

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stewart returned Monday evening from their trip to Portland. She had gone up ten days before, stopping at Albany to visit her mother, and Bob met her in Portland on Wednesday.

Miss Dorothy Newton, who is a senior at Linfield, was home for Thanksgiving. Miss Newton is president of Associated Women Students this year. She returned to her studies Sunday.

Lieut. and Mrs. Quentin H. Towne are the parents of a baby girl, Karen Kay, weighing eight pounds, two ounces, who was born November 27 at the Mast Hospital, Myrtle Point. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nosler and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Towne, all of Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Nosler, who went up to Portland Thanksgiving night, are expected home in a day or two.

Mrs. Johnnie Courtright, the former Betty Sharp, left yesterday to make her home with her parents in Marshfield while Johnny is in the Army. He is somewhere across the Atlantic.

Master Sergeant Karl Alpine is home on leave from his base in Oklahoma City, where he has been stationed following his return to the states after three years service in the Caribbean area. After a fifteen-day leave he will report to Fairmont Army Airbase in Nebraska. Karl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Alpine, live at Riverton.

Mrs. J. E. Axtell entertained at six tables of bridge Tuesday evening, honoring Mrs. Mabel Gould, who received many lovely shower gifts. The Christmas motif was used. Mrs. Axtell was assisted by Mrs. William Barrow and Mrs. Georgianna Vaughan.

Mrs. Jean Bryan returned recently from Pensacola, Florida, where she visited her brother, Jack Laird, and wife. Mrs. Bryan flew home.

Mrs. Wm. Walker left the first of last week by bus for San Francisco, taking her two children, Billy and Richard, to see their father, who is stationed there for a short time. Bill is now an electrician's mate in the Navy. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Walker.

During the holidays Robert Medley, of Linfield College, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Medley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson spent Sunday in Myrtle Point with their son, Dick Johnson. Their son, Stacey Johnson, spent Thanksgiving with his sister in Drain.

Pharmacist Mate E. Donald Wherret is home on leave after serving a year and half in the South Pacific. Although in the Navy, he served with a Marine Division. He will report to his new base in Bremerton December 15.

Mrs. Jess Barton, wife of Captain J. S. Barton, and daughter, Jacqueline, have returned from Astoria, where they have been visiting the past few months.

Don L. McClellan and his wife spent Thanksgiving in Lebanon with Mrs. McClellan's parents.

Regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club will be held in Guild Hall as usual next Monday, Dec. 4.

Twenty or more local Shriners attended a ceremonial in Roseburg Saturday, Nov. 25. There were fifty candidates for the regular Shrine Ceremonial.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Schroeder returned home Sunday, after spending Thanksgiving with their son, Wayne, and wife at Eugene. The young people like it very much in Eugene, where Wayne is cashier at the S. P. depot and his wife has a position in the assessor's office similar to the one she had here in the court house. The Schroeders visited at the home of the Misses Faye, Hazel and Alice Newton, formerly of Millington, and also called on Mrs. Victor McCallister, formerly of Coquille.

Attending Teachers' Legislative Council in Portland

There will be a Legislative Council of Oregon School Teachers' Association held in the Civic Auditorium in Portland on Friday and Saturday of this week. Mrs. Hazel Hanna of Washington School in Coquille and Larry Lillebo of the Roosevelt Junior High in North Bend will be the representative of the county school superintendents of the state of Oregon. No doubt other instructors from the Coos-Curry area will attend this important meeting.

Ye Editor and Wife's Grand-Daughter Here A Month Yet

Winfield B. Dunshee left by bus Wednesday morning for San Francisco, where he expects to secure a permanent position which will keep him in the United States, although he says there are splendid opportunities for young men in Peru and South American countries. He was down there for three years.

Mrs. Dunshee and Susan will remain here as guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Young, until after Christmas at least, and until Mr. Dunshee is able to find a house in the San Francisco bay district or down the peninsula for them to occupy.
