

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Walker have been in Portland the past ten days, Ed having gone up to consult a physician or oculist about his eye, which he injured a few weeks ago while clearing up around his home place. Whether it was just a cut or a thorn in the eyeball he was not sure.

Mr. and Mrs. George Croy, who left this section eleven years ago and have been living in San Fernando, Calif., arrived here last Thursday and will spend a couple of months visiting out at Fairview.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles G. Brown, who have been enjoying a vacation at Manzanita, Oregon, expect to be home Friday.

Mrs. Cliff Yarbrough and Mrs. Alberta Brandon left Thursday on a week's vacation trip to Portland.

Mrs. M. McCarthy is enjoying a week's visit from her friend, Miss Ruth Schackman, who arrived from her home in Lebanon, Ore., last Friday evening.

A baby girl weighing six pounds, seven ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marion R. Clayton at the Leep Hospital in Bandon last Thursday morning. She has been named Beverly Jean. This is their third child, the other two being boys.

Mrs. D. Neff and son, Roger of Portland, who had been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Alma Halter, and other relatives at Arago and Fairview, returned to their home last Thursday.

Miss Dorothea Yarbrough, bookkeeper in the Mt. States Power Co. office, has passed her examinations and has been sworn in as a member of the Waves. She does not anticipate she will be called to duty until about Oct. 1.

Mrs. Chas. Stauff has been enjoying a visit since last Thursday from her childhood friend, Mrs. H. S. Griffith of San Francisco. The latter came over from the Bay after visiting friends over there and went back over there again last evening.

Mrs. H. R. Godard has been acting as secretary to the county court this week, while Mrs. Marie Bellah is on her vacation.

There will be a potluck dinner and clean-up party at the Country Club, Friday evening, August 18. Please come and bring your friends.

Mrs. T. L. Thornton and children, who had been here the past month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. McCarthy, left Wednesday for her home in Los Altos, Calif. She was accompanied by her sister, Mildred, who will be down there for a week or ten days, expecting to return before school reopens next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Kash, who were here Saturday on one of their infrequent visits to Coquille from Camas Valley and Roseburg, said that Mrs. Julia Johnson, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lawrence to southern California recently, expected to stay there with her son, Phillip E., and family for the next few months, at Glendale.

Julius Ruble drove over from Idlelyn Park in the Umpqua valley last Saturday bringing back home Mrs. Ruble and Laura Emily and her two guests, Eula McCracken and Karen Henninger, all of whom had been visiting over there the past two weeks and staying at the Kentucky Homes cottages. The ladies say it was not too hot on the river and that the fishing was good.

Oregonian Carriers Have Picnic At Broadbent Tuesday

Mrs. Pauline Talbert, Oregonian circulation representative in Coquille, took the six carrier boys on a picnic to Broadbent on Tuesday this week. The boys enjoyed swimming, the eats, and a general good time. They were Preston Willis, Roger Williamson, Wayne Morgan, Junior Randolph, Bud Trout and Junior Tracy.

Dorothea Yarbrough To Join WAVES

Dorothea Elaine Yarbrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Yarbrough, 771 East Second street, Coquille, Oregon, was enlisted in the Waves at the Portland Waves enlistment headquarters, 735 S. W. Alder street, last Saturday, according to a release by Chief Specialist Paul H. Connet, recruiter in charge of the Marshfield navy recruiting sub-station who processed Miss Yarbrough's application. For the past year Miss Yarbrough has been employed in the Coquille office of the Mountain States Power Co., and follows into the Waves two of her closest friends, Margaret Stewart and Donna Dean Bosserman.

Miss Yarbrough has been active in the work of the Bachelor Girls' Club in Coquille as well as in other civic and social activities. After a period of inactive duty Miss Yarbrough will be transferred to the Waves indoctrination school in New York where she will undergo training for a period of six weeks. Upon completion of her basic training, she will be transferred to an advanced school for further, specialized training or to an active duty station where she will be trained in her work "on the job." Through her enlistment and other trained navy man will be released for duty aboard ship or at an overseas station, helping the navy to bring this war to a speedier close.
