

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Von Pegert left Sunday for Orland, Calif., where they expect to remain for the next month. Fred had a construction job down there that he was going to work on.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hazard returned last Friday evening from Portland, where they had gone the Sunday before for consultation and to visit their daughters, Mrs. Hale B. Eubanks and Mrs. Jack Sercombe, and families.

Miss Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gray of Coquille, who had been home a short time after taking a six weeks' apprentice course as nurse in North Bend, left Monday for Seattle where she will have six months of training in the Navy hospital. She is an Ensign Navy nurse.

Mrs. Herbert J. Frye, mother of Roy Rhulle, came in last Saturday from Aberdeen, Wash., to attend Roy's funeral on Monday. She was accompanied here by her daughter, Mrs. Irene Richey, and they left again Wednesday for their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Donsted and daughter, Betty, returned Tuesday from Cedar Rapids, Des Moines and Iowa City, Iowa, where they had been for the past seven weeks visiting Mrs. Donsted's parents and other relatives. They had not been back to their old home for many years.

Mrs. Darrell Brodie, the former Margarita Agostino, and two sons arrived here last week-end for an indefinite stay. They came from Texas and stopped a month in Burns, Oregon, to visit Mrs. Brodie's mother and sister, Mrs. John Norton. Major Brodie has just been transferred to a post in Kansas, where living quarters for his family were not available.

Mrs. W. B. Dunabee, the former Carol Young, and Mr. Dunabee and their daughter, Susan, will arrive in San Francisco on Sunday, they having left Lima, Peru, by plane on Wednesday, and they expect now to remain in the U. S., he having resigned his position as auditor in South America with the Singer Sewing Machine Co. They have not indicated when they will come north to visit in Carol's old home town.

Clint Archibald, who is still with the power company at Medford where he went after leaving Coquille, was in town Tuesday for a short time. He was on his way to North Bend on business.

Herman Ellingsen was in Coquille this week from Eugene, where he is considering locating.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Croy, who own their place two miles out of town on the Fairview road, left Wednesday for San Fernando, Calif., to again spend the winter down there. They expect to be back up here again next summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Houdyshell, who came over from Ashland last week to visit their daughters, Mrs. Floyd Peterson and Mrs. Ralph Cochran, and their families, will leave for home on Friday. They both are feeling well over there and Mr. Houdyshell does not suffer from asthma as he did here.

Wife Of Former Coquille Boy Receives Art Award

Mrs. Elwyn Noster has received copy of a paper printed at Brea, Calif., telling of an award made to the wife of her brother, Rev. Errol B. Sloan of West Ash, at the Whittier Art Association exhibit recently. Mrs. Sloan received second award in water colors, her painting, called "Hilo Cereus," being of a night-blooming cereus which he made between 11 and 1:30 o'clock at night when the plant was blooming.

Mrs. L. R. Child Opens Her Third Dress Shop

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Child, of Grants Pass, were here from Thursday evening until Friday evening. They came over from Roseburg where Mrs. Child has just opened a dress shop similar to the ones she has here and in Grants Pass. They also reported that they had recently purchased a 14-acre place and home in the Beacon Hill district, two miles out from Grants Pass.

Mrs. E. E. Boober To Be Christmas Seal Sale Chairman

Mrs. E. E. Boober, president of the Coquille Woman's Club, was named Wednesday as Coquille chairman of the Christmas Seal Sale, which will start on Nov. 27. The appointment was made by Mrs. W. G. Barrow, Coos county executive secretary for the Seal Sale, who was over here from Marshfield that day.

C. E. Powers, Candidate For Co. Commissioner, A Visitor

Among the candidates at the Nov. 7 election who were glad-handing the voters here last Friday was Chas. E. Powers, democratic candidate for County Commissioner of Coos county. Mr. Powers did more than shake hands in the Sentinel office for he left an advertisement of his candidacy which appears elsewhere in this issue.

S. P. Assistant General Passenger Agent Appointed

Due to the transportation of the Armed Forces in addition to the ever increasing amount of wartime passenger travel, the Southern Pacific has found it necessary to appoint an Assistant General Passenger Agent for Portland. J. A. Ormandy, General Passenger Agent, announced that this position was filled by E. F. Ghormley last week. Thirty-two years ago Ghormley started his railroad career at Myrtle Creek, Oregon, as Assistant Agent, and later he served in various capacities at cities in western Oregon.
