

Fairview News

A real treat comes to Fairview church next Sunday evening at 7:45 when Carl E. Linden, a missionary who spent 18 1/2 years in northern India, will speak and also show colored Indian slides. Especially urged to attend are parents who have sons in the service in India. Fairview is urged to "pack the house out" as was done when the Brooks presented the sacred musical last month.

The Beginners class of the Fairview Sunday School had an Easter egg coloring party at the pastor's apartment last Friday night. They colored eggs, played games and at eight o'clock refreshments consisting of cookies, cocoa and Easter egg candy were served. Those present were Shirley Quenton, Larry Butler, Karen Benham, Jane Doyle, Joel Griffey, Jerry and Melvin Jensen, Barbara Schrag, Lorraine and Juggy Kaino, Irene and Ann Quivey and Dennis Buoy.

The young peoples class had its quarterly party at the home of their teacher, Mrs. L. L. Buoy, last Friday night. Games were played and the prize, won on credit points, a bowl of gold fish, was won by Bonnie Ellen Noah. Cake, ice cream and punch was served to Bonnie Ellen Noah, Dorene Frye, Betty Hatcher, Merle Boone, Emery Hunt and Oene Schrag. Easter Sunday, April 9, there will be special services at the church. The young folks are to have their part.

Lindy Lou Holverstott had the misfortune to fall at school Monday and injured both ankles, necessitating a visit to the physician to find if any bones were broken.

Mrs. Oliver Enlund has accepted chairmanship of the Red Cross work in this valley. She visited the Guild hall in Coquille last Friday and obtained sewing to be done in homes and she has been distributing same.

Riverton High School News

The best Junior-Senior banquet held in many years was that last Friday evening. The table and room were decorated in the spring theme, with greenery and daffodils. The centerpiece consisted of a huge green bowl of daffodils and two candlesticks. Hon. Ralph Moore of Bandon, representative of Coos county to the State Legislature, was the principal speaker of the evening. Ben Huntington, principal of Bandon high school, was toastmaster. The remainder of the program consisted of a violin solo by Dr. Cykler and three vocal solos by Mrs. Robert McCue, Juniors and Seniors and their parents, school board members, and members of the faculty were present.

On March 28, Billie Hepler and Gladys Domenighini received their Gregg shorthand speed certificates for having written Gregg shorthand for five minutes at sixty words a minute, and having transcribed the notes. These girls' names will appear in The Gregg Writer, a national shorthand publication.

Last Friday, the final meal to be prepared by the school cafeteria for this term was served. This cafeteria is sponsored by the Riverton Women's Club. Mrs. Wm. T. Alpine, assisted by Mrs. H. Hatfield, had been doing the cooking. In our opinion, these ladies have done a job worthy of much praise.

On Thursday, the material for the yearbook was taken to The News Press in Marshfield where it is to be printed. These yearbooks are now on sale for two dollars. They will be received in May.

Arago News Items

Mrs. J. L. Burtis accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Griffith and Mary Anne made a business trip to Marshfield last Thursday.

The Arago Co-op gave a party at the Arago Gym last Tuesday evening, with a crowd of about 150 people present. The motion picture, "Milky Way," and also one of Mickey Mouse were shown. Refreshments of cake, ice cream and coffee were served and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Ladies Aid met last Wednesday at the church for an all day's quilting and pot luck dinner at noon. Those present were: Mesdames O. H. Assen, Ward Evans, Albert Lillie, Albert Gulstrom, Clarence Butler and Stanley Halter. Ward Evans, Junior and Darwin Gulstrom and Maureen Evans came in and had dinner with the ladies. They will meet again this Wednesday all day.

Rev. G. A. Gray, of Coquille, conducted the regular Sunday morning church service. Sunday school followed with an attendance of 44. There will be services again next Sunday, preaching at 10 a. m. and at the Sunday school hour the regular Easter Sunday program will be given. There will be an Easter egg hunt for the children and a potluck dinner will be served in the church dining room at noon. Everyone is cordially invited.

Choir practice was held at the home of Mrs. O. H. Assen last Friday afternoon at 1:30, with the following ladies present: Mesdames Albert Lillie, Albert Gulstrom, Werner Paep, Stanley Halter, Wayne Woodward and S. C. McAllister. They will meet again this Friday at 1:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Melden Carl and Douglas were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Cross near Coquille.

Harold and Warren Fish left last Thursday for Arizona, where they went to bring their father, Frank Fish, home. Mr. Fish had a heart attack a short time ago. Mrs. Harold Fish is staying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller, while Harold is away.

Mrs. Avon Wilcox and Marjorie visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller Monday.

Mrs. Chas. Griffith had the misfortune to hurt her ankle last Saturday, while she was riding a harrow, which her husband was dragging behind a tractor. Mr. Griffith had asked his wife to stand on the harrow to hold it down and when he went over the rough ground she was thrown off and her foot was caught under the harrow and she was dragged quite a way before Mr. Griffith became aware of it. Mrs. Griffith had the ligaments torn loose in her leg and also received a cracked bone. She was taken in to the doctor immediately and, on returning home, she fell as she was trying to make her way up the steps with a pair of crutches and hurt her leg again. Mr. Griffith's father and mother stayed with them Saturday night but they left Monday for Portland to visit a daughter before returning to their home in the middle west.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lane were: Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christensen, of Coquille; Mrs. C. A. Keltner, Mrs. Ida Myers and Mrs. Stanley Halter.

Mesdames Wayne Woodward, Ida Myers, Lawrence Barklow and S. C. McAllister drove to Marshfield last Saturday.

Howdy Folks:

Well the business we are managing for you needs two experienced mechanics as Uncle borrowed Keith for a diesel mechanic in the Navy and we were already short of help.

We want men that intend to stay and who possess some of the following qualities—

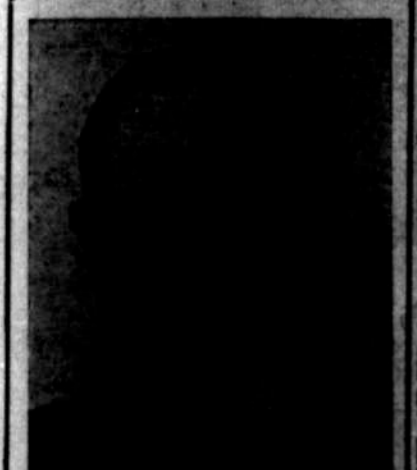

He must know general repairing. If he has specialized on Ford or Chevrolet cars for several years, that's O.K., too.

He must be reasonably clean with his work. He should drink only to quench his thirst.

He should have his own hand tools.

If any of you folks know of an eligible man, let's get together.

Church of The Nazarene

announcing
Rev. V. W. Anglin, Evangelist
of Eugene, Oregon
Every evening 7:45
Sunday 11 a. m.

The Church of The Nazarene is pleased to again be able to announce evangelistic meetings beginning Sunday morning, April 9, to continue over the 19th. Each evening at 7:45 and at 11 a. m. on Sundays.

Rev. V. W. Anglin, evangelist from Eugene, Oregon, is to be the speaker during this campaign. He is not a stranger in this part of the country, having been pastor of the Church of The Nazarene in Marshfield for eight years.

Rev. Mr. Anglin has been a pastor for around 20 years and is able to understand the need of the church of today. If you have a problem, or need help, you will find Mr. Anglin of an understanding heart and mind and we are very glad to invite the public to come and hear him preach. I'm sure there are a great many hungry-hearted people in this town and community who feel their need of help from God. There are others and probably many more that once felt that way but hardened their hearts and stifled that feeling and now they don't feel uneasy any more, and never will perhaps feel that way again. If you don't want that feeling of concern for your soul to slip away from you, then do something about it while you may. So we say once again, "Come with us and we will do thee good."

M. M. SHORT, Pastor.

Regular commercial flours work fine for big commercial bakers . . . BUT you'll do better baking with a home-type flour

Here's why home-type Kitchen Craft Flour gives better results in all your home baking

I'VE FOUND OUT! HOME BAKING IS DIFFERENT. THIS HOME-TYPE FLOUR... KITCHEN CRAFT... HAS DONE WONDERS FOR ALL MY BAKING!

Kitchen Craft is light-bodied: It mixes smoothly and quickly with other home-type ingredients to give fine even texture in all your home-baked foods.

Kitchen Craft is properly milled: Retains desirable moisture in your pastries, cakes and breads in spite of the drier heat of home ovens.

Kitchen Craft is dependably uniform: Absorbs the same amount of water each time—so you can follow your recipes to the letter.

Lighter, more delicate cakes . . . finer textured breads . . . flakier pie crust. That's the kind of results you get with Kitchen Craft Flour. Not just once in a while but every single time!

Because this fine home-type flour is specially milled and blended to work perfectly in home-size recipes. To mix quickly and easily with other home-type ingredients. It gives you more nourishing baked foods, too. Every sack of Kitchen Craft Flour is now enriched with B vitamins and iron.

Try this top quality all-purpose flour today. If for any reason Kitchen Craft Flour fails to please you, return the unused portion to your grocer and get back your full purchase price.
