At a church board meeting last Sunday after Sunday school, it was decided to have communion on the Sunday Rev. Liston Parrish preaches here. It was also decided to re-organize the Ladies Aid and all ladies interested are to meet at the Fay Holverstott home the first Thursday in May. The board decided to help in missionary work, the collections to be sent direct to a non-denominational organization. Mrs. T. H. Benham was elected pianist. L. L. Buoy has been ill in bed part of this week. Wm. Byerly is very poorly, being under the doctor's care. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery. The Nygrens from the Bay have moved into the Saylor house. Phillip Stock was a Sunday caller at the Ryan home. He lives in Coquille.

The Peak family has moved onto the Barker ranch, owned by Mrs. David Pike of the Bay. Hugh Shepherd, who has been living there, has moved on to the Lillie Johnson farm.

Townsend Club No. 1 Notes
A short business meeting was held Tuesday evening and a report was given on the Eugene meeting. Ten members from Coquille clubs were in attendance to hear Dr. Townsend at the Lane headquarters when 1500 persons were there to hear the speeches on Monday, May 23. A good crowd attended the Sunday caravan here in W.O.W. hall. Don't forget the May Day basket social next meeting, May 1. Come, bring a basket and have a good time. Three new members have sent in for cards. Mrs. A. Bender and Merideth Westgard were visitors from out of town. Door prize was received by Mrs. Buckner. - Press Cor.

In Justice Bull's Court
Cases in Justice Bull's court the past week were:
On Monday, April 23, Norwood Frank Browne was fined $21 and costs for failure to stop at the scene of an accident, and Walter Earl Smith was fined $10, with $9 suspended, and costs, for having no operator's license. Tuesday, April 24, Vivienne Larene Boshier was fined $1.00 and costs on a similar charge. On Wednesday, John McWhirter appeared on complaint of Lillie Hartig for creating a disturbance while in a state of intoxication. He was sentenced to ten days in jail, with the sentence suspended, providing he leave the Hartig home and not bother Mrs. Hartig in any way any more. He paid court costs.

Valley View School Raises $80 For Junior Red Cross

The Valley View School presented a program to the public Saturday, April 21, to raise funds for the Junior Red Cross. Several playlets were given, some of which were prepared by the youngsters themselves and displayed much originality. Admission was twenty-five cents and refreshments and pies were sold. Over $80 was taken in. Esther Wilson is the principal and teaches the upper four grades. The four lower grades of the two-room school are taught by Dena Pierce.

Extension Unit Elected New Officers Last Thursday

The Coquille Extension Unit met Thursday, April 19, in the Court House for the demonstration, "How to Give That Professional Look to Home Sewing." Mrs. Albert Preusser was leader and Mrs. Geo. Ransom assisted. The Unit also elected next year's officers: Mrs. George Ransom, chairman; Mrs. J. V. Sims, vice-chairman; Mrs. G. C. Ashenfelter, secretary-treasurer.

Flags On Schools To Remain At Half Mast Till May 14

In order to clear up a slight misunderstanding as to the length of time schools are to display flags at half-staff in respect to our late president, Mrs. Martha Mulkey, county school superintendent, wishes to announce she has received a communication from Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction, to the effect that schools should observe the same period as government buildings. This period will terminate May 14.

Twin Drummers

Probably no other high school band in the state has a twin brother and sister drum team. You may see and hear the flashy work of Bud Hickam on the snare drum and the firm even beats of his twin sister, Helen, on the bass drum at the High School Band Concert on Wednesday evening, May 2, at 8:00 p. m. at the H. S. gymnasium.

The regular meeting of the Junior Women's Club was preceded by a pot-luck dinner when they met in Guild Hall Monday, April 23.
