Rally Day Program At The Christian Church

The Bible School of the Christian Church will observe Rally Day, Sept. 24. Appropriate goals have been set for each class as the Bible School will attempt to reach the 200 mark in attendance.

During the program Leota Neely of the High School class will represent the Spirit of the Bible School. She will ask the boys and girls to tell her a bit of what they have been learning in the Bible School. In doing this, she will call each class to come to the platform. The classes will respond as follows:

Beginners—A Song with Flags. Primary—Dramatization of a Bible Story. Junior Boys—Memory Work. Junior Girls—Memory Work and Activities. Intermediate—A Song. During the service the Cradle Roll superintendent will give Cradle Roll certificates to the mothers whose children have been recently enrolled on the Cradle Roll. Everyone is invited and urged to attend this service which begins at the Bible School hour of 9:45 at the Christian Church, E. 4th and Coulter streets.
