Teachers' Meeting

(Continued from Page One) with determination that we will not ry to impose any type of imperial-ism on Asiatic countries again and with our stand on racial questions de-cided and honestly stated. Dr. James Millar, with his irish wit and clear thinking gave a splen-did address. He stated: "In our own did address. He stated: "In our own atuffed to death.

In speaking of Unity for which the Civil war was fought to save the Union, he stated "that we need to realize this ideal today as never before. We cannot afford to have a divided nation over any question of class, color or creed. America is an organism and what affects one class or section of the country sooner or later affects all. No group can live to itself. We must think or-MBREAKABLE DISHES—"Believe it or not," made of unbreakable plastic, heatproof, waterproof, break-proof, acid-proof. FARR & world is also an organism we can no longer be unconcerned with nor with what is happening in the rest of the world; that is what brought us into the present conflict. We live in a world where all must be secure or none will be secure."

In speaking of the third interpretation of Democracy, our stogas in the first world war was "To make the world safe for democracy." That ideal was not realized. For it we continue to fight today. Meny are
