

The Wm. Roths Enjoy Family Reunion At Christmas
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roth, residing on Fat Elk road, enjoyed a grand and glorious Christmas dinner with their family—Mr. and Mrs. Rex Roth and two daughters, of Fat Elk; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kelley and daughter, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Livermore and two children, of Fat Elk; Chester Roth and LaVelle Roth, of Portland; Milton Roth, of Fat Elk; Mr.

and Mrs. Hugh Gower and son, of Salem; Maxine and Lucille Roth, of Fat Elk.
The most pleasant surprise was the presence of S. Sgt. Johnny Fisher and wife, Gladys Fisher. Sgt. Fisher returned from the European theatre with 50 missions to his credit. He is now on 21-day furlough, after which he will report at Santa Monica, Calif. He says home-cooked food is really a treat and hopes to be stationed in the States.

Showers At Johnson Home For Bride

The George Johnson home was the scene of two large gatherings last week when showers for Margaret Belloni were given in her honor. One on Wednesday evening was given by Maxine Johnson and her sister, Georgianna Perrott and again on Thursday evening the other was by Mrs. Johnson, who was assisted by Mrs. Theodore Clinton. The parties were not surprises but were each most enjoyable and gifts were interesting to see piled high under a silver umbrella, the pile growing larger as each guest arrived. Opening and showing the many beautiful gifts was good entertainment for all. On Wednesday evening the young hostesses used red candles with which to decorate while on Thursday Mrs. Johnson used silver candles to carry out the clever idea with the silver-covered umbrellas. White cysanthemums were arranged about the rooms. Refreshments were served.

Guests on Wednesday evening were: Jean Moy, Norene McKeown, Madeline McKeown, Alberta Brandon, Sammy Swain, Helen Lund, Mary Edna Swindall, Virginia Wood, Lurene Laird, Jean Bryan, Jane Martin, Alys June Fox, Marybelle Yarbrough, Phyllis Caughell, Dolores Furman, Glenda Moy, Margaret Sherrill, Lois McClellan, Dorris Compton, Audrey Mattoon, Muriel Anderson, Bea Rhule, Ruth Lockwood, Maxine Dettelsen, Margery Holzgang, Margaret Belloni, Georgianna Perrott, Maxine Johnson.

Guests on Thursday were: Mesdames J. D. Gillespie, F. A. Robb, W. E. Boserman, Geo. Ulett, D. B. Kerner, Chas. Selbig, C. A. Barton, Ray Jeub, O. L. Wood, Fred McNelly, L. A. Lundquist, O. L. Larson, W. Davis, Life Compton, Geo. Laird, Hery Belloni, Lynn Perrott; from Myrtle Point, Mesdames J. H. McCloskey, John Belloni, John Arnold, Elton Schroeder; from North Bend, Mrs. Paul McElwain, Melba Olson; from Marshfield, Ruth Balcom. Other presents were Mrs. K. Stanninger, of Missoula, Mont.; Mrs. Robert Holzgang, of San Francisco; Mrs. Ferol Loftstrand, Portland, and Misses Maxine Johnson and Edna Robison.

Dorothea Yarbrough In Training At Iowa State Teachers College

Dorothea Elaine Yarbrough, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Yarbrough, of Coquille, was enrolled recently at the Naval Training School (Yeoman-W) on the Iowa State Teachers College campus, Cedar Falls, Iowa.

This member of the Women's Reserve was selected for her special training on the basis of her recruit training aptitude tests and past civilian experience. The course of yeomen study includes shorthand, typing, Naval correspondence, records and forms, and current events.

When this Wave successfully completes her theoretical course she will be sent to other duty stations where, after actual experience in a practical Navy job, she will have the opportunity to qualify for a petty officer rate.

O.E.S. To Install This Evening

Last Thursday evening, the last meeting of the year, was advanced night for some of the officers of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O.E.S. They assumed the stations which they will occupy at the next regular meeting of the chapter, Jan. 11th.

An attractive degree was given the out-going Worthy Matron, Leona Bryant, by some of the Courtesy Girls, who were gowned in formals, and she was presented with a gift. Mrs. Edith McNelly, Associate Matron, in a few well chosen words, presented the Worthy Matron with a gift from the Chapter.

Announcement was made about installation, which will be held this Thursday evening at 8:00 p. m. Friends are invited.

A social hour was enjoyed with refreshments last Thursday evening.

55 Carolers Were In The Group Singing Before Christmas

The Methodist group of young people invited the various other Fellowship groups of the church to an evening of caroling, December 23. The carolers numbered 55.

The beginning of the evening was spent playing games and practicing songs. The group left the church at 9:30 o'clock and caroled throughout the town until 11:30 p. m. and then all returned to the church for refreshments, which consisted of hot chocolate and sandwiches.

Executive Committee Of W.S.C.S. Met Last Thursday

The executive and budget committee of the Women's Society of Christian Service met at the home of Mrs. Esther Taylor last Thursday, Dec. 28. Lovely refreshments were served to the following who attended: Mesdames Helen Peterson, Georgia Richmond, Nellie Purvance, Lundy Pearl, Zoe Fugelson, Eva Stevens, Sybil Avery, Lena McCurdy, Nelita Oddy, and the hostess, Esther Taylor.

Eagles Auxiliary To Draw Secret Sisters' Names Jan. 5

The drawing of names for Secret Sisters for the coming year will take place at the Eagles Auxiliary meeting Friday evening, Jan. 5, and all those members who wish to have a secret sister for 1945 should make it a point to be present.
