Rotary To Present Four Speakers On Global Affairs

An Institute of International Understanding will be held in Coquille from October 31 to December 5, this year, under the sponsorship of the Rotary Club of Coquille.

According to President J. S. Barton, the program is being developed by the Rotary Club to give the people of the community an opportunity to learn from informed speakers about the background of the present global war and the problems which must be met in planning for a durable peace after victory has been won.

The Institute will also be a study course in world affairs for the young people of the community for, in addition to the public forums in the evening, the speakers will address the students of the Coquille schools during the day.

Taking part in the Institute program will be: Don Bolt, traveler, journalist and commentator, who has devoted special attention to the Latin American countries, making three visits to Mexico within the past year; Hubert Phillips, Professor of Social Science at the Fresno State College, and formerly president of the California Conference of Social Work; C. Hartley Grattan, free lance writer and contributing editor of "Harper's"; Geraldine Townsend Fitch, author and lecturer in the field of Far Eastern affairs.

The general theme for the Institute program is, "New Forces in World Affairs," discussed under the following titles: "The New China in the New Pacific," "Russia's Position—East and West," "Australia, New Zealand and the Islands of the South Pacific," and "The Role of the North American Continent."

Don Bolt, of Brazil, Indiana, will open the series of four Institute programs at either the High School auditorium, or the Washington School auditorium (the place to be announced later), on Tuesday, October 31, speaking on "The Role of the North American Continent."

The other three programs are scheduled for November 7, November 28 and December 5.
