Women's Missionary Society, Church of Christ, Met Jan. 18

The Women's Missionary Society of the Church of Christ held its noon luncheon meeting last Thursday in the basement of the church. About 31 guests enjoyed the dinner, built around an "American Indian menu." A clever mirror centerpiece reflected tiny tepees on the shore of a lake. Moss and greenery added to the effect.

Miss Eloise Turner and Mrs. Liston Parrish opened the program by singing, "Lead Me to Calvary," accompanied by Mrs. Donald Farr. Alice Rhay and Mrs. Farr led the members to Burma in an interesting discussion built around the missionary topic for the next study period. By a lively question and answer discourse, much was learned about the country and its people.

Ione Billings was chairman for the luncheon, assisted by Willetta O'Dell, Jane Sanders, Bertie Wilson. Mrs. Arthur Towne, the president, held a short business meeting, and Ann Dungey gave an inspirational devotional.
