Bethel, No. 15, of Job's Daughters met Monday, January 22. The Honored Queen announced the following chairmen for the coming formal ball: Invitations, Pat Yarbrough; Programs, Laura Emily Ruble; Entertainment, Sally Gable; Music, Vera Bishop; Refreshments, Roberta Medley, and Decorations, Phyllis Litzenger.

The committee chairman reported that the "Sweetheart Ball" will be held February 18 in the Masonic Hall and Bum Gardin's Orchestra will furnish the music. Arrangements have been made to invite nearly forty girls outside of Job's Daughters and the girls, in turn, will invite escorts for the evening. The Valentine motif will be carried out in the decorating and the committee plans to prepare soon for the "Sweetheart Ball."

The report of the librarian, Vera Bishop, consisted of a style show in bathing suits from 1870 to 1945. Bonita Miller, Shirley Slater, Joyce Taylor, Nétabelle Hendrix, Dorothy Williams, Gwen Elrod, Phyllis Litzenger and Lois Hansen modeled a number of styles which gave a humorous example of swimming suits from past years.

The Bethel is planning to hold a joint meeting with Coos Bay Bethel, No. 17, on Coos Bay some time in March, when Mrs. Edna Catlow will be present for inspection.

After the meeting refreshments were served and Mrs. Dunn, Guardian of Hospitality, announced Leola Neely as the winning committee chairman of the last five refreshment committees.
