George Wasson, Addresses W.S.C.S. On American Indian

The Women's Society of Christian Service met Thursday, Feb. 1, in the parlor of the Pioneer Church, the business meeting opening at 10:30 a. m. Committee reports were read. Announcements included notice of the meeting on Feb. 22 of the W.S.C.S. study club at Helen Peterson's home, with potluck luncheon, and the appearance at 7:00 p. m. of the Negro Sextette in the Pioneer Church.

The potluck luncheon at noon was followed by the program which began at 2:00 p. m.

The worship service for February was prepared by the author, Mary Garland Taylor, and included in her book, "Trails of Friendship with Indian Americans." "Behold, I Stand at the Door and Knock," was the subject of the February service.

Mr. George Wasson, leader in Coos county of Indian Americans, was introduced to the group by Mrs. James Richmond. He gave an interesting talk on the subject of American Indians and displayed a collection of relics which had been made by Oregon Indians. Mrs. Avery was in charge of the program. She was assisted by Mrs. Eva Stevens, Mrs. Lundy Peart and Mrs. Minnie Laws. Excellent material was read on the subject of the Indian. The devotional was led by Mrs. L. W. Oddy.

Hostesses included Lena McCurdy, chairman; Mesdames R. E. Boober, Marshall Way, Peggy Newton, L. P. Fugelson and Frank Schram. Members attending were: Mesdames Brown, Muriel Anderson, Estie Ellis, R. H. Rogers, Minnie Laws, Georgia Richmond, Eva Stevens, Avery, Rowang, L. W. Oddy, W. E. Bosserman, O. B. Harriman, M. C. Minard, Lundy Peart, Carl Morrison, Birdie Skeels, Kennett Lawrence, Fred Houston, Elsie Carlill, Lawrence Lundquist and Cooper.

Myrtle C. E. Union Rally Here Last Saturday Night

Thirty-six young people and their leaders gathered at the Christian Church Saturday night for a Myrtle C. E. Union rally. The ladies of the church served a banquet, which was followed by a program under the leadership of Jim Kimsey, toastmaster. Ivan Correl, from North Bend, led in the singing of inspirational choruses. Special music was provided by the High school boys' quartet under the direction of Miss Ingman. Humorous readings by Jim Kimsey and Vernon Fishback brought laughs. Mr. Fishback, state field secretary for Christian Endeavor, brought an inspirational talk on young people's work. The meeting was closed with a friendship circle.

The next rally will be March 9 at a skating party at Pacific Roller Rink on Coos Bay.

Raymond L. Halter Married In Seattle January 20

Mrs. Alma Halter has received word that her youngest son, Raymond L. Halter, was married in Seattle on Saturday, Jan. 20. She was unable to give us the name of his bride when she reported his marriage this week.

Coquille Unit Red Cross Notes

Coquille Red Cross will hold its regular monthly potluck luncheon at 12:30 noon, Friday, Feb. 9, in Guild Hall. Each participant is asked to bring a hot dish, salad or other suitable dish; also her own bread and butter and table service. Coffee, cream and sugar will be provided by the committee. Brief work reports for the past month and progress on present quotas of hospital sewing will be given. All workers and friends of Red Cross are invited.

For those who cannot conveniently attend the noon luncheon, regular work room hours of 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. will be maintained as usual.

For this week's sewing there will be regular kit bags and scuff slippers.

"We are informed that a freight shipment of 1200 yards of outing flannel for pajamas is on its way," says Mrs. Kesner. A few army sweaters are available for the knitters. At the work table there will be squares to finish, buttons and button-holes to be done, war cloths, etc.

"Due to the campaign scheduled this week for Allied War Relief, we are again asking for good used clothing, including shoes, shirts, dresses, warm undergarments, sweaters, coats and outer wear of all types," states Mrs. Kesner. "Please bring your collection to Guild Hall, marking same 'Red Cross,' before Saturday, if possible."

An urgent call has been received from the Army and Navy for 2400 blood donors this week at the Portland Center alone, either whole blood or blood plasma, to meet the demands of the armed forces. This is the largest quota ever requested from Portland and does not include the collection to be made by the mobile unit outside of Portland.

Those interested in donating blood may avail themselves of the opportunity by phoning Mrs. B. T. Hepler, 9-R-5, who will take a group of six to Eugene on the morning of Feb. 12. All arrangements have been made with the blood bank there, but it will be necessary for each person to take a blood test here first, fee is $1.00. After this has been done, make your reservations immediately.

Mrs. Hilda Durrell, of Sitkum, drove in 27 miles to Coquille to arrange for and receive supplies for a Red Cross sewing group in her vicinity. They will meet one day each week. The Unit extends congratulations and good wishes. Coquille Unit now includes McKinley, Sitkum, Fairview and Riverton.

A nice check was received from Mrs. J. S. Barton, with the comment, "You should talk to our boys if you want to know what the Red Cross is doing overseas."

Visitors last week were: Mesdames O. L. Wood, J. E. Ruble, R. A. Boober and Robertson. Mrs. Ruble assisted our cutter, Mrs. L. P. Fugelson, one of the regular cutters, has gone to Wisconsin to visit her sons and families. She expects to be away for about six weeks.

Knitters who have had yarn out for some time are asked to please bring it to work room as soon as possible. An attractive baby quilt was made and brought in by Mrs. O. C. Sanford.

If you are not now enjoying the privilege of sewing for those who are serving for you in our armed forces, call at your local Red Cross and find the things that you can do best to assist in this great humanitarian work.

Townsend Club No. 2 Notes

The Ladies Auxiliary of Townsend Club, No. 2, met at the home of Mrs. Florence DeNoma on Feb. 1, with ten members present. The meeting was called to order by President Mrs. Mae Curtis and opened with prayer and salute to the flag. Business was attended to, a quilt was tied and work was taken home by members. Bertha Wilson received the gift prize. Ten new members were admitted and one renewed her membership. Luncheon was served by the hostess during the afternoon and enjoyed by all.

A valentine box will feature next meeting. Everyone bring a valentine. We will meet at the home of Mrs. Wilma Knight on Feb. 15.—Press Cor.
