

Weekly Letter From Washington, D. C. BY CONGRESSMAN HARRIS ELLSWORTH

Washington, D. C., November 23, 1944. Back in session again, Congress is proceeding with its work just as if nothing had happened. But quite definitely, considerable happened on the seventh of November. It is no secret that Republican members felt rather confident that the majority of the House next term would be Republican. At election time the score stood 214 Democrats to 212 Republicans. The Clerk of the House says that, as of this morning, (Saturday), the score for the new Congress stands: Democrats 242, Republicans 190, Progressive 1, American-Labor 1, and one still in doubt. I doubt that the score is high enough on the New Deal side to warrant calling the new Congress a rubber-stamp Congress, but there is not the slightest doubt that the Administration will have majority enough in the House and Senate to carry most controversial legislation. It is too soon to get any accurate idea as to the course of legislation for the coming two-year term. My guess is, however, that there will be no serious controversy on legislation involving major foreign policy matters. The battles in the new Congress will occur mostly over proposals that would tend to take us toward a centralized socialistic type of government.

If I may make any personal comment at this point, I wish to express my thanks to the voters of the district for the fine majority given me in the election. I hope that the service rendered during these next two years will justify the faith placed in me. These are serious times in the history of our Republic, and I am well aware of the responsibilities borne by every member of Congress.

Early this week the crop insurance bill passed the House by an overwhelming majority (only 16 negative votes.) Last spring the House rejected a crop insurance bill. There were several valid objections to the previous proposal. All of them were removed in the new bill. Principal difficulty with the former proposal was that too much of the risk was actually borne by the government—to the extent that the plan cost many millions of dollars from the public treasury. The bill recently passed limits the government liability and practically places the plan on a sound basis. As I see it, this plan does not put government in the insurance business nor does it establish any precedent along that line. It simply does a job for the protection of farm production that is too big and provides a type of insurance subject to shocks that are too heavy to be undertaken by privately-owned companies.

The Senate now has the flood control bill (H.R. 4485) under consideration. The Senate Commerce Committee, before it reported the bill to the Senate Floor, inserted an amendment (known as the Bailey Amendment) which would restrict the authority of the Secretary of the Interior to build transmission lines for the sale of power from the flood control dams. The committee amendment would have compelled the sale of power at the dams unless 90 per cent of the available power remained unsold within three years after the completion of the dams. Then, and only then, said the amendment could transmission lines be built by the enterprise.

An entirely new method of fixing prices for farm products is being considered. The parity system has not worked out well because it encourages over-production and consequent necessity for crop control. The former is unsatisfactory to the government and the latter is resented by farmers. Exact details of the new plan are still in the discussion stage.

Evidence is at hand in the national capital that some thought is being given plans to limit American competition with Great Britain in world trade after the war for a sufficient length of time to enable the British to get back on their feet. This is a bald statement which does not present the true picture of proposed complicated arrangements for a form of government supervision of export trade which may become necessary in the interest of world stabilization. So far the subject has not passed beyond the discussion stage and nothing may come of it. As a matter of fact, British manufacturers are already far ahead of their American competitors in preparing for resumption of world commerce. Their sales agents are in the near east and in France almost as soon as the armed forces arrive and they are reported to be taking orders for delivery after the war. Up to date American industrialists have displayed no such government. The Senate defeated the amendment by a vote of 42 to 27. But the Senate approved an amendment authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to construct and acquire only such transmission lines and related facilities as might be necessary to make publicly-developed power available in wholesale quantities to distribution systems, regardless of the ownership of such distribution systems.

The House is still debating the post-war highway bill. Many members are dissatisfied with the large sums allocated to cities, but it is probably necessary to keep this part of the bill in order to get the remainder of it approved. Highway and market and access road work is a needed and worthwhile post-war undertaking.

NOTICE OF FINAL ACCOUNT NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has filed in the County Court of Coos County, Oregon, his Final Report and Account as Executor of the Estate of M. McKeown, deceased, and that the Court has set Tuesday, December 26th, 1944, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A. M. of said day, in the County Court room in Coquille, Oregon, as the time and place for hearing objections to such final account and settlement of said estate.

Leo J. Cary, Executor.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF COOS MYRTLE CROY, Plaintiff, vs. JOHN CROY, Defendant.

To John Croy, the above named defendant: IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before Friday, the 15th day of December, 1944, said date being after expiration of four weeks from the date of the first publication of this Summons, and if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint or otherwise plead thereto, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit:

For a decree dissolving the marriage and marriage contract now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant; for the sole care, custody and control of John Croy, the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, and for such other relief as the Court may seem just and equitable.

The grounds upon which said relief is based in said Complaint is cruel and inhuman treatment.

This Summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Coquille Valley Sentinel, pursuant to an order of the Hon. Dal M. King, Judge of the Circuit Court of Coos County, Oregon, made, dated and entered on the 14th day of November, 1944, and which order requires that the date of the first publication of said Summons shall be on the 18th day of November, 1944, the date of the last publication thereof being Thursday, the 14th day of December, 1944.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR THE COUNTY OF COOS Dave Nelson and Cecil Nelson, husband and wife, Plaintiffs, vs. N. L. Western, and his wife, Jane Doe Western, and all other persons unknown, claiming any interest in or to the real estate described in Complaint, Defendants.

To N. L. Western, his wife, and all persons unknown, defendants: IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on Friday, December 1st, 1944, said date being after the expiration of four weeks from the date of the first publication of this Summons, and if you fail so to otherwise plead thereto, for want thereof, the Plaintiffs will apply to the Court for relief prayed for in their complaint, to-wit:

For a decree quieting title in and to the following described piece or parcel of land situated in the County of Coos, State of Oregon, to-wit: Beginning at a point 280 feet East of an iron pipe on the West line of Sec. 31, Twp. 27 South, Range 12 W. W. M., 1070.45 feet Northerly of southwest corner of said Sec. 31; running thence North 94 feet; thence East 45 feet; thence South 94 feet; thence West 45 feet to place of beginning.

That plaintiffs be adjudged the owners thereof, and be barred from asserting any claim whatsoever in said premises, adverse to the plaintiffs, and for such other and further relief as to equity shall seem meet.

The grounds upon which said relief is based in said Complaint is that you claim or assert an interest in said premises adverse to plaintiffs.
