Soldiers' Wives and Returning Husbands

You may have seen in the papers where a writer cautioned Army wives that their returning husbands would be "strangers" to them—because they've been through experiences that their wives could never share.
Well, a high-ranking officer wrote an answer to that; he called it nonsense. "What do our men want most? To finish the war and come home . . . What are they fighting for? . . . for everything the word home means."
Of course, the word "home" means something different to every fighting man. For home is a lot of little things! A garden or a work bench—well-thumbed books . . . a mellow glass of beer with friends.
But whatever they are, it's the memory of these small familiar things that he takes with him into battle. And it's these little things that link his thoughts to home—and to the familiar life that he looks forward to returning to.
