

Personal Mention

W. T. Little, a brother of Mrs. Frank G. Wilson of Coquille, and of Frank Little of the Fairview route, came in last Saturday from Amarillo, Texas, for a couple of weeks' visit here. He is also a half-brother of S. R. Stover. The visitor, who is employed in the oil fields, was pretty nearly killed just before his relatives here saw him last, and he had made so remarkable a recovery from the injuries suffered in the explosion that they did not at first recognize him.

Mrs. E. D. Bittner, of Portland, is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harriman. Mrs. Harriman is recuperating from an eight weeks illness caused by a heart attack.

When this reporter stopped to see Leneve, at his Bear Creek store home last Sunday, it was to find him looking huskier than ever before, but his doctor at Myrtle Creek, where he suffered the heart attack and spent some time in the hospital, told him that only months of staying in bed would help him; otherwise he might go out like a light at any time.

Robert Fromm, sheep and wool grower of Brushes Creek below Port Orford and his brother, John Fromm, who runs a large dairy ranch on the lower Sixes river, were business visitors in Coquille on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Watson arrived in Coquille Tuesday evening for a visit with friends and relatives.

Miss Aileen Wilson will present piano pupils in recital on May 18, Thursday, at 8:00 p. m. at the Assembly of God church.

Kathleen Collier arrived home last Friday night for a short visit with her family and friends. She is service manager for Durkees Famous Foods at Berkeley. She plans on some fishing while here.

Mrs. S. H. Donsted, of Coquille, attended Mothers' Day ceremonies at Eugene over the week-end to be accompanied by Mrs. Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lake came in from Seattle Wednesday morning, she to stay here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McClellan. Mr. Lake who as in the Army Air Corps once before and then released to return to his job with the Boeing factory for six months, has been recalled to the service and is to report at once at Fort Lewis.

Mrs. Bertha Smith went to Eugene last Friday to attend Mother's Day festivities as a guest of Harriet Tozier. Mrs. Smith stated she had never before attended and she found it all very interesting because of the many activities and added it was a great privilege. She returned Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Levene, old-time residents of Coquille who left here about 15 years ago and are now living in Eureka, Calif., came in last Wednesday to visit her sisters, Mrs. Flora Dunne and Mrs. Clara Wheeler.

They left Tuesday to visit their sons, Clyde at Monroe, Ore., and Edward at Pasco, Wash. They will be back in Monroe for their granddaughter's graduation from high school, June 1, and will then return to Coquille for a few days.

Rotary To Sponsor Dance June 3
The Rotary Club at their meeting Wednesday decided to sponsor a public dance to be given Saturday, June 3, in the Community Building. The proceeds to apply entirely, after expenses are paid, toward the public address system fund.

Quite a varied program was enjoyed by those present. Shirley Conarn and Lorraine Stewart each played two solos on the piano. This was little Miss Shirley's first public appearance and she put up a very creditable appearance. George Gant, DeWayne Mitchell, Gerald Ulett and Van Eldredge sang a number of songs, accompanied by Mrs. Thora Watson.
