versary. To stress the fact, all decorations were in blue and silver. There were 157 registrants. Eva Stevens, local incoming president, and Florence Hallock, outgoing president, went to Klamath Falls early to attend the Friday night dinner of the executive board members. The theme, originated by B. P. W., "Winning the War and Winning the Peace," has attracted comments from nationally famous men. It was stated. A resolution was passed that all clubs should seek representation on local post war planning boards in the respective communities.

One of the many fine talks was given by Mrs. Winnie Pettyjohn of Salem. Her subject, "Responsibility of Women Voters in 1944," was timely. She stated Russian women have made the greatest progress in the shortest time of any in the world. In Russia women have full equality with men, which American women have not.

Paul S. Hitchcock reviewed "American Canons," a book which he recommended all to read. The reviewer is a former national president of Kiwanis.

Mrs. Constance Weber, of Hood River, was elected as new state president. The next convention will be held at Hood River. Mrs. Isabelle Brinker, of Klamath Falls, is the outgoing head.

Belle Knife Hospital

Mrs. Anna Ekblad, of Marshfield, entered the hospital last Thursday for treatment.

Homer C. Arnett and Mrs. Reta Milligan, both of Coquille, entered the hospital on Monday to undergo major operations.

Joanne Williamson on Monday and Larry Cotter on Wednesday underwent appendectomies. Both live in Coquille.

Harold Hoisington, of the McKinley route, entered Tuesday for treatment of an infected hand which had been injured by a saw.

Dismissals the past week were Mrs. Felix Miller, of Lebanon, last Friday; Mrs. Clarence Miller and Chauncey Fish on Saturday; Ernest Counts and L. E. Tankersley, of Marshfield on Sunday; Clifford Cotter on Monday and Charles Waite on Wednesday.

Roy Mothers Club

Patricia Griffith was hostess last Tuesday afternoon when the Roy Mothers club met at the Teahouse. Plans for a picnic on Wednesday were completed. It was decided to continue the meetings through the summer. School will close on Friday. Attending were Mrs. Huldah Ellingson, Frances Detlefsen, Mary Johnson, Clara Krantz, Alex Mackey, Lottie Aber and Mrs. Griffith, Sr.

Mrs. Boober Now Woman's Club Pres.

tirely apart from the subject. He closed with the reading of a poem written by a wounded soldier in the moments preceding what he thought would be his passing. It was entitled, "What Have YOU Done Today." Miss Aileen Wilson delighted the audience with two piano numbers, the Allegro movement from Waldstein Sonata by Beethoven and Impromptu-Fantaisie by Chopin. Both numbers were played with skill and the Chopin number was so beautiful one felt spell-bound at its close.

Mrs. O. C. Sanford, outgoing president, was in charge of the meeting as presiding officer until the conclusion when she turned the gavel over to her successor, Mrs. R. E. Boober, at the close of the installation of new officers. Mrs. Boober's response was a few lines of clever verse.

Mrs. Sanford, recent past president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, whose administration was acclaimed a marked success, threw the benefits of that experience into her efforts as leader of the Coquille club, which she generously took over at a time when other leadership was not available.

Financial results for the year have amounted to $1187.57. More than $550 was raised and given to the City Library alone.

Mrs. Kesner's report as head of the Red Cross and Mrs. J. R. Bunch, in charge of surgical dressings, as well as the bond chairman's report by Mrs. Wm. Barrow were the outstanding activities for the club year and showed amazing results. Mrs. Alborn in charge of Red Cross knitting stated Mrs. P. M. Norton had completed forty articles.

Mrs. Sanford's recommendations were to stress war work, help with the 4th of July celebration and to purchase three one hundred dollar war bonds in June and as many more as the treasury would permit.

An impressive ten-minute installation of new officers was conducted, which closed with a short prayer read by Mrs. J. A. Berg.

Mrs. Boober's long experience with local club activities and as a member of the executive board, together with her native talents, assures the club of great promise during the coming months of her administration. The club is to be congratulated on its good fortune again in leadership, was the expression heard Tuesday.

Bridal Shower For Miss Claudia Varney Tuesday Evening

Miss Claudia Lee Varney of Coquille was delightfully surprised with a bridal shower last Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Maxine Whereat. Gifts were opened early in the evening in the presence of many friends and classmates and refreshments were served later in the evening.

Those attending were the Misses Glenda Richardson, Dorothy Beagle, Phyllis Litzenberger, Jessie Sherwood, Donna Rankin, Vera Bishop, Jeannie Griggs, Ann Anderson, Louise Butler, Lunelle Chapin, Virginia Lindsay, Janet Lewis, Donna Lue Bales, and the Mesdames Mary Chapin, Harold Simmons, Joe Varney, S. Hendrix, Ernest Whereat, Olgier Molhu; the hostess, Maxine Whereat, and the guest of honor, Claudia Lee Varney.

Miss Varney will leave the 25th of May for Long Beach, California. After a short visit with relatives and friends there, she will continue on to New Orleans, Louisiana, where she will meet her fiance, 2nd Lt. Howard Caudle, of the Marine Air Corps. Lt. Caudle is a former Myrtle Point man, having graduated from the Myrtle Point High School a few years ago. Miss Varney is a member of this year's graduating class of Coquille. The couple plan to be married some time in June.

More Reservations Open For Holman Dinner

Senator Rufus Holman, who will appear at a banquet tonight at the Coquille Hotel is expected to carry on with the refutation of charges leveled against him by his opponent in the Republican Primary, Wayne L. Morse.

Statewide interest has been aroused over each of the speeches which the senator has made at previous stops in his campaign circuit.

Local interest and speculation is running high concerning Senator Holman's talk here tonight. Though many reservations have been made for the banquet, it is still possible to accommodate more interested voters.

Lafalot Club

Mrs. John Martin was a hostess last Thursday afternoon when her sewing club met at her home. Mrs. J. Esser was a visitor. Members attending were Mesdames Alex Mackey, Lola Meyers, Bertha Cross, Edna Rakestraw, Huldah Ellingson, Ophal Gilman and Elsie Wheaton.

Hawaiian Setting For Junior-Senior Banquet

The members of the Junior and Senior classes of the high school, the faculty, board members and their wives enjoyed a remarkably entertaining evening last Friday at the Junior-Senior banquet held in the Odd Fellows hall.

The theme, "Hawaiian," was carried out in the decorations, the toast program and as well in the musical program.

Sherman Gregory was master of ceremonies and toasts were given by the following: Louise Butler, Ralph Meyers, Jean Plieth, Jim Bunch, Kenneth Hooton, Barbara Barrows, De Wayne Mitchell, Claire Gray and Vera Bishop. All topics were Hawaiian, mixed with humor and seriousness. Clever preflight diplomats in verse caused lots of merriment.

Jeanne Griggs sang "Trade Winds," Ronald Williams played violin numbers, "Stringin' Along" and "Estrelita." The senior boys quartette sang two Hawaiian melodies.

Names of eleven sophomore girls had been drawn to serve at the banquet and these were dressed in colorful style. The girls attending wore formal and looked very lovely.

Mrs. Thora Watson, Junior class adviser, was in charge, assisted by individual girls in the class. Expressions of pleasure over the affair were heard from numbers of those who attended among the faculty and board.
