiful numbers: "Invercarigill," a march; "The Crusaders," an overture; "Dinah," swing, and "Liberty Bell," a march. The last by Sousa, beautifully rendered was put in the hands of the band only a week before, with four rehearsals, which "evidenced the strong training given by his predecessor," Mr. Smith generously commented. Forty-eight members in the band combined to give a stunning picture on the stage through the meeting.

A girls' chorus, led by Thora Watson, rendered two fine numbers. The appearance of the girls in their white blouses and red-pleated skirts and their well-trained voices, added greatly to the evening's entertainment.

Rummage Sale Nets $561.04 For The Library

Mrs. O. C. Sanford, club president, presided over the short business meeting. The salute to the flag and "God Bless America," were led by Mrs. Roy Barton. Mrs. M. O. Hawkins was accompanist.

The recent rummage sale netted $561.04, according to an announcement by Mrs. Wm. Mansell. The proceeds go to the Library.

A motion was adopted to contribute $50.00 to the Red Cross.

A recommendation of the board was to make the Boys and Girls Clubs one of the projects.

Mrs. J. A. Berg, contact chairman for the Junior Women's Club, announced they went on record at their Monday night meeting to appeal to the City of Coquille for co-operation in an effort to establish a Child Care and Play Center here. Mrs. Berg also stated one-half of $475, raised at the President's Ball, stays in Coos county; $802.00 was received for Christmas Seals, and the Juniors plan a dance for this coming Saturday night.

The nominating committee was appointed—Mesdames D. B. Kesner, Kennett Lawrence and Guy Mauney. The report is to be made in April.

Mrs. George Jenkins, chairman of American Home, was in charge of the program, assisted by Mrs. Ida Owen, chairman of Public Relations.

The president, Mrs. Sanford, thanked Mr. Purkey for his generosity in contributing space in his display room for a location in which to conduct the rummage sale. The co-operation of other merchants and individuals all contributed, Mrs. Sanford said, to make the rummage sale a success. Without the fine community support the library could otherwise not have so greatly benefited.

Surprise Shower For Mrs. Nolan Finley Monday Evening

A very successful surprise baby shower was given to Mrs. Nolan Finley last Monday evening, at her home on Rink creek. Thirty women of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Rempel, from where they went to the Finley home.

There was no doubt as to why the many visitors came for a stork perched on a bassinette was wheeled into the house. The bassinette, beautifully covered with white and pink crepe paper, with a garland of white narcissus, was stacked full of gifts.

After some appropriate pencil games, refreshments were served. Hostesses were Mrs. Clyde Parrish and Mrs. Menno Rempel. The other ladies present were: Mesdames Blanche Capps, Willa Dean Olson, Lucille Capps, Sadie Brown, Theo Brown, Arch Grey, Pansy Ross, Alice Holverstott, Ethyl Kuenzli, Thema Parrish, Willard, I. Liday, G. Liday, R. Finley, Holloway, Bulson, Tishie Hickam, Pinkston, Kidd, Morgan, C. Walton, E. Walton, P. Walton, B. Finley, B. Bulson, N. Finley and H. Liday.
