

Personal Mention

Rev. and Mrs. C. G. Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Rolla Newton, made a trip to Gardiner Monday of this week looking after district work for Dr. Silas E. Fairham, district superintendent of the Cascade district of the Methodist church, who has been ill at his home for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wheaton and family have moved to Roseburg, leaving their old home on Bullards route Tuesday. Don is going to drive a logging truck for the Uptegrove Trucking Co.

Mrs. Reta Nosler, who is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watson in Portland, came in last Friday for a visit with Mrs. Birdie Skeels, Mrs. Mary Gage and other friends here, her old home.

Mrs. S. M. Nosler, who had spent five weeks in the Portland Convalescent Hospital, arrived home by Monday morning's train, feeling greatly improved in health by the treatments she received there from Dr. Sears.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper Thompson are back home after a two-month vacation. They arrived Sunday from Denver, Colo., where they visited their son. They visited a son in the service who is stationed at Pittsburg, California, but spent most of the two months in Denver. They liked it so well they were tempted to remain there, had it not been for the fact that their only daughter, Mrs. O. H. Garnier, lives in Coquille, as do their many friends. The Thompson have a son stationed overseas.

Mrs. Bertha Wilson last Saturday brought in a beautiful gift she had just received from her son and wife, Sgt. and Mrs. Carl Wilson, who are at Fort Marsh, Florida. There was one large shell as a reflector for eight small electric light bulbs, with the necessary cord attached and the other shells, appropriately set, made it a very lovely table ornament.

Mrs. Wayne Ramsey, of Sacramento, Calif., came up last Saturday for an over-Sunday visit with her mother, Mrs. Laura Brandon and to attend the Mothers and Daughters banquet Monday night given by B. P. W. She left for home Tuesday.

Vernon T. Brockmann, Coast Guard first class accompanied by his wife and infant son, is here on an eight-day leave visiting relatives and friends. He will return again to Port Townsend Wash., Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Whereast and Maxine spent Sunday in Camas Valley with Mrs. Whereast's mother, Mrs. Addie Grush. Netabelle Hendrix accompanied them.

Harry B. Dimmick, who formerly operated a restaurant in Coquille but left here three years ago in February, was in town Tuesday. He is now a cook at a service camp at Richmond, Calif., and came north because of the serious condition of his brother, Dan, in Coos Bay.

Mrs. Fred Middendorf, and two children, Marlene and Steven, left for their home at Del Paso Heights, Calif., last Saturday after a two weeks' visit here with her mother, Mrs. Mae Ensele.

Mrs. Bob Harris and children returned Sunday morning from Seattle.

Dick Johnson opened a Western Auto Supply Store in Myrtle Point Monday.

Markie Sherrill of the O. P. A. office left by bus Sunday morning to spend her vacation in Los Angeles.

First Lt. Jack McDonald spent four days of last week at home before reporting to Portland for an overseas assignment.

Mrs. Beverly Price received word Monday that her husband, Chester, has been wounded by shrapnel on Okinawa.

Notice To V.F.W. And Auxiliary Members

Members of Post 983, V.F.W., and the Ladies Auxiliary are urgently requested to attend a meeting in the Coquille city hall Saturday evening, May 26, at 7:30 o'clock, when the Post and Auxiliary portion of the Memorial Day program will be arranged. It will be a short session.

Also all members are asked to remember, and to attend, the Memorial Day program which will be held in the Washington school building at 10:00 a. m. next Wednesday, May 30. Commander Geo. Keeny.

O.P.A. Reminder About Sugar For Canning

The local OPA office sent out an SOS for volunteers to help with the canning sugar applications and has been gratified to find some dependable, loyal workers, but more helpers are needed. They wish to remind housewives to apply two weeks before they will need their canning sugar, in order to give the board a chance to take care of the flood of applications in time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, of the Western Auto Supply Store, have moved into the P. O. Lund house at 154 South Taylor St.

Good News For You

As a modern woman, interested in good grooming, you will appreciate, we believe, this special advance notice of an event of great interest in our town.

A friendly, helpful Beauty Expert, trained to know your complexion needs, will be with us during Beauty Week, beginning Monday, June 4-5-6-7-8-9

She will give you, with no charge or obligation, a 45-minute consultation with restful facial, flattering make-up and many suggestions for enhancing your charm.

This personal service is different from the usual "demonstration;" it is planned at our own expense to acquaint you with Cara Nome Beauty Creations.

For a limited time we are saving a period especially for you because we believe you will not want to miss this beneficial service. We can give only ten appointments each day. Therefore, won't you telephone, write, or call at the store for an appointment most convenient for you.

Looking forward to hearing from you, we are

Most cordially yours,

The Rexall Drug Store
