

Hear Dr. Jas. Millar at the Coquille churches' Fellowship dinner at 7 p. m., Jan. 23, in the Pioneer church dining room.

Howdy Folks:

We learned a few days ago that we have one truly Scotch customer!

It was late when his job was finished and the bill wasn't figured so we suggested he stop in next day or mail a check.

Nope he wanted to pay then for he didn't want to run up the mileage on his car or spend 3 cents to mail it.

And we all know anyone still driving a Model T isn't broke.

Beulah Chapter's First Meeting For This Year

Last Thursday evening, Jan. 11, Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., presided over by Worthy Matron Edith McNelly and Worthy Patron Laurence Lundquist, was the first meeting of the new year for the 1945 officers. Initiation will be held at the next regular meeting, Jan. 25.

The Girls' Double Sextette and the Boys' Double Quartette of the high school were highlights of the evening. The girls, attractively gowned in formals, sang most pleasingly three lovely numbers: "Lassie O' Mine," "Without a Song" and "Sleepy-town." They were accompanied by their instructor, Mrs. Thora Watson. The boys, accompanied by Miss Mona Ingman, were a real joy, with their rendition of "Sailors' Chantey" and "Way Down South."

Following the meeting, a social hour was enjoyed with refreshments served in the banquet hall.

Surprise Party For Mrs. Burns

Mrs. Mary Burns was entirely unaware of the surprise party last Thursday night held in her honor by Mrs. Florence Hallock and Mrs. Wm. McMitchell. Mrs. Burns, her daughter, Mrs. Cora Steele of Myrtle Point, and her son, Bobbie Burns, were invited to spend the evening at their neighbors' home. It was Mrs. Burns' 57th birthday. When other neighbors casually dropped in, Mrs. Burns was pleased and said, "Why this is like a party. I have a lovely birthday cake at home which is a birthday present and we must get it and pass it around." Soon more neighbors came and presents were piled on a table in front of Mrs. Burns and all was plain.

It was a pleasant evening for the friends as well as for Mrs. Burns, who didn't need to get her own birthday cake for the guests. Refreshments were already prepared in the Hallock-McMitchell kitchen.

An unfortunate accident occurred to mar the pleasant affair when Mrs. McMitchell stepped on a rug which slipped on the polished floor. The fall resulted in a shoulder injury which, although no bones were fractured, was nevertheless very painful.

Among the guests invited were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Payne, Mrs. Katie Pearl, Mrs. Tomlinson, Mrs. Maud Bean, Mrs. Cora Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ziedrich, Mr. McMitchell and Bobbie Burns.

Mrs. Alton Clausen Honored

A large shower, given by Mrs. R. E. Harbison last Friday night at her home, was to compliment Mrs. Alton Clausen. Blocks for a small memory quilt were distributed among the guests for their signatures and collected again by the hostess to embroider and combine for a gift to Mrs. Clausen later. A floral arrangement long to remember was of white camellias and yellow acacia, which had been done by Artist Husband Bob.

The special feature of the affair was when small Bobbie Harbison, rode into the room on his tricycle, pulling behind him a pretty pink and blue basket mounted on a pink and blue wagon, which afterwards made a return trip, each time loaded with presents for the honor guest.

Among those invited were Mesdames Doris Sayre, Florence Barton, Ada Moore, Marion Hale and Madam Hale, who is visiting her daughter-in-law; Lee Stonacyphe, Dorothy Fish, Wilda Schroeder, Dena Pierce, John Purkey, Guy Mauney, Esther Litzberger, Mary Gilbert, Robt. Harris, Roy Detlefsen, George L. Maynard and G. E. Stark.

John Shilling An Army Discharge

We hear so much and read so much about the things planned for our returning service men, that we sometimes forget some of the men have returned already. We entertain enthusiastic ideas we hope to carry out in the post-war world when the boys return in need of jobs and friends. In the meantime, some of the fellows have been discharged and are here to adjust themselves to civilian life once more. Let us remember them now.

The Dillard Market has employed one such man, who spent eighteen months in New Guinea as well as a period of time in the Hawaiian Islands. John Shilling received a medical discharge from his station as a cook in the Infantry on New Guinea.

While at Fort Lewis, Shilling met Virginia Miller of Coquille, who became Mrs. Shilling, thus they make their home in the place of their choice, though Shilling was for several years the manager for The National Food Stores of Chicago. This large chain compares to the chains with which we are familiar locally, but is larger.

Shilling has nothing to say of the horrors of war but talks of his education at once more viewing The States. His discharge was the result of a nervous condition and of the sad state of his stomach from a diet of dehydrated foods. Our plentiful supply of food fills him with wonder. Stop in some time and tell him you are glad he is home.

Townsend Club No. 1 Notes

Townsend Club, No. 1, met Tuesday night with President McCue in the chair. Thirty-five were present and business was conducted as usual, after which Mr. Bull showed pictures of the Fourth of July celebration and of scenes around the country. Mr. Prescott brought a large cake which was auctioned off three times, bringing the club $5.00. Door prizes were won by Mr. Ware.

Next week, assorted salads and crackers will be served. After the meeting, Mr. Harrison, Mr. Laird and Mrs. Von Pegert played music, which was greatly enjoyed by those present.

Insurance Specialist, F. R. Bull.

Coquille Unit Red Cross Notes

Coquille Red Cross will meet Friday, Jan. 19, from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. in Guild Hall.

Sewing this week will consist of scuff slippers and regular kit bags. Yarn for v-neck army sweaters will be available.

At the work table, due to temporary inability to purchase wash cloths, there will be button holes to make and buttons to sew on pajamas. Also, in order to avoid any possible waste of wool material or left-over colored yarns, squares will be crocheted until the supply has been utilized.

The Unit is in need of small or figured outing flannel.

A suggestion from one of the local servicemen is passed on to the knitters. He asks that all sweater cuffs be knitted snugly so that they will fit closely at the wrists.

The pot-luck luncheon last Friday was well attended and, in spite of rationing, a large assortment of delicious foods graced the table. Guests were Mrs. F. S. Emery, of Elgin, Ore., and Mrs. J. R. Copeland, who assisted in cutting during the afternoon. Mrs. J. E. Axtell called for a sweater to knit at home.

Reports on the sewing quotas for the previous month were given by Mrs. D. B. Kesner, production chairman. Three boxes of finished articles were packed by Mrs. K. P. Lawrence and Mrs. Kesner and shipped to Red Cross headquarters, Coos Bay, on Monday.
