

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Wilson from Cottage Grove are here for a ten-day visit at the home of Mrs. Geo. L. Ransom.

Mr. and Mrs. William Friszen and granddaughter and Mrs. Bill Wieman were week-end guests at the True home.

Mrs. Marion Hale, of Marshfield, was in Coquille on Wednesday to attend a small luncheon given by Mrs. Geo. L. Maynard.

All women of the Pioneer Church are invited to attend the all-day session, beginning at 10:30 a. m. on Thursday, Aug. 3, of the W. S. C. S. for the regular monthly meeting. There will be potluck luncheon at noon. During the afternoon Marvel Skeels is to sing.

Miss Olivia Hunter, a former resident of Coquille who now resides in Portland, is here as a guest for two weeks of Mrs. Elmer Holverstott.

W. S. Jacobson, of Grayland, Washington, was here for a few days the first of the week on a tour of inspection of the cranberry bogs in this area. Mr. Jacobson is plant manager at Grayland.

Mrs. Ellen Carl, who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lillie Hartig, for the past two weeks, expects to return to her home at Hubbard the last of this week.

Donna Rankin, Owen Elrod, and Vera Bishop are among the group of young folks who left for summer camp.

Miss Lois Perkins returned Wednesday from Portland, where she has been with her mother who is still in St. Vincent's hospital recovering from a major operation. Lois, with her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Perkins, is spending a few days at the New Lake ranch at Langlois. John Perkins is home on leave.

Mrs. Mabel Wilhelm arrived Sunday from Portland to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Lorenz, for ten days. Mrs. Wilhelm left Coquille to reside in Portland about two years ago. She has a young daughter who has joined the Wacs.

Muriel Dae Ardath returned last Friday from a two weeks trip to San Francisco, where she visited her brother and his wife. She was enthusiastic over having seen the premier of the light opera, "Songs of Norway." This new production is based on the life of Grieg, with words put to the music of his compositions. Also with this was the Monte Carlo Ballet. It was all very marvelous, according to Mrs. Ardath, and she predicts it will become a standard light opera.

PACIFIC HIGHWAY UP ACROSS EUROPE

Two raging battle fronts would be covered by the Pacific Highway—that is, if it were possible to drape this famous border-to-border route across Europe. Shell Touring Service estimates that the driving distance between San Diego and Seattle would take a European motorist from the beach at Anzio up and beyond the white cliffs of Dover.

Mrs. Ernest Whereat and daughter, Maxine, were in Eugene for four days last week. Maxine underwent some serious dental surgery for impacted teeth.

E. H. Emmerson, from Washington, D. C., arrived Wednesday, visiting here for the first time since 1909, which year he married Anna Child, sister of Goldie and Jim Child. He and Mrs. Emmerson came west to visit their son in San Francisco, who is in the service. Mrs. Emmerson will visit here for two weeks soon.
