

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Barton returned Tuesday from a business trip to Portland from which they left last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. F. Erickson, former residents of Coquille, came in last Friday from Portland to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Erickson, and old friends here. They returned home Monday night. Tom says that in these strenuous days he would rather live in Coquille than in the Rose city.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Croy, for many years residents out in Cunningham valley but who for the past twelve years have resided at San Fernando in southern California, came up from there last week and for a month will be visiting at their ranch near the County Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Claver and son, Gary, went up to Portland on business for the theatres here on Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Marc Shelley and all returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Anderson, former Coquille residents now living in Lebanon, left Wednesday after visiting here since Sunday. They wanted to keep in touch with Coquille affairs and added their name to the Sentinel's growing list.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Springer, of the O. K. Rubber Welders, are enjoying a visit from his brother, C. G. Springer, and wife, who are here from Bend, Ore. The visiting brother is with the Oregon State Highway Department and will be in Coos, Curry and Douglas counties for probably three months while he is seeking and locating rock deposits that can be used with oil in surfacing the state highways of this section, the building of which is one of Oregon's post-war projects.

Mrs. Guy Fields is a 'guest' at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sherwood. She expects to take her son, Charles Hansen, with her when she returns to Seattle, this week-end.

Mrs. Jacobsen, mother of Madge Heaton, has returned to Olympia, Wash., after spending a couple of months here.

Don Farr left for Portland Tuesday, where he was to report for another pre-induction physical examination.

Crystal Henninger, of Henninger's Market, and Virginia Wood left Saturday for San Francisco, where they expect to be for a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shilling received word that John's brother, Louis, would be in Seattle for a very short time before leaving for further overseas duty and they left immediately, Saturday morning, in order to see him. Louis has been overseas for three years and, upon his return on furlough, married the girl he left behind in his home town, Chicago. John and Virginia returned Tuesday evening.

Chief Petty Officer Morris Hendrix and his wife have arrived from Camp Huemac, California, to spend a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hendrix before being assigned to overseas duty.

Dorothy Mattoon has resigned her position with Cooper's florist shop to accept a position in the post office.

Mrs. Florence Hallock writes that she is truly enjoying her vacation in California. She left San Francisco, yesterday, on the way to visit a sister. She expects to be gone until the first of May.

Mrs. Nellie Frey arrived home Tuesday, from a vacation spent in San Francisco.

Don Francisco, T/5, visited friends in Coquille Wednesday, while on furlough, after 22 months in the Aleutians. He will soon report to a station in Texas, possibly for further training.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cleveland moved to Brookings over the weekend. Mr. Cleveland will manage the recently purchased R.E.A. co-op in that section.

Mrs. Alice Kienz, of Geo. Oerding's office force, has been in the Coffey Memorial Hospital in Portland for the past two weeks and may be there for some little time yet. She has undergone two operations on her jaw, made necessary by an infected tooth. Mr. Kienz has been up there with her and her sister, Mrs. Elynor Miller, drove up there last week to be with her also.

The F.O.E. Ladies Auxiliary is sponsoring a dance in the Community Building this coming Saturday evening, March 24. All Eagles are welcome and urged to bring their families and a guest. There will be good music by a three-piece orchestra.

On April 13, Blaine Harbaugh, SC 2/c; Gail Peterson, FI/, and James Stansburg Sea 1/c, of the Bandon Coast Guard, with their commanding officer, Arthur E. Dohney, C. B. M., will provide an evening of musical entertainment for the Eagles.

Mrs. John Harding is recovering from the second major operation in less than a year.

James Lester Meadows, Lieut. Col. in the Air Corps, visited his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Matney, the first of this week, upon his return from the South Pacific, where he saw action on Iwo Jima. He told many interesting stories of experiences on the battlefield and expressed the belief that civilians can have no conception of the true picture of war.

Friends report that Fritz Kunz is home on leave after having been hospitalized at Farragut for eleven weeks.

Mrs. Ada Howard and daughter, Violet, were called to Eugene, Thursday, by the death of a relative. They returned Sunday.
