

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Caughell and J. S. Barton of Coquille, H. A. Schroeder and J. A. Parrish of Myrtle Point, left Wednesday morning for Eugene to attend the Rotary International state convention on Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCue returned this week from a week's stay in Portland.

Mrs. George Loveland, of Berkeley, Calif., arrived in Coquille Sunday to spend her two weeks' vacation with her sisters here. Mrs. Loveland is employed by Consolidated Freightways in Oakland and made the trip north with Mr. Weisler, who is division superintendent for the Bay area.

R. G. (Sandy) McBride, who has been one of the Mt. States Power Co. crew here the past few years has been transferred to the company's office in Albany. He and Mrs. McBride and their daughter are leaving today for their new location.

Mrs. Ralph Nosler is to have her grandson, Steve Nosler of Portland, with her for a visit shortly. Steve has been visiting Skipper Sackett for a week in Marshfield. He accompanied the Sacketts down from Portland.

Mrs. B. W. Gluck and daughters, Diane and Silvia, are visiting at the F. C. True home from Palo Alto.

Mrs. Ralph Nosler has had as her guest the past week, Erma Olson from Alaska, who for two years was at one time on the local telephone exchange.

George Chaney, Jr., in company with Ralph Uhlman, young Portland engineer student, left for the north Tuesday morning after a week's visit at the George Chaney home. George, Jr., goes this week to Bonneville, where he will enter employment. He graduated from Oregon State College this spring.

Oscar's Radio Shop, moved to the building just south of Coquille Service Station, on Taylor street, will be opened Wednesday, July 5.

FOR SALE, or Trade—Two Horses for any kind of livestock. Horses 3 and 4 years old, sound and gentle. Brownson Bros. on Big Creek near Bridge.

Davis Chaney, second son of Mr. and Mrs. George Chaney, is expected home some time this week. Davis looks for a transfer soon from Hancock Field, in California, where he has been for three years in connection with the Air School. He expects to be home for a month and is bringing a friend who will be a guest at the Chaney home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. True accompanied Mrs. Frank O. True and little daughter to Farragut, Ida., this weekend to visit Frank. They expected to be gone about two weeks.

Ben Lawrence Here Several Days Last Week

Ben F. Lawrence, nearly 40 years ago a Coquille newspaper publisher and since with the Oregonian and the Indianapolis Star, was calling on old friends here last week. He came over from Roseburg last Wednesday and returned there on Sunday but said he and Mrs. Lawrence, the former Mary Drane, will be over here this week for a short stay before going down to Southern California for a three months' stay. They expect to return to Indianapolis this fall. Ben has not yet announced in what business he will engage when they return home.

J. S. Barton New President of Rotary

Larry Lundquist, retiring president of the Rotary Club, at Wednesday's luncheon turned over the gavel and pinned the president's pin on J. S. Barton, who will serve for the coming year. Pres. Barton's first official act was to decorate Mr. Lundquist with the past president's pin. The other officers who will support Mr. Barton are Bob Greene, vice-president; Hode Caughell, secretary and treasurer; Tom Stevens, sergeant-at-arms, and Orville Wood, program chairman.

Guests present were past Victory Queens Doris Ann Wood and Pat Berg and the present candidate, Gwen Elrod. Lieut. Chas. Mulkey and Corporal Tallant Greenough of the U. S. Army and Harry Johnson of Coquille.

The booster pump truck of the Coquille Fire department was called out Tuesday afternoon to extinguish a grass fire, which was threatening the Valley View school house, this side of Johnson Mill. No damage was done.

Horse Show Judge An Outstanding Man

The committee feels very fortunate in being able to secure such a noted judge of horses and authority on livestock as R. G. Johnson, head of the Animal Husbandry Dept. at Oregon State College.

Professor Johnson last year went on a very extensive trip with a party of specialists, exploring the vast grass lands of wild west China, via a thirty-three day horse caravan, with native guides. See the June issue of the National Geographic for the very interesting article written and illustrated by Mr. Johnson.

You will have an opportunity, perhaps, to learn more about horses by observing Mr. Johnson's judging ability. He is an expert rider and roper and you will see him mounted in the parade and at the show.

Square Dancing To Be On Monday

Lively interest is being shown in the third annual square dancing contest which is a highlight of the Monday afternoon program of Coquille's Victory Celebration.

Coos county Granges will compete for the $50 war bond, first prize award, and the $25 bond for second place winner. Prizes of $10.00 and $5.00 will be awarded for first and second place for the best callers in the square dance contest.

In addition to the Grange competition, this year's program will include a juvenile classification. Juvenile teams will be entered by the Coquille Grange, Coquille Boy Scouts, Coquille High School and McKinley Juvenile Grange.

All dances are to be held on the large open air platform in front of the community center within easy view of all. This rollicking old-fashioned dance contest has always been jolly entertainment for merry makers at Coquille's Victory Celebration.

James Bishop Will Be Transferred To Salem

James Bishop, who has been in County Agent Jenkins' office here for nearly four years, on part time for 4-H club work, is to leave the middle of July for Salem, where he will be full time 4-H club agent for Marion county. He desires to sell his place on Spurgeon Hill before leaving.

Insurance specialist, F. R. Bull.

Defendant Wins In $17,700 Damage Suit

A three-day damage suit trial in Circuit court this week resulted in a verdict by the jury last evening in favor of the defendant, Perry C. Roper of Myrtle Point.

Two cases had been filed, one for $10,000 damages and the other for $7,700. Ed Morris, as administrator, filing one case and Maude Cosner, the other.

The suits resulted from a fatal accident on the Powers road on June 16, 1942, when it was alleged that Mr. Roper, going toward Powers, forced the Morris car off the road and which resulted in the death of Clifford Morris, Union Oil Co. truck driver.

Reunion of L. H. Hazard Family This Week

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hazard had the pleasure of having all three of their children home at the same time and they spent three days this week at the Hazard cottage on the East Fork—the Ko-Keel Kanu Klub grounds.

Mrs. Hale B. Eubanks and daughter, Adrienne, returned Monday from visiting Capt. Eubanks at San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Sercomb were here from Portland and Austin Hazard from Pasadena. Mr. Sercomb returned to Portland the first of the week and today Austin is driving Mrs. Sercomb and children back to Portland from where he will take the stage for home.

Dr. Witcosky Has Veterinary Partner, Dr. E. M. Crawford

Dr. R. M. Crawford, who came here from Atlanta, Georgia, a couple of weeks ago, has formed a partnership with Dr. C. L. Witcosky, both men being veterinarians. Dr. Crawford is a graduate of the Colorado State College and was engaged in artificial insemination (artificial breeding) in La Crosse county, Wis., for a year and a half. Following that he was in Atlanta for nine months with a dog and cat hospital. The doctors attend to any veterinarian demands for animals but their work is principally with the dairy herds of the county.

The smear campaign has started in Coos county in the New Deal publication and the misrepresentation of Tom Dewey's utterances and intentions can be expected to continue until the November election, and again after next Jan. 20—inauguration day.

Henry W. Stone Buried Saturday

Henry W. Stone passed suddenly at 2:00 p. m. last Friday at 2:00 p. m. last Friday at his home on Glen Aiken Creek. While he had not been in good health, his passing came as a shock to his family and friends.

Mr. Stone was born in Minnesota and came to Oregon 16 years ago, and had lived in this district for the past 14 years.

Survivors include a son, Al Stone, and daughter, Mrs. Selma Finley of Glen Aiken Creek, and a daughter, Mrs. Helen Oylear of Marshfield.

Services were conducted at the Gano Funeral Home at 2:00 p. m. Saturday, interment being in the I. O. O. F. cemetery No. 2, of Coquille, beside his wife who passed away several years ago.

Rev. M. D. Rempel of the Baptist church brought the message of comfort to the bereaved family.

Below is the picture of Marybelle Yarbrough, one of the nine contestants, whose picture was not received in time to have a cut made for last week's issue of the Sentinel.

MARYBELLE YARBROUGH

FILMS

While They Last
Saturday, July 1 at 10 a. m.

Bring in your Camera and we will load.
MUST HAVE CAMERA

One to a customer Crepe Paper

All Colors for Decorations

Candy - Stationery - Cosmetics

Fuhrman's Pharmacy

Open 8:30 a. m. until 6:00 p. m.

THUR. FRI. SAT. June 29-30 July 1

What you've been waiting for!

Rita HAYWORTH
Gene KELLY

Cover Girl

TECHNICOLOR
Music by JEROME KERN
Lyrics by IRA GERSHWIN
THE COVER GIRLS
15 of America's Most Beautiful Women

with LEE BOWMAN
PHIL SILVERS
JINX FALKENBURG
Screen Play by VIRGINIA VAN OPP
Directed by CHARLES VIDOR
A COLUMBIA PICTURE

NEWS 16c      CARTOON 55c

Sun., Mon., Tues. - July 2, 3, 4

OUR CHOICE — FOR THE BIG CELEBRATION —

DAVDY!
A NEW WARNER HIGH
FOR THE ENTERTAINMENT SKY!

DENNIS MORGAN
ANN SHERIDAN
JACK CARSON
IRENE MANNING

"SHINE ON HARVEST MOON"

Sing 'em again!
'BREEZY' ALONG WITH THE BREEZE!
'OH! YOU BEAUTIFUL DOLL'
'TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME'
'APPLE BLOSSOM TIME IN NORWANDY'
'LOOKS LIKE A BIG NIGHT TONIGHT'

CARTOON NEWS
MATINEE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

WED. JULY 5

A CHUMP TO HIS CHUMS!
A HERO TO YOU!

No man ever faced greater shame for the love of his sweetheart and his country!

There's SOMETHING About a Soldier

with TOM NEAL
EVELYN KEYES
BRUCE BENNETT
JOHN HUBBARD
JEFF DONNELL
A COLUMBIA PICTURE

LATEST NEWS
COMEDY
ADULTS 40c
Children 16c

ROXY