Rebekah District Convention July 12

The Annual Convention of District No. 13 of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon at Marshfield on July 12 was attended by nearly 20 Coquille Rebekahs and it proved to be a most interesting event.

The afternoon session, at one o'clock, was opened in due form by Western Star Lodge, No. 27, of Marshfield, and was turned over by them to the convention officers, who were seated in a drill by North Bend Lodge No. 141.

Assembly officers were introduced and welcomed by Chaparral Lodge,

No. 231, of Powers. These included four who had visited the Coquille Lodge the previous evening: Mrs. Ethel Bailey of Roseburg, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; Mrs. Marion Wilson, of Bandon, vice-president of the Rebekah Assembly; Mrs. May Hart, Assembly chaplain; Mrs. Lydia Roadman, I. G. of the Assembly; Mrs. Myrtle Benham, Coquille's district deputy president, and the district deputy presidents from the other lodges of the district.

Election of officers for next year resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Helen Kimble, of Bandon; Vice-President, Mrs. Hazel King, of Powers; Secretary, Mrs. Ebba McCartney, of Bandon, and Treasurer, Mrs. Ethel Tickner, of Bandon. Convention will be held at Bandon next year. Among the appointed officers for next year Mrs. Helen Larson of Coquille was appointed chaplain.

The annual banquet was held at the Methodist Church at 6:30 p. m. and the evening session was the regular meeting of the Marshfield lodge. Rollcall by lodges showed 21 Coquille members present for the evening session.
