Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Greenough arrived here from Seattle last Saturday morning and left again for Seattle, where he is one of the Boeing Aircraft engineering crew, Monday. They timed their vacation visit here so that he and Tallant and their father, F. L. Greenough, could go on a fishing trip to the Rogue river together, but the latter was laid up last week and with a severe cold and the Curry county trip had to be called off.

That was a very good picture of Margaret Stewart, Wave daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stewart of this city, which appeared in last Saturday's Oregon Journal. Margaret is in the store keeper department of the Navy at the San Diego base.

Mrs. Martha Young, who has been office secretary for Drs. Richmond and Stark for several years, has resigned that position and expects to leave about the first of June to join her husband, H. Z. Young, at Chatteroy, Wash. She will be succeeded in the office here by Mrs. Ray Buckels.

Mr. and Mrs. Novia Landreth, Jr., and seven-year old daughter, Susan, visited at the A. O. Walker home over the week-end. They were on their way home to Oakland, Calif., from Roseburg where they had been called by the death of Mrs. Walker's niece.

Coquille Unit Red Cross Notes

Coquille Red Cross will not hold its regular meeting on Friday, May 19, that day being election day.

Last week's meeting on Friday started off with a potluck luncheon at 12:30 noon, at which 38 were seated. Both Mr. E. D. McCune's and Mr. Hatcher's birthdays were observed by candle-lighted cakes and "Happy Birthday" songs. After the tables were cleared Red Cross work was carried on as usual.

At the next work meeting, Friday, May 26, in addition to kit bags and housewives a new quota will be started on service men's pajamas.

Two more colorful and cozy afghans were turned in by Mrs. Wm. H. Barrow's evening group and one made and donated by Mrs. Hattie Shelley and a neighbor, Mrs. Alford. The following ladies are thanked for wool materials, white muslin, yarn and wash cloths: Mesdames Bert Folsom, Fred Houston, C. Kern, Floyd Smith, C. E. Benham, Geo. Johnson, Ida Owen, Elsie Cunningham and F. C. True.

Visitors were Mesdames Hattie Shelley, Ida Owen, Hal Pierce, Fred Houston, and J. A. Moore.

The two outlying Red Cross groups at McKinley and Fairview, conducted by Mrs. Hilda Brown and Mrs. O. C. Enlund, are doing fine work and we appreciate the support they are giving us," says Mrs. D. B. Kenner, production chairman.

In the absence of Mrs. L. A. Lundquist, cutting was done by Mrs. A. N. Gould, Mrs. G. B. Howe and Mrs. Sedye. Mrs. A. M. McIntee's group tied a quilt.

Three Sailors Given Seven Years In Pen

Those three Navy tough boys, James R. Spraker, Wm. Rose and Clifford Hudson Bingham, will have plenty of time to repent their misdeeds. They are the trio which slugged Chief McCarter at North Bend ten days ago, stole the police car, and were caught at Reedport.

They pleaded guilty in circuit court before Judge King last Friday and were sentenced to seven years each in the penitentiary. Sheriff Howell took them out to Salem Saturday.

Robert Ahr, who has made 16 annual tours of the Coquille valley since 1926 will be over here in the near future. He covers umbrellas, grinds scissors, repairs cooking utensils of tin, enamel and aluminum. Lack of time may not permit him to cover the entire valley and he asks that the ladies look their equipment over and have it ready for his attention, and those living at a distance, bring it to him in Coquille when the date is set. 11'
