Pretty Wedding Saturday Evening

A very pretty wedding at eight o'clock last Saturday evening, in the Church of Christ, united in marriage Miss Margaret Wolgamott of Coquille and Roy Simpson, Pfc. of Grants Pass. Preceding the ceremony, Kenneth Talley sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Talley. Don Farr played the wedding march on the organ. Ralph and Dean Wolgamott, brothers of the bride, were ushers. Rev. Liston Parrish performed the ceremony before a large group of friends and relatives.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a blue tulle with black accessories, and a corsage of white carnations. Iris Wolgamott attended her sister as bridesmaid. Her suit was of aqua with brown accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. Herman Simpson, U. S. Navy, acted as best man for his brother.

The bride's mother wore a brown outfit, and a pink rosebud corsage. Joyce Benham and Doris Bjorkstrand lighted the tapers. Miss Benham wore blue crepe, Mrs. Bjorkstrand was in gold. Both wore gardenia corsages.

A reception was held in the church parlors with Mrs. Myrtle Benham serving the wedding cake, while Mrs. Liston Parrish served at the punch bowl. Marian Adams and Glenda Moy assisted with the serving. The rooms were attractive with baskets of iris and narcissi. At one end of the room a long table with a hand-crocheted cloth was centered with the bride's cake and a large Fostoria punch bowl.

Mrs. Simpson has been employed at the First National Bank, while the groom recently returned from overseas duty. They will make their home in California at present.

Bridal Shower For Mrs. W. L. Buoy Friday Evening

Mrs. Wayland L. Buoy, the former Cherie Mae Hartwell, was the guest of honor at a bridal shower, sponsored by Mrs. Eli Brault, Mrs. Ansel Kight and Mrs. Ellis Holbrook at Mrs. Irene Hartwell's home last Friday evening in Riverton. Mrs. Buoy, who is a teacher in Coos Bay and who formerly was a member of our school faculty here, was married last month to Mr. Wayland L. Buoy, Mo.M.M.1/c U. S. N., when he returned here on his first leave from the Navy in over three years, which had been spent aboard the U.S.S. Dixie in the South Pacific theatre of war.

The rooms were bright and gay with spring flowers, and the table was spread with a beautiful cloth of rich old-lace, graced with a centerpiece of pink and red camellias, a gift of Mrs. C. W. Martin. After the guests had assembled and the many useful and lovely gifts and the many opened and passed around so all might see, refreshments of cake and coffee were served. The hostess was assisted in this by Mrs. Eli Brault and Mrs. Ansel Kight of Riverton; Mrs. Nell McGilvery and Mrs. Harvey Benham from Coquille, and Mrs. Lubert Benetz from Greenacres.

Those present to express their good will and wishes to the bride were: Mesdames Eli Brault, Ansel Kight, Ellis Holbrook, H. A. Hatfield, Rose Marco, B. T. Hepler, George Shelton, Francis Sell, C. W. Martin, Thos. Hanly, W. T. Alpine, Ed. Smith, Joe Howanick, Nelson Russell, Ira Baumgartner, Leland Panter, Maude St. Dennis, Ellis Kight, Hazel Hudson, C. M. Hartwell, Wayland Buoy and the Misses Vernie Fonner, Joanne Smith, Deloris Sell and Billy Hanly, all of Riverton; also Mesdames Harvey Benham, J. W. Ruble and Neil McGilvery, from Coquille; Mrs. Lubert Benetz from Greenacres; Mrs. Harold Potts, from Coos Bay, and Mrs. Jess Kay, from Bandon.

Those unable to attend but who sent gifts and congratulations were: Mesdames Wm. Church, Horace Berry, Adolph Moulth, Stanley Clausen, Lester Clausen, Walter Kight, Mettie Peterson, Bart Gasner, George Huther, Ella Fonner and Miss Cleo Kight, all from Riverton; Mesdames Jack Hultin, Harold Simmons, Don Ross, Guy Kelley, Jane Martin, from Coquille; Mrs. Stanley Evans, of Myrtle Point, and Mrs. C. Grant Hartwell, from Redlands, Calif.

Hickam-Morris Nuptials At Vancouver, Wash.

Thurman Hickam, Radioman 1/c, son of Mrs. Eva Hickam of this city, and Violet Morris, who formerly lived at Riverton, were married at the Lutheran parsonage in Vancouver, March 21, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The bride wore a gown of aqua blue with a gardenia corsage. Present for the ceremony were the bride's parents and sisters.

The young couple visited in Coquille, while on their wedding trip and have now returned to Tongue Point, Oregon, where the groom is stationed.

Special Occasion For Eagles Lodge

Friday evening of this week will be a Red Letter evening for the Coquille Eagles. Arrangements have been completed for an interesting evening of entertainment for all Eagles and their families. The program will begin promptly at 8:15, following a short lodge meeting, at which several new members will be initiated.

The highlight of the evening's program will be the presentation of several vocal numbers by C. B. M. Arthur E. Dobney and his male quartette of the United States Coast Guard. An interesting reel of sound pictures on post-war aviation will be shown during the evening.

Present at the meeting will be two of the state officers of the Eagles Lodge, who will give short talks. They are Roy Ellis, of the Oregon state organization board, and Wally Rapp, state trustee.

Refreshments and lunch will be served to all those attending. All Eagles and their families are cordially invited to attend.

Two Service Men At Caudle Family Reunion Sunday

Relatives of the Caudle family met at the home of Jones Caudle in Coquille on Sunday, in honor of Pvt. and Mrs. Merle Caudle, recently married at Baltimore, Md., and Lt. Caryl Caudle, of Luke Field, Ariz. A pleasant visit and potluck dinner was enjoyed.

Pvt. Merle Caudle, with the 4th Army Signal Corps headquarters, is now stationed at Camp Polk, La., where the 59th company, alerted for overseas service, is already in the field. He and his wife departed for Camp Polk on Wednesday.

Lt. Caryl Caudle, an A.A.F. fighter pilot, has completed Transition training and is awaiting assignment. He received his commission at Luke Field, Phoenix, Ariz., on Feb. 1 and returned to that field on Friday.
