V.F.W. and Auxiliary To Sell Poppies May 25-26

The sale of poppies for the V.F.W. will be held May 25 and 26, with members of the Women's Auxiliary helping, according to John Shilling, local chairman, who is a returned veteran of the present war. Each town has a poppy sale committee and Coquille is the central headquarters for this area. The goal set is 1,750 poppies for Coquille.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to aid disabled veterans and to provide homes for them and their families. You are urged to buy one of the poppies which are made by the veterans who have given so much to their country. Armbands will be worn by persons selling them, to insure your buying the genuine, veteran-made poppies.
