Bare Facts From Bear Creek

"The Column that's Different"
(By Lans Leneve)

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heffley received word last week that their son, John, who has been in the thickest of the fighting in the South Pacific, was wounded in action recently and is now hospitalized at Pearl Harbor. The fighting Bear Creeker was wounded in the right hand.

The snow white robin which has frequented this district each spring for a number of past years has failed so far to put in an appearance this season and we are wondering if something hasn't happened to this rare bird.

For many days the past month great flocks of geese have been observed winging their way northward. This should prove beyond a doubt the fact that Spring has really arrived; but even the geese go wrong at times.

Humming birds and swallows and buzzards have all arrived upon the scene—all three being harbingers of Spring. Trilliums and spring beauties and Johnny-Jump-ups are all in bloom, the robins are singing at dawn. If Spring has not actually arrived, it surely must be just 'round the corner, perhaps hiding behind a flock of rain clouds—who knows?

Frank Culver is, indeed, a busy man these days, purchasing and butchering livestock all in the same day. One day he goes up the creek with a load of livestock and the next morning comes out with it all butchered and ready for market—that's really "throwing the bull" in a big way.

Last week Mrs. Wava Haga received a message from her husband, Red, that he was being transferred from the Medford cantonment to the Atlantic seaboard. Private Chesley has been in the armed forces for several years.

Sunday morning Al Morey bagged a large bobcat in this district. It took him only two hours to accomplish the feat.

Mrs. D. P. Jenkins has been confined for the past two weeks in the Belle Knife Hospital as the result of a bad leg injury, which she suffered while attending a school meeting at Riverton. She is chairman of the local school board.

With Eleanor burning thousands of gallons of gas travelling about the country by special plane, 'tis no wonder that the OPA had to cut down on "A" gas coupons. A few more such flights and we'll all have to park our cars for the duration.

There's another "sweetie-pie" in the J. D. Winter's family—weight, eight pounds, eight ounces—arrived via Stork last week, a daughter.

Newspaper Publisher Named J. P. For Myrtle Point

Arthur Jones, publisher of the Myrtle Point Herald, was last week appointed Justice of the Peace for Myrtle Point district No. 5, by Gov. Snell. Mr. Jones succeeds E. A. Dodge, who had held the office since 1909 and who resigned to give more attention to personal affairs.

Mr. Jones is an even-tempered, well-qualified man, even though he is a publisher, who will fill the office most satisfactorily.

Townsend Club No. 1

Townsend Club No. 1 met as usual, with the president in the chair. A nice large crowd attended but some sick members were unable to attend. We hope they will soon be coming again.

The program was of songs and poems. Mrs. Strang won the door prize and the meeting closed by all singing, "God Bless America," and repeating the pledge. All enjoyed the refreshments in the dining room after the meeting.

Next Tuesday pudding and crackers will be served.—Press Cor.
