

Mamie Rebekah Lodge Notes

The I.O.O.F. Hall was the scene of an especially important and interesting meeting on Tuesday evening, July 11. It was the occasion of the annual visit of the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon.

The meeting was called to order by Noble Grand Iola Moore. A committee to introduce visitors had been appointed, composed of Mrs. Florabel Boober, Mrs. Mettie Griffin, and Mrs. Florence Hallock. First this committee introduced Mrs. Evelyn Blair, of Ferndale Lodge, of Ferndale, California. Then they introduced the official visitors of the evening: Mrs. Ethel Bailey, of Roseburg, the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; Mrs. Marion Wilson, of Bandon, vice-president of the Rebekah Assembly; Mrs. May Hart, Assembly Chaplain; Mrs. Lydia Roadman, Assembly Inside Guardian, and Mrs. Myrtle Benham, district deputy president of Coquille. Finally Mrs. Boober introduced Mr. Wm. Bailey, of Roseburg, husband of the president and her official chauffeur for the tour.

The degree team conferred the Rebekah degree upon two new members, Mrs. Reona Giles and Mrs. Grace Stone, in a very fine manner.

The charter was draped in honor of Mrs. Rose McCroskey, a past president of the Association of Past Presidents of the Rebekah Assembly, who passed away recently. Mrs. Florence Hallock sang "Face to Face" in her usual fine manner.

The District convention in Marshfield, was discussed and transportation was arranged for those caring to attend.

A very interesting talk by the president Mrs. Bailey, was much enjoyed by the members. She commented on the degree work and gave several fine suggestions for the lodge.

Gifts were presented for the lodge by Mrs. Ruth Beyers to Mrs. Bailey and to Mrs. Wilson.

After lodge was closed the members and visitors enjoyed refreshments and a social hour in the dining room.

Mrs. Hallock Dinner Hostess to B. P. W.

Mrs. Florence Hallock, retiring president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, entertained the members at dinner last Monday evening in the Odd Fellows dining hall. The dinner was in special compliment to Clara Stauff, Hattie Lee Hollimon, Ida Oerding and Inez Rover, because of high attendance records. Mrs. Stauff attended all meetings for the year, Misses Rover and Oerding all but one and Mrs. Hollimon all except one in three years.

The tables were bright with summer garden flowers, lighted tapers in the club colors, green and gold. Places were marked with a red rosebud corsage and favors were tiny pottery boots holding diminutive bouquets. Dinner was served by the Rebekahs.

Following dinner the group remained at their places while the regular club business was carried on. Mrs. Hallock first presented her honor guests with gifts, gorgeous potted begonias, and addressed the members pleasantly on the occasion, which marked the close of one year and the beginning of another.

Eva Stevens, incoming president, received the gavel with a few words of acceptance. Mrs. Stevens conducted a short business meeting, asking for several reports. Mrs. Stauff, treasurer, stated the club now holds nine one hundred dollar war bonds and maintains a $20.00 revolving stamp fund to promote sales of stamps. Emphasis was placed on the important scholarship loan fund maintained for aid to college girls.

The 4th of July booth report was read by the general chairman, Florence Barton.

Laura Brandon was elected to membership.

The next regular meeting will be a potluck dinner to be held next Monday, July 17, at the Barton cabin at Bandon. The dinner on Monday was a postponed date due to the fourth of July conflict with the regular time.

Mrs. Stevens announced her committee appointments before adjournment.

Group singing, led by Ruth Beyers, was accompanied by Inez Rover. Attending were Clara Stauff, Hattie Lee Hollimon, Ida Oerding, Inez Rover, Eva Stevens, Ida Owen, Claire Hultin, Georgia Richmond, Viola Newton, Beas Maury, Helen Beyers, Edna Kern, Martha Mulkey, Bertha

Smith, Jennie Price, Florence Barton, Allene Robertson, Jessie Kay, Hazel Hanna, Annie J. Robinson, Leah Rover, Bonnie Walker and Ruth Beyers.

Soroptimist Club

Leta Leslie, new head of the Soroptimist Club, presided for her first meeting last Tuesday at the regular luncheon meeting. The 4th of July committee reported that first prize was won on the club's decorated car. Flora Compton and May Barton having served on the committee. About sixteen members were present Tuesday.

Mrs. Leslie announced her committee appointments for the year as follows: Attendance, Edith McNelly; Bonds and Stamps, Hazel Hanna; Budget and Finance, Susie Folsom; Beulah Norton, May Barton; Historian, Florence Barton; Press and Publicity, Estelle Harbison; Grievance, Florence Barton, Muriel Dae Ardath; Hospitality and Social, Susie Folsom, Marion Wood, Hattie Lee Hollimon; Legislation and Review, Marion Wood; Membership and Classification, Hazel Hanna, Wilda Schroeder; Program, Muriel Ardath; Special Committee, Ventura Club, Georgianna Vaughan, Crystal Henninger; Girls' Club, Beulah Norton, Estelle Harbison.
