Church Fellowship Group Meets Jan. 23

Mrs. Martha Mulkey, who was selected as organizer for an inter-church fellowship group in Coquille, met with a committee composed of Rev. V. W. Anglin, Mrs. A. L. Towns, Mrs. A. B. Schroeder, Mrs. Pansy E. Ross, Mrs. A. L. Geles and Mrs. Chas. Selbig this week.

As a result of their plans, the first meeting of the Church of Fellowship of Coquille will be held in the Methodist church parlors January 23, when the first host church will entertain with a potluck dinner at seven o'clock.

Dr. James Millar of Portland, who is connected with the extension service of the State College, will be the speaker of the evening.

Other towns of the county have found the inter-church fellowships very worth-while, inspirational groups. It is to be hoped that people will respond heartily to this effort to coordinate the knowledge, prayers and plans of the churches of Coquille as each church in turn is host to the group, with four meetings planned per year.
