

Operetta Delights Hundreds Two Nights

An audience of men, women and children, which crowded the auditorium of the Washington school on Tuesday and again on Wednesday evening, was charmed with the excellent production of the operetta, entitled "The Land of Dreams Come True."

About seventy children took part and the success of the entertainment was due to the combined efforts of all the teachers, according to the statement of Miss Robertson, director, who added "and to Bill Peart for his great assistance in making of stage settings."

The stage settings were beautiful in all acts but especially was this true of the second act with Mother Goose house, beside which was a most interesting tree and white fence around it. Little Bo-Peep was really irresistible, as were all twelve of the Mother Goose characters.

The choruses, the Roses, Bluebells, Daisies and Pixies were well trained and melodious, the attractive colors of the costumes were striking and professional in their effectiveness. The solo voices were well chosen, each being outstanding, lovely voices. The children could be heard distinctly even to the back of the large hall.

The affair, which was perfectly managed and which took about six weeks to get into readiness, was, according to statements heard, by far the best thing ever done here by the grade school. Colored movies are to be taken of the scenes today. The money raised will go to the Washington school fund, to be used for different purposes.

Between acts members of the High School Girls Sextette entertained with selected numbers. This group has been very popular wherever they appear.

The production included director, Miss Robertson; accompanist, Miss Page; solos, Mrs. Barton; dances, Mrs. Crenger; publicity, Mrs. Minton; stage settings, Mrs. Peart, Mrs. Walton; finance, Mrs. Chase; costumes, Mrs. Tyrrell, Mrs. Harrah, Miss Robertson.

Six Ellingsen Sisters Present At Dinner Here

The arrival in town of two Ellingsen sisters from California, Mrs. Wm. Martin, of Fresno, and Mrs. Maud Duggan, of Alameda, was the occasion of a potluck family dinner held Monday night at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Norton on First street. The two sisters were returning from a visit to see Mrs. Ellen Carl, now recuperating from a serious operation at Woodburn.

The table was lovely with an arrangement of spring flowers for the centerpiece. The attractive rooms were decorated with Jap flowering quince. Other sisters attending were: Mrs. Amelia Lafferty, Mrs. Lilly Hartig, Mrs. Jennie Price and Mrs. Rose Ashton. Sisters-in-law were Mrs. Edwin Ellingsen and Mrs. Arthur Ellingson. The California visitors left for their homes Tuesday morning.

Eva Stevens Is B. P. W. President

The regular business meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club was held last Monday at the Guild Hall. The group voted to give $50.00 to the Red Cross.

Election of officers was held with the result as follows: president, Eva Stevens; first vice pres., Florence Barton; second vice pres., Hattie Lee Hollimon; sec., Inez Rover; treas. Clara Stauff.

The dates, May 5-6-7, have been set for the state convention at Klamath Falls, at the Willard Hotel.

An invitation was read from the Marshfield club for their 25th anniversary dinner on April 18, and which will be formal.

The annual Mothers and Daughters Banquet will be held at the Pioneer Church on May 15, it was announced. Communications were read from Ellen Braxton Carlson in Utah and Ruth Towne in Texas. Helen Beyers were elected to membership. Viola Newton gave out forms to fill in for her report on War Activities.

The total amount given to the Chinese Nurses fund by B. P. W. clubs of the nation amounted to $12,150 it was stated.

Inez Rover, chairman of Music and Arts, read an article which described the pocket size hymnals which are being sent to overseas service men. They have been compiled by overseas chaplains representing Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish religions. They contain eleven well known hymns and also the 23rd Psalm. They are printed on dark colored paper to prevent being noticed from the air. Seven of these same hymns were selected to sing by the group at the meeting and were led by Ruth Beyers, accompanied by Inez Rover.

Evening Guild

The evening Guild met last evening with Jean Bryan and Marybelle Yarbrough as hostesses. April 19 is the date set for a public card party. This is also the regular meeting night. The chairmen in charge will be Mrs. George L. Maynard and Mrs. R. E. Harbison. Men and women are invited to attend. The attraction will be pinochle, bridge and contract rummy. Refreshments will be served.

Meeting Of Interest To Victory Gardeners

Robert E. Reider, acting leader of the state victory garden project, will speak at a county-wide garden meeting to be held in the Marshfield city hall Friday, April 14, at 8:00 p. m. All interested in gardening are urged to attend and bring their questions and problems, state the members of the County Extension Service, who are sponsoring the meeting.

Practical and timely methods of preparing the soil and planting the garden to meet family needs are important. Maintenance of sufficient soil moisture and addition of proper fertilizers where needed will be emphasized.

Methods of garden insect control will be explained by Mr. Reider, who is Extension Entomologist and Plant Pathologist at Oregon State College, and well qualified to speak with authority on these subjects. The garden slug, aphid, cut worms and various beetles are some of the pests on which methods of control will be discussed. Tomato and potato blight are especially serious in this region and part of the meeting will be devoted to a discussion of these diseases.

Discussion of preservation of surplus vegetables and fruits will be led by Mrs. Dorothy Dunn, home demonstration agent. Although families are being urged to plant only according to their needs, it is anticipated that some surplus will occur, which will need to be saved for future use.
