Delayed Obituary Of Melvin Hayter

Mrs. Melvin Hayter, of Riverton, hands the Sentinel the following obituary notice about Mr. Hayter, who died last February. She had delayed bringing it in until she had heard from all Mr. Hayter's brothers and sisters:

Melvin Hayter passed away at the Oregon State Hospital in Salem Sunday morning, Feb. 6, 1944, after an illness of two years and three months, at the age of 82 years. The body was not brought home for interment but was cremated at Salem and the ashes were deposited in a vault.

Melvin Hayter was born in Polk county, near Dallas, Oregon, Feb. 17, 1862, and moved with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hayter, in 1865 to Coos county. He attended his first school at Arago, then called Hall's Prairie. He worked on his father's farm until he was 14 years old when he went to work in a logging camp. He had followed logging and work in camp nearly all his life.

He was united in marriage to Miss Nettie Pearl Steward of Beaver Slough, May 27, 1896. To this union two children were born: James Lester Hayter, deceased, and Alvin Hayter. In 1906 he bought a house in Riverton, where his home was until his death.

He is survived by his widow, Nettie Pearl Hayter, and one son, Alvin Hayter. His surviving brothers and sisters are: Annie Knowlton, Ella Smith, Cora Lindback, all of Oakland, Calif.; Wilbur Hayter, Yuba City, Calif.; May Lee, Portland, Oregon; Robert Hayter, Coos River, and Andrew Hayter, North Bend.

Coos Payroll Increase Was 13.3 Percent Over Last Year

Although Multnomah county reported nearly half of the $18,500,000 increase in Oregon's covered pay rolls for the first quarter of 1944 as compared to the same period a year ago, 30 of the 36 counties showed a higher rate of gain, according to figures compiled by the State Unemployment Compensation Commission.

Reflected in the state's total of $184,783,000 for the first three months of 1943 is a 11.1 per cent gain over last year. Outside counties gained 19.5 per cent to total $56,911,000, while Multnomah increased 7.8 per cent with pay rolls of $127,782,000 in the first quarter.

Coos county's gain for the first quarter this year over the first in 1943 was $458,436—from $3,298,740 to $3,757,176—or a gain of 13.3 per cent.

WEALTH OF THE WEST

★ SPEED THE VICTORY—BUY WAR BONDS

Brewing Just as certain regions in the old world were favored spots for the production of fine beers, so does this great West provide every advantage to delight the brewer's heart. Here grow the world's choicest golden grains and the finest of aromatic hops. Here the purest of sparkling brewing waters are found. Beer is essentially a product of nature and nowhere has nature been more lavish in her gifts. As a result, beers from this region are known and favored throughout the nation for their buoyant zest and golden refreshment. Where else in all the world can man find such varied resources at hand for all the good things of life as in this bountiful West?
