I. O. O. F. Mother-Daughter Banquet

On Sunday afternoon, May 7, the I. O. O. F. hall was the scene of the Mother and Daughter banquet, which is served annually to the Rebekahs and their daughters by the men of the Odd Fellows lodge.

It has been customary for the men to do all the work for this banquet, from the selection of the food, cooking it, setting and decorating the tables, serving the dinner and right on through to washing all the dishes. While these dinners have always been enjoyed, it seemed to all who attended that this year we enjoyed the best banquet ever held.

Rebekahs and their guests, nearly seventy-five in all, were seated at long tables in the lodge dining room, which were tastefully decorated in spring flowers. The menu consisted of tomato juice cocktail, pineapple and cottage cheese salad, roast pork, mashed potatoes and peas, hot rolls, ice cream and cookies and coffee.

This dinner, so nicely prepared and served, was the work of the following Odd Fellows: J. P. Beyers, J. L. Child, Harry Hunt, Lonnie Clark and P. P. Bales, cooks, and E. E. Treece, W. A. Moore, L. W. Bracelin, E. E. Wallace, E. C. Briner and Chas. Gaslin, waiters.

The program was presided over by Noble Grand Iola Moore of the Rebekah lodge, who acted as toastmistress. It was opened by singing "God Bless America" and by prayer by Rev. Liston Parrish. A welcome to the guests was extended by Mrs. E. L. Benham and the response to the welcome was made by Miss Alene Hunt. Mrs. Liston Parrish, soprano, sang "Dear Little Mother of Mine," in a very pleasing manner, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Beyers. A Mother's Day talk was given by Mr. Parrish, who very appropriately chose as his theme the story of Ruth and Naomi. His remarks will be long remembered. Little Miss Betty Clark sang the song, "Mother." Each Rebekah then introduced her guests.

A highlight of the program was the presentation of veterans' jewels to three Rebekah sisters, who have been members of the lodge for more than 50 years. These emblems were presented by Mrs. Inez Chase to Mrs. Eunice Schroeder of Reedsport, Mrs. Laura Edmonds of Coquille and Mrs. Laura Bontell of San Jose, California. The first two ladies were not able to be present so their jewels were sent to them, while J. P. Beyers was called on to receive the one for his sister, Mrs. Bontell, to whom he was instructed to send it. Mrs. Chase was then surprised to find herself the recipient of a Past Noble Grand pin, presented by Mrs. Benham, speaking in behalf of the Sewing Club, which has been making one such presentation each term to the oldest Past Noble Grand in point of service who has not already received her pin.

The program closed with the entire group joining in the song, "Sing Your Way Home," with each one present most certainly agreeing that she hopes to be present next year.

Mamie Rebekah Lodge Notes

The regular meeting of Mamie Rebekah Lodge, No. 20, was held in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Tuesday evening, May 9, with Noble Grand Iola Moore presiding. Attendance was unusually good.

Routine business was cared for. The degree team beautifully presented the work, initiating the following seven candidates: Walter Moore, Ernest Benham, Gladys Bales, Elsie A. Travis, Ethel Robison, Elmer Treece and Lonnie Clark.

Nominations for officers for the next term were made. The election will be held at the next meeting.

A candlelight ceremony was held during which the charter was draped for Sister Estelle Dunn, P. N. G., who passed away since the last meeting.

Plans were completed for sending delegates to the Rebekah Assembly in connection with Grand Lodge in Portland next week. Mrs. Lois Stevens was elected trustee for a term of three years. Applications for membership were read and referred to committee.

After the meeting the entire group gathered in the dining room for apple pie and coffee.

The Aaron Smiths Send Regards To Old Friends

Remitting for another year's subscription to the Sentinel, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Smith write as follows: "We read your paper, then send it to our son-in-law, who is at Pomona, Calif. As you know we are all from Coquille, so like to hear from the folks from our home town. My wife and I are in the restaurant business here in Butte Falls, Ore., and are doing very well. Best regards to all our old friends."

Alarm Clocks repaired at Schroeder's Jewelry Store.

Eagles Auxiliary Elected New Officers Friday

The Auxiliary to Coquille Aerie, F. O. E., No. 2196, held its annual election of officers for the coming year last Friday. Elected were: Agnes Story, Madam President; Beth Baker, Past Madam President; Lela Avery, Madam Vice President; Gladys Anderson, Chaplain; Mary Cross, Secretary; Kathryn Lemon, Treasurer; Mabel Kyle, Inside Guard; Bertha Wilson, Outside Guard; Margaret Spores, Trustee. These newly elected officers will be installed the first meeting in June.

The Eagles and Auxiliary are planning a large program on Mother's Day, May 14. Jessie Adams, the official Mother of the Auxiliary, will rule over this day. All members are urged to attend these two beautiful programs.—Mary Cross, Secty.

Children To Present, A Mother's Day Program

At the regular Bible School hour of 9:45, the children of the Church of Christ, E. 4th and Coulter, will present next Sunday an elaborate Mother's Day Pageant showing the Mothers of the Bible. Each class has chosen some mother from the scripture and will portray an incident from her life. Every child and young person in the Bible School has a part in the program.

In order that the people may more readily see the children, an elevated platform has been installed on the rostrum. Everyone is invited to attend this service and to stay for the morning worship service when the pastor will present an unique message entitled, "A Message from Mother."

W. S. C. S. Met In Pioneer Hall Last Thursday

Twenty-two members of the Women's Society of Christian Service met at Pioneer Church last Thursday for their regular meeting. Business was conducted in the morning with a potluck dinner served at noon. Special guests for the luncheon were Mesdames Savage, Gillespie, and Ziegler, Messrs Ernest Purvance, Larry Lundquist, W. E. Bosserman and Dr. Richmond. The afternoon meeting was led by Mrs. Purvance and Mrs. Richmond, with the Mesdames Leonard, Howe, Oddy, Taylor, Ellis, Bosserman and Peart taking part in the program. A shower for the work being done by the church at the Immigration Center at San Francisco was a feature of the program and a large box of useful articles for the refugees held there by the government was packed. The next meeting of the society will be on the first Thursday in June.

Mrs. Hadsell Hostess To Dorcas Society Thursday

The Dorcas missionary group of the Church of Christ met with Mrs. Ralph Hadsell last Thursday afternoon. After a short business meeting, the afternoon was spent sociably. The hostess served ice cream and cookies to the following ladies: Mesdames Belle Hooton, Lou Hutton, El Erickson, Ann Dungey, Amos Payne, Willard Sloan, Jennie Lafferty and a visitor, Mrs. Erma Byington, from Philomath, Oregon.

For the present—due to difficulty in getting material—will make portraits and group pictures on appointment ONLY.

Copies of documents, photostats, also Kodak finishing same as usual.

Thanking you
