George E. Oerding Sells Ranch And Home

The 20-acre ranch owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Walls, located about seven miles south of Bandon, was sold by George E. Oerding, a Coquille realtor, to Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Stull from San Francisco. The new owners have taken over the property and are intending to make Coos county their permanent home. They were in Coquille Wednesday, making purchases from the Coquille merchants.

Another deal completed by Mr. Oerding was the sale of Mrs. Mary B. Cross' property located at 908 E. 9th St. to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Harblson, who have moved into the house this week. Mr. Harblson has resigned his position with the Bergen's Florists and will spend his entire time in continuing with the manufacture of myrtlewood products at his new address.

Why bother with tire chains

Let us cap your rear tires with our famous mud and snow tread design. Unlike most grip treads it does not rumble on the highway and gives the maximum in tread wear

"Here's Your Infantry"

A colorful U. S. Infantry Pageant to be shown in Coquille Tuesday Afternoon and early evening, December 12

The display will be seen in two sections. The first, which will take place at 2:00 P. M. at ATHLETIC PARK, will be a reproduction of the recent battle at Leyte in the Philippines, with assaults on Jap pillboxes, with flame-throwers, the bazooka, dynamite and other deadly Infantry weapons.

IN THE COMMUNITY Building, from 3:00 until 8:00 P. M., there will be on display other of the U. S. Infantry's terrible weapons and there will be enacted the work of an Infantry Squad, demonstrating battle formations of the basic combat unit in modern warfare.

The entire display and program is to be shown, ABSOLUTELY FREE, and all of Southwestern Oregon is invited to witness the spectacles and the U. S. offensive weapons.
