

Personal Mention

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Brown spent the first few days of this week in Cottage Grove and Salem attending to business in connection with work of the Cascade district of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Glen Gosline is visiting at the home of her parents, Mayor and Mrs. O. L. Wood, while her husband is being transferred. Mrs. Gosline has been living in National City, California, to be near her husband's station.

L. H. Hazard accompanied Elbert Schroeder on a trip with the ambulance the latter had to make to Portland last Friday. The former visited Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Sercombe that night and both men returned Saturday.

Miss Alice Fish, who teaches in the Hillsboro schools, and Miss Jean Young, who is employed at a clinic on Sandy Boulevard in Portland, arrived here Saturday afternoon and returned north Sunday afternoon. The former came to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fish on their ranch near Bridge, and the latter to see her mother, Mrs. H. A. Young, who is slowly showing improvement now.

Lt. Iris Barklow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barklow of Coquille, who has been stationed at Marana Army Air Field in Arizona, has been transferred to Randolph Field, Texas, where she will go to air evacuation school for two months. She will then report back to the Marana Field to await further orders.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kern and Frances spent Sunday in Barview, near Empire, visiting Mrs. Kern's sister. While there, they went clam-digging with very good results. After the clams were cleaned, there were eight quarts of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Les A. Child of Grants Pass, were in Coquille last Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Child, who conducts a similar shop in Grants Pass, owns the Excel Dress Shoppe here. One reason for their trip over was that she might visit her mother, who is in the hospital at Coos Bay.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Mrs. Norma Zeile, daughter of Mrs. C. W. Ashton, arrived here last Wednesday from her home in Salt Lake City, Utah, for a visit with her mother and old friends here. She expected to get in some good fishing as Mrs. Ashton had written her that she had two or three finny specimens tied up in the river here awaiting her arrival.

N. L. Springer, of the O. K. Rubber Welders, returned Monday evening from a two days' trip to Eugene on business.

Visitors From Portland Enjoyed Coos Sunshine

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Davis, of Portland, were week-end house guests at the William E. Klensz residence. Mr. Davis is supervisor for the Veterans Administration, with headquarters in Portland. The Davises, a few weeks ago, moved to Portland from the east coast where Mr. Davis has just recently been discharged from the Army, in which he had the rank of captain.

This being their first trip into Coos county, they were very interested in the myrtle trees and the unusually beautiful scenery here. They commented on the activity in Coquille and the nice sunny weather.

Miss Delilah Endicott Arriving Soon in U. S.

Word has been received here that Miss Delilah Endicott is expected to reach San Francisco this week.

Miss Endicott, who is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Endicott of Eugene, formerly of Bandon, was a member of the faculty of the University of Santo Tomas in Manila when the Japs captured that city. She had been a prisoner at the Santo Tomas camp until released a few weeks ago.

Larsen operated a cafe in Coquille a number of years ago which was known at Tom's Cafe, in the location of the present 101 Cafe. He also operated Lloyd's Cafe in Bandon for several years.

His Widow Is A Coquille Young Lady, Nancy Roberts

Joe Haptonstall, the Coos Bay Marine who was killed Feb. 27 on Iwo Jima, was son-in-law of Abe Roberts of this city, he having married Nancy Roberts who graduated from Coquille High in 1942.

Joe was born April 11, 1922, graduated from Marshfield High in 1941 and entered the Marine Corps soon afterward. He had been overseas for two years.

He is also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Haptonstall of Coos Bay, and by three sisters.

Ronald Williams' Recital To Be Heard May 4

Ronald Williams, student of the violin under Muriel Dae Ardath, will appear in recital on May 4 at the Pioneer Church. Due to illness in the family of Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, she has been unable to accompany him. Arrangements with Miss Phyllis Hanse have been made for the accompaniment. Genevieve Arrington, seventeen-year old North Bend girl, will assist with a group of songs, accompanied by Miss Athey.
