Junior Women's Club First Fall Meeting

The Coquille Junior Women held their first meeting Monday night at the Guild Hall, with Lucille Walker presiding.
Plans were discussed to have a reception for new members instead of the usual tea. It will be held on September 25, the regular meeting night. All young women who are interested in becoming members are cordially invited.
The committee in charge of refreshments consisted of Lucille Walker, Jean Williams and Mary Lou Culver. Girls attending were: Helen Sinko, Mildred James, Ruth Creager, Lucille Walker, Viola Phillips, Mary Lou Culver, Beatrice Oederkirk, Jean Bryan, Dorothy Harris, Jean Williams, Virginia Mass and Ardis Sherwood.

Glenda Clinton Weds Howard C. Moy

At a ceremony held Monday, Sept. 11, at 6:30 p. m. in the Pioneer Methodist Church, Glenda Clinton became the bride of Howard C. Moy. Rev. Chas. G. Brown conducted the ceremony. The bride was attended by Mrs. Preston Moy, matron of honor, and Orville Clinton was best man. Lyle Varney, of Bangor, Coos Bay, a cousin, gave the bride in marriage. Glenda wore a gold suit with black accessories and a purple orchid. Mrs. Moy wore a purple dress with brown accessories and a gold orchid.
Howard Moy is home on leave until Sept. 23. He is a Gunners' mate, second class. Glenda will remain here with the First National Bank where she has held a position for some time.
Attending the ceremony were the bride's mother, Mrs. Minnie Clinton; her sister, Teress, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Clinton and children; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Varney and child, of Bangor; Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNelly, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Perrott, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Putnam and Mrs. Glen Horton.

W. S. C. S. Met In Pioneer Church Last Thursday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met in Pioneer Methodist Church on Thursday, Sept. 7, at 10:30 a. m., with the president, Mrs. Helen Peterson, in charge. After singing, "I need Thee every hour" and "I lose to Thee," several ladies led in prayer. The business of the society was taken up, all committees reporting.
On the last Thursday in September the executive council will meet at the home of Mrs. Richmond.
Motion was made that the society continue with one all-day meeting a month instead of meeting a half a day twice a month.
A potluck lunch was served at noon, Mesdames Minard, Leonard, Howe and Laws acting as hostesses.
At two o'clock the devotions were led by Mrs. Georgia Richmond. The program on medical work in the United States, Alaska and Santa Domingo was in charge of Lena McCurdy. Mrs. Anna Christianson presented the topic, "Health in a post-war world;" Mrs. Esther Taylor, "Medical Mission in Boston, Massachusetts;" Mrs. Fern Peterson, "Medical work in Alaska;" Mrs. Helen Peterson, "Our Methodist Sanitarium in Albuquerque, New Mexico;" Mrs. Minnie Laws, "Sibley Memorial Hospital in Washington, D. C.," and Mrs. Garrison, "Hospital in Santa Domingo."
The president presented Mrs. Rogers with a beautiful corsage, the occasion being her 45th wedding anniversary.
The meeting was dismissed with the singing of "Blest be the tie that binds" and prayer. The next regular meeting will be held October 5.

Shower For Bride-to-Be

Miss Lydia Holstein was guest of honor at a surprise shower and card party held last week at the McKeown home. Miss Norene McKeown and Mrs. L. B. Gould were joint hostesses. Miss Holstein is to become the bride of Harry Kern of North Bend September 16 at a ceremony to be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gould.
At bridge June Anderson was high and Mrs. Rankin was high at contract rummy. There were numerous and beautiful and lovely gifts.
Attending were Mesdames J. D. Rankin, Marlin Brandon, June Anderson, Crystal Henninger, Esther Refzenberger, Jesse Kay, Lela Elrod, Kate Watson, Georgianna Vaughan, Dorothy Zaddock, Eunice Barrow, Alice Richardson, Misses Madeline McKeown, Lella McClure, Jennie Wood and Mrs. McKeown.

Mrs. Maud Woodyard Sings At Woman's Club Tea

Mrs. Maud Woodyard arrived in Coquille Tuesday from her home in Eugene to spend a couple of days visiting old friends. It has been two years since Mrs. Woodyard moved to Eugene from here to teach voice in Northwest Christian College, though she has taught there three years, having commuted by bus for one year.
Mrs. Woodyard said she seldom takes her music when she goes away from home but on this occasion she had a hunch and brought it. So it proved to be everyone's good fortune at the Woman's Club Tea on Tuesday to be able to hear her lovely voice in three songs, accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins. The numbers were: "Yesterday and Today," "There is a Lark in My Heart," both by Charles Gilbert Spross, and another beautiful number, "The Star."

Friday Bridge Club

Under the apple trees on the lawn at Mrs. LeRoy Swinney's home was a lovely place to play bridge last Saturday afternoon. Members of her club came at 1:30 for dessert. Members attending were Mesdames Ray Dettelsen, Irving Larson, Dennis Waggoner, Tom Stevens, Miss Jane Martin. Guests were Mesdames Joe Sinko, Frank Jamieson, Harold Stromquist. Miss Martin received high score, Mrs. Stromquist, low, and Mrs. Dettelsen, traveling prize.

Dorcas Missionary Society Met Last Thursday

The Dorcas Missionary society of the Church of Christ met with Mrs. Walter Newton last Thursday afternoon and after a short business meeting, the time was spent socially.
The hostess served refreshments to the following ladies: Mesdames Belle Hooton, Zua Hooton, Willard Sloan, Arthur Towne, Ann Dungey, Ralph Hadsell, Amos Payne, Miss Jennie Lafferty and a visitor, Mrs. Thomas Hutton, from Preston, Minn.

Tea For Mrs. Wilson

Mrs. O. C. Sanford entertained about a dozen friends last Friday afternoon for Mrs. Bernadene Wilson, visiting here the past week from her home in Portland. Fall flowers were in attractive arrangements about the rooms. Mrs. J. A. Lamb poured.
