

Personal Mention

Although still rather weak and shaky following his recent operation, Postmaster M. O. Hawkins was able to get down to the office for a while on Monday and is gradually increasing the time he can spend there each day.

Mrs. Alice Klenz was back on the job in Geo. E. Oerding's office Monday morning after being ill in Portland for the past month. Two weeks of that time was spent in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Schatzman, parents of Mrs. J. LeRoy Starr, moved to Coquille this week from Canby, Oregon. They sold their ranch, which they had owned at Canby for twenty-four years and Mr. Schatzman is now retiring. They have purchased a home from A. B. Schroeder on Eighth street.

Mrs. Georgianna Vaughan, of the county clerk's force, took her two children and her mother, Mrs. Flo Johnson, to Portland last Saturday. Mrs. Vaughan expects to return Sunday, but the return of Mrs. Johnson, who is to go through a clinic up there, will depend upon the results of the examinations.

Mrs. Catherine Sickels, whose home is still in Coquille but who has been employed in San Francisco for the past two years, arrived here last Friday evening for a few days' visit with old friends. She also made a trip up to Albany, leaving here Saturday and returning Sunday evening.

The sale of the five Sherwood houses, across from the court house, was completed during March to Mr. and Mrs. J. LeRoy Starr.

Mrs. LaVina Finley accompanied her daughter, Mrs. John T. Norton, and seven months baby boy to Mrs. Norton's home at Burns. They left last Saturday and word received here since their arrival was to the effect that the trip was hard because of tire trouble. Mrs. Finley expected to return in about two weeks.

The Past Noble Grands club will meet at the home of Mrs. Geo. Johnson on Friday night, April 6. All members are urged to attend.

Hamilton Thrift has been visiting friends and relatives in Coquille this week. He was stationed for some time in Iceland and will report to Fort Lewis for further assignment at the termination of his furlough.

Flag Rises Over Guam School

U. S. Marine Corps Photo
The shell-torn walls temporarily patched with corrugated tin roofing, George Washington High School at Agaña, Guam, reopened recently for the first time since December, 1941. The Japanese used the building as a barracks and compelled the students to work on Jap installations. Marine Major General Henry L. Larsen (second from right of flagpole), Island Commander, presided at the flag-raising ceremony. Beside him is Mrs. Agueda Johnston, school principal, whose husband died in a Jap prison camp.
