will be very long before I am ent back to a hospital.

Mother, I can't think of any-hing I would like to have for Christmas except to be homer just send once was paid a large fee for telephoning a congressional committee that a client wished to appear and make a statement. The Hurleys bought a horsey estate near Bull's Bluff where Colonel Baker, then a senator from Oregon, was killed in his first engagement with the confederates. A bronze bust of Baker is in the rotunda of the capitol, sharing honors with a bust of Lincoln, but an inscription on the Baker bust says he was from California.

When Mr. Roosevelt became president, Hurley opened a law office and once was paid a large fee for telephoning a congressional committee that a client wished to appear and make a statement. Washington was surprised when President Roosevelt resurrected Hur-mission as a general and sent to Moscow as a military observer, but as long as I need it.

One of the first packages I sent the Russians let him observe nothing home was a small chest I was build.

Then he flew to China for a looking from lucite but didn't get it see and upon his return there was a quite finished. Will finish it when vacancy in the diplomatic service with that country and Hurley was prointed ambassador. He is still latively young, active and enthusiastic, and as handsome as ever.
