

Spent Two Years In The Mediterranean

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Connors are enjoying a visit from her brother, Lieut. J. G. H. A. Morgan, who arrived here Saturday after more than two years of service with the Navy in the Mediterranean war theatre. He arrived in Portland on a 30-day leave Christmas eve.

Lieut. Morgan was commissioned in the Navy immediately after he graduated from the University of Oregon in 1942, and was sent overseas for his training and he has seen considerable action since the close of his training period.

He expects a west coast assignment at the conclusion of his leave and is to report in San Francisco.

Mrs. C. A. Kern Receives Letter From Max Morgan

Writing from the Marine Air Depot at Miramar, San Diego, Max Morgan used the back of their Christmas dinner menu to send the following note to Mrs. Clifford Kern, and she says that the change of address received since his letter indicates that he has left port for overseas duty:

Dear Edna and family: Had everything but the ham. Couldn't have eaten it anyway. Was really a good feed. Even the worst grouches admitted that it was good.

Was out to Eileen (Kendall) Fitzgerald's for dinner last night also. They have a cute little girl, Leo and Audrey (Kendall) Stampler, their two boys, and Glenada (Kendall) Seeley were there also. Really had a swell time. Played Santa with a Santa suit and everything.

Pop called me yesterday noon. He sounded pretty good. I think he will stay in the hospital for some time now.

Two days now with pretty good rains. Feels like home. Say hello to everyone. Have to run for muster now. Love, Max.

Former Coquille Man Back From Italy The Past Month

A card was received recently from Capt. and Mrs. Sig H. Peterson, Jr., which says Sig returned from Italy a month ago. The card had a note from Mrs. Peterson, who says, "It's wonderful to have him back. He has the Air Medal with a silver cluster, an M. T. O. ribbon with two battle stars, the D. F. C., and a Presidential Citation."

They spent Sig's leave visiting his relatives at Corvallis and his wife's at Feather Falls, Calif., where they celebrated their small daughter, Helen's, birthday with a party. The note was from Santa Monica, where Sig was waiting orders. He was with the First National Bank here before he enlisted in the Air Corps.

Sgt. Raymond E. Derrick A Recent Visitor In Coquille

Sgt. Raymond Derrick recently spent several days in Coquille visiting his mother, Mrs. John Jayes. Sgt. Derrick, in the Medical Corps of the 81st Division, has returned for a 21-day furlough after 32 months' service overseas in New Guinea, Black Island and Australia.

He took and collected some interesting pictures and souvenirs while there. Rendering outstanding service, he was awarded the presidential citation and the Silver Star. He wears the Good Conduct ribbon and the South Pacific Campaign ribbon with three gold stars. Sgt. Derrick reported to Santa Barbara on the 21st of December, where he will be re-assigned to duty. He reports it was wonderful getting back to the good old U. S. again.

Former Sentinel Employee And Wife Here For Two Days

Sgt. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, who came in from Spokane Dec. 28 to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Johnson, and family and their other friends here, left again last Saturday morning to return to his Engineer Corps headquarters near Spokane.

He had expected an 18-day furlough but when orders came for his outfit to pack up and be ready for over-seas assignment, his furlough time was shortened by two weeks. When he leaves the Spokane post, Mrs. Johnson will go to Provo, Utah, to remain with her parents for the duration.

Christian Church Young People Enjoy New Year's Watch Party

About twenty young people enjoyed a New Year's watch party at the Church of Christ parsonage New Year's eve. The evening was spent informally, making candy, playing games, and ending with a real old-fashioned "sing" at midnight. The devotional was led by the pastor. The hostess served refreshments to the following: Janice Osterhout, Doris Bjorkstrand, Ramona Cunningham, Joan Jacobson, Frances Ann Kern, Leota Neely, Maxine Wilson, Shirley Van Fleet, Ralph Wolgamott, Jim Kimsey, Gene Boots, Tom Boots, Walter McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Parrish, and their house guest, Miss Doris McReynolds of Salem.

The Matney Family Observes Two Wedding Anniversaries

When Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Matney observed their forty-fifth wedding anniversary, December 23, their son and his wife, the Manley Matneys, celebrated their ninth anniversary. It was a very festive occasion, since they also observed Christmas at the same time. In addition to their gifts and tree, they enjoyed a lovely cake which was presented to them by the Coquille bakery.

The Matneys were married in 1899, on Saturday, and this is the first time it has come to their attention throughout the years that an anniversary fell on the same day.

About Ground Meat

There's a difference in the pan-frying and broiling times for the various kinds of ground meat. Beef and veal require the same cooking time, but lamb and pork take a bit longer. When two or more kinds of ground meat are mixed together, the time is gauged by the kind of meat in the largest proportion. However, when there's fresh pork in the combination it's advisable to follow the timing given, for pork must be cooked thoroughly.

GROUND BEEF AND VEAL

Because of their leanness, ground beef and veal are benefited by the addition of fat or liquid, such as suet, eggs, or evaporated milk. Eggs and evaporated milk also act as binders to help hold the ground beef and veal together after they're cooked.

Tests show the best results are obtained by using 2 eggs or 4 tablespoons of evaporated milk or 4 tablespoons of suet for each pound of ground beef or veal. 1/4 pound beef or veal patties, broiled or pan-fried, should be cooked about 10 minutes—5 minutes on each side.

GROUND LAMB

It isn't necessary to add any binding ingredients to ground lamb for it holds its shape when cooked. However, the addition of a little chopped bacon contributes a delectable flavor and adds the fat that is needed.

For patties and mock cutlets and chops of average thickness that are to be pan-fried or broiled, it is best to allow about 30 minutes—15 minutes for each side.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

CREAMED GROUND MEAT. Sauté 1 lb. ground meat, 1/2 cup finely diced onion, in 2 tablespoons shortening until meat and onion are browned. Break meat apart as it cooks. Blend in 4 tablespoons of flour, season to taste. Gradually add 3 cups milk, stirring constantly. Cook until thick. Serve on toast cubes, in pastry cases, in noodle ring or over steamed rice. Serves 6.
