Be Given Here Next Tuesday, Dec. 12

y but the enemy."

this show free of charge are why we all have to buy we

tion To The State L.Game Com

ob Genney, of the Fairivew route, ingrestion which all sport roved by the Oregon Fish and paid his $3 for a license and was able to get out but for one-half day of fishing.

It would seem to be a gesture on the part of the Commission which would be the least that hody could do for boys in the service.

The office force in the tax department has been working night and my and Supday, trying to get the mail opened and receipts made out and mailed for remittences.

It will be ten days yet, or longer, before this fall's total tax payments can be reported.

Chamber of Commerce Nominating Committee Appointed Tuesday

Before adjourning the Chamber of ommerce meeting in the Coffee op Tuesday noon, President Geo. Oerding appointed J D. Gillespie, Evan Alborn and E. L. "Andy" Andent, vice president and director for 1945 at the next regular meeting of the board of directors which will be held on Dec. 19.

November Rainfall In Coquille Was 8.17 Inches

The total rainfall in Coquille, as here in the court house yard, for the month of November is 6.17 inches. This is somewhat less than the avto_admire in the wholesale business. Mr. Harbison makes the beautiful month of November is 6.17 inches. myrtlewood figures everyone stops to_admire in the windows of their erage for the month for there were store, corner of First and Taylor Sts.

Coquille Has Sent 90 Tons Paper

More Tax Money Than Ever Before

as to money paid in to the ta did before at this time of year. "It's more money than I ever saw before," is the way be expressed it.

The office force in the tax depart-

More than half of the total fe amounting to $1458.75, paid in to County Clerk Oddy's effice during mount being $765.05. Circuit court of the Myrtle Point Bureau. fees amounted to $430, probate and county court to $88, for marriage Il-

To Be Wholesale Dealers

Exclusively After Christmas Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harbison have moved from their former home at Bergen's Flower Shop to 606 East Ninth street. They will maintain their retail store in Coquille until Christmas, after which they will be exclusively in the wholesale business.

The Coquille Junior Women's Club will meet Monday, December elev-enth, at Guild Hall, at which time the president of the Oregon Federapession of the Coos circuit court and here Tuesday this week, and here Tuesday this week, and here Tuesday this week, and here to hold court at Roseburg. It has a session bere next and here are urged to attend in order to hear her speak. ion of the Coos circuit court will meet Monday, Decem

Henry Schroeder, next called upon Henry Schroeder, next called upon, said that the credit condition was very bad in Myrtle Point when the bureau was organized three years ago but so efective had been Mr. McDonald's effects there that there is now nothing more for him to do up there. Those efforts had saved around 100 people from bankruptcy and had resulted in the collection of $50,000 in what had been very bad secounts.

made possible the collection of o

Mr. Eads, when called upon, said there was not very much "poor credit" condition now but looking ahead the next few years he could foresee that the credit problem will become acute again and that the need for a Credit Bureau will again be vital to any community.

Messrs. Roberts, King and Jones

The opinion of the Coquille busi-ness men present was that Coquille should have a locally-owned Credit Bureau and be able to affiliate with the National Credit Association and a motion was adopted that the presi-dent appoint a committee to draw up by-laws for the proposad organiza-tion and have all the necessary legal work performed so that Mr. McDon-ald will have all the essential papers and authority when, in the near future, he contacts Coquille business men to interest them in becoming bers of the Coquille Credit Bu

The committee appointed by President Oerding consists of John Purkey, P. O. Lund, O. T. Gant and Ray Buckles.

Coquille Bond Sales 45 Percent Of Ouota

Sales of 6th War Bonds in Coguille up to close of business at the bank and the postoffice last evening brought Coquille up to slightly over

The postoffice, which had a tremendously busy day on Tuesday when 177 bonds, at the selling price of $5,587.50, were turned over to purchasers, has total sales of E bonds up to last evening of $7,481.25.

$51,956 were of other kinds.

It is expected that the Infantry show here next Tuesday will have a stimulating effect on bond sales and it is hoped that Coquille can be the first town in the county to go over the top with 100 per cent or more of its $265,000 quots.

At Myrtle Point A. R. Davenport A.

Woman's Club To Present Toys To Doernbecher Hospital

Mrs. R. E. Boober, president of the Woman's Club, wishes to remind the and Mrs. Lewis H. Williams of Santhe benefit of patrons, asking that a members to bring their donations of ford Heights, Coquille, has helped "Drive in—No parking" sign be toys for the children in Doernbecher establish a world's production record posted there such as is in front of the should be selected with that fact in

The Youth Fellowship group of the Methodist Church was invited to the home of Laura Emily Ruble Sunday evening. After playing several amusing games, refreshments, which included a huge chocolate cake, were served to the group. They then gathered around the piano and sang

An organization meeting at which every business women and man in Coquille is invited to be present, is Francisco, where she had visited to be held in the Coquille city hall with her husband for the past three next Monday evening, Dec. 11, at weeks. Ray is a Mo.MM1/c in the 7:30 o'clock.

1st B. B. Jamboree At Bay Dec. 12

Basketball has now succeeded foot-ball at C. H. S. and Coach Spike Leslie has a good-sized squad with which to start the season, which really opens with a Basket Bail Jam-boree at Coos Bay next Tuesday, Dec. 12, and which is to be followed

Doce at Coos Bay hext ruesday, Dec. 12, and which is to be followed with a Jamboree in Coquille the next Tuesday, Dec. 19.

The Jamboree is a new feature in Coos county basketball and will replace the Coos county tournament, heretofore held after the completion of the regular season in February.

In the Jamboree each of the four high school squads in the county will play each of the other three for a 15-minute period. There will be the usual tournament admission charge at the Jamboree, which will be under the sponsorship of the County School-Masters Club, and the funds thus derived will be used to send the Coos county winner to the district play-off at Eugene, probasend the Coos county winner to the district play-off at Eugene, probably early in March, and to the state tournament at Salem, March 15, 16 and 17, if a Coos county team wins in the district play-off over the Eugene district winner.

After the Jamborees on the 12th and 19th, the Red Devils will have president somes with Coos River and and 19th, the Red Devils will have practice games with Coos River and Roseburg high schools before the opening of the regular county schedule on Friday, Jan. 5, when Coquille plays at Marshfield and North Bend is at Myrise Point.

On the A Red Devils squad there are 16 men, any and all of whom will be called upon for appearance on the red. He also has a fairly good-ised squad of players for the B

Community Officers In Conservation Program Are Chosen

meetings already held this week, at As previously decided she Coos Bay on Tuesday and at Myrtis done with Community Point on Wednesday, County Agent dance proceeds which are tary by each. Coquille's meeting is being held at the city hall today at 1:30 p. m. and the one at Bandon cil voted to return $37.98 to the ervation practices are best adapted 45 per cent of the quota of $265,000 to the four districts in order to re-set for this city. ceive the substantial benefit pay-ments from the U. S. government which will be available in 1945. At the Marshfield meeting F. B. Rood was elected chairman, Clyman

Collver, vice chairman; and they are The bank's sales, last evening, spectively to county meetings.

grossed $112,162.50, of which $60, 687.50 were of the E variety and Conner was named delegate and Abe

At Myrtle Point A. R. Daver

Coquille Boy Helps Establish World Production Record

Hospital when they attend the meet- at an Air Service Command depot postoffice. ing next Tuesday. The children are in England. In nine months, he and small and in bed so the type of toy fellow soldier-technicians repaired similar requests in the past and the ies and returned them to combat show partiality to any business house units operating over western Europe. In town, but Mayor Wood made a suggestion that may bear fruit in the come shortages of many accessories. way of relief. His idea is that an

> There will be a Legion Auxiliary meeting Monday night. Members are as such, where the parking of cars is requested to remember to bring gifts forbidden.
>
> It is, indeed, unfortunate, in this

> Monday evening was to a residence sections, were not made as necessary on Rink creek, which the department a part of a city's thoroughfares as found was a flue burning out, when they arrived on the scene.

Old papers ic a bunei

Water Bills To Be Increased Ten Per Cent On February

The city council in a card rooms, pool and billiard par-lors and bowling alleys in Coquille, to allow a little more time for as-sembling data on what other com-munities are collecting for licenses.

North Bend—Card rooms $25 a year, billiard parlors $25 a year, pinball machines $10 each three months per machine, bowling alleys $30 per quarter year.

Myrtle Point—Card rooms $50 a year, pinball machines $10 per year pinball machines $10 per year per machine, bowling alleys $25 per year.

Coquille's rates, which a new ordinance will revise have been—Card rooms $50 per six months billiard.

The extension that is time Get. 1, 1949, by which these work on the project is expected to be started.

The application of the Isler Sheet Metal Works for permisson to install a marquee, 25 feet wide, in front of the Shelley building on Hall street, for the Geo. F. Burr Motor Co., was 1:30 p. m. and the one at Bandon cil voted to return solve will use the will be in the city hall there Friday at 1:30 p. m.

John D. Carl is chairman of the building.

State Liquor commission were approved by the council for the follow-

W. H. Fortier for Bill's Place, a class B retail and a package store.

C. L. Elkins, a class B retail store.

LeRoy Rice for the Coquille Auto

Park, a class A package store.

City Attorney Berg was instructed to submit a bid to the county for 80 acres of Coos-owned land east of the city water reservoir. Part of this tract is now being used as a rifle range, and will continue to be so used. There is also considerable alder timer on the tract.

Leo J. Cary, manager of the State Liquor Commission's retail store in Coquille, presented a plea to the council for a no-parking sign in front of the store on Front street, presenting as reasons that some times the truck men had to push hand trucks for a block or more in order to get the liquor to the store. Mr. Pfc. Harold Williams, son of Mr. Cary also made the plea, said, for

The council has had numerous center of each block, plainly marked automobile age, that when cities were laid out before the auto era, ile age, that when cities that alleys, at least in the business

Blank Warranty Deeds for sale at