

Coquille Unit Red Cross Notes

Coquille Red Cross will meet Friday, June 30, from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m., in Guild Hall to sew, knit, crochet, etc.

Mrs. Phil Alborn, knitting chairman, urges knitters to call at workroom for yarn for sweaters and "beanies," or phone her, 172-R, evenings. These sweaters are the regular Army v-neck, sleeveless sweaters that knit quickly and simple directions are furnished.

Machine sewing at present consists of bed jackets, pajamas, kit bags and baby diapers to be hemmed.

Mrs. Ida Owen made and donated a very nice afghan laprobe. She was assisted by Mrs. C. Floten. The Unit thanks Mrs. John Bullack for wool material and Mrs. A. C. Schroeder for yarn.

Visitors at last week's meeting were Mrs. Guy Kelley and Mrs. Davidson.

If you have a neighbor who is not doing some kind of Red Cross work at the present time, won't you suggest that she call at the workroom, where she may work with the group or may take sewing or knitting home, says Mrs. D. B. Kesner, chairman of production.

Soroptimists Observe First Anniversary

Entertainment by the Williams brothers, Ronald and Morris, included two enjoyable violin numbers, accompanied by Muriel Dee Ardath.

Howdy Folks:

Well it's only a few more days to the 4th and all the other days we take advantage of when the 4th comes on Tuesday.

Lets hope there will be a lighter and better day to celebrate soon.

Until we can do our best to keep the wheels of industry rolling.

"Groom Nervous" At Grange Wedding

Wedding bells rang at Coquille Grange, No. 294, last Friday evening. The ceremony opened with a musical selection, "Simple Ave," played by Florence Hallock. A vocal solo, "Here Comes the Bride," was rendered by Esther Briner. Pearl Rubie, matron of honor, was escorted to the altar by Mrs. Rose Knight, who acted as honorary usher. The mother of the bride, Ida Oerding, preceded her, dressed in deep mourning. Mrs. Rubie was handsome in a floor length pink gown, trimmed with tiny rows of dainty lace.

The six bridesmaids were next in line. They were Frances Detlefsen, Georgia Gould, Hazel George, Cora Mackey, Bertha Cross and Susie Martin. All were gowned in floor length costumes of pastel shades from dainty violet to deep red. Each carried a garden corsage.

Two flower girls, Minnie Clinton and Glenda Clinton, were attractive in their bodice-style long gowns of flowered yellow silk. Baskets of petals, a la victory garden variety, were carried and strewn for the path of the bride, Matilda Short, (better known as Elsie Wheaton), who entered on the arm of her father, Katie Detlefsen. Preceding them was Gladys George, ringbearer, cherubic in knee length trousers, white blouse and pink tie.

The bride, beautiful beyond description, wore a flowing white gown with six-foot train. A veil, draped coronet style, added to her natural stateliness.

Extra Long, (better known as Ruth Varney), waited at the altar. Best man, Edna Rakestraw, and the minister, Laura Brandon, were beside "him." His countenance, though smiling happily, suggested nervousness and uncertainty as the bride entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Florence Hallock. After much kissing of both the bride and groom, the guests were served wedding cake and coffee, by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buckles, Mr. and Mrs. Gasner, Josh Rubie and Joe Varney.

Shower Monday For The Former Dorothy Coffey

Mrs. L. C. McGilvery was hostess to a bridal shower given at her home Monday evening, honoring Mrs. Walter Kight, who was married in Roseburg recently. Mrs. Kight is the former Dorothy Coffey, who before her marriage was bookkeeper for the Coquille Medical Service Bureau and president of the Bachelor Girls club.

Those attending were the Mesdames Ellis Kight, Loren Willard, N. S. Springer, S. H. Donsted, Donald Ross, Jane Martin, Lee Atkinson, Georgia Davidson, the Misses Cleo Kight, Diane Leith and Betty Donsted. Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mesdames Joe Eocco, Ancil Kight, Eli Brault, Margaret Leith, Lubert Bemetz, Carl Hansen and Evelyn Hansen.

Four-H Club Has Picnic

The 4-H Breakfast Club of the Roy district held a picnic Friday, June 23. The group was organized during this last school year and this was the eighth of the ten meetings required. Mrs. Cora Mackey is their leader. Swimming and hiking were the diversions of the day. Members attending were Patsy Detlefsen, Joan Gesner, Robin Griffith, Elsie Johnson, Loreta Mass and the following guests, Fumsky Gesner, Doc Detlefsen, Louise Johnson and Sandra Griffith.

Mamie Rebekah Lodge Meeting Tuesday Evening

The regular meeting of Mamie Rebekah Lodge, No. 30, was called to order by Noble Grand Iola Moore in the I.O.O.F. hall Tuesday evening. Routine business was cared for and attention was called to the fact that local lodge affairs were given considerable space in the "Pacific Odd-fellow" magazine.

Mrs. Ines Chase was reported as having gone home from the hospital and is gradually recovering. Mrs. Panay Ross and E. C. Briner were reported as being in the hospital. Mrs. Beulah Neely was reported as having had an accident to her hand while at work.

The committee appointed to prepare an exercise for observing Memorial Day of the Independent Order of Oddfellows presented a candlelight service. Those participating were Mrs. Lois Stevens, Miss Ida Oerding, Mrs. Florence Hallock, Mrs. Merle Kellenberger and Mrs. Ruth Beyers. At the close of the Memorial, which was dedicated both to deceased members and to members in the service of the U. S. A., a vocal arrangement of "The Lord's Prayer," was beautifully sung by Mrs. Hallock, accompanied by Mrs. Birdie Skeels.

There was discussion of the request of the committee of arrangements for the Fourth of July Celebration for assistance. Since the Rebekah lodge, being a fraternal organization, is limited in its activities by state and national regulations, and enough members of the Sewing Club, which sponsors the money-raising activities for the Order, were not present to take action, nothing could be done about a concession. But a committee was appointed to see what could be done about co-operating with the general committee in preparing a rest room.

Considerable time was given to the plans for participating in the district convention in Marshfield on Wednesday, July 12. The local lodge is to present the Tribute to the Past Chairmen. Mrs. Helen Larson is in charge of this tribute.

Announcement of practice for the degree team will be made later.
