Sgt. Oran V. Holbrook, who has gone through so many major campaigns with MacArthur's forces and who was seriously injured in the Philippines, is now at a rest camp somewhere in New Guinea. He has been placed in a non-combat unit. He is suffering now from war fatigue, according to advices from the War Department to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Holbrook. Oran writes that he is enjoying his much needed rest and that he is privileged to see a good show each night. He has high praise for the grand services of the Red Cross Unit there and states they're always prepared to give the boys coffee and doughnuts. Oran has 115 points to his credit, that his parents know of, so he may be sent home as soon as his health will warrant it.

Pvt. Ronald Holbrook, who arrived on Okinawa Easter Sunday with the first Division of the 7th Marines, is to be given a new rating soon of Private First Class. He is the assistant gunner in a machine gun squad, which consists of seven men. His recent letter home tells of losing two of his squad members—one was killed, the other seriously wounded. Those boys on Okinawa are not having any picnics!

During this invasion of Okinawa, Pfc. Verlin E. Sell of the 3rd Amphibian Corps, has been attached to the 1st Marine Division, which is the same as Pvt. Ronald Holbrook's. Verlin wrote Ronald's mother here, "Tell Ronald to hunt me up sometime here, as I can't get out of my fox holes long enough to hunt him!" He recently sent some souvenirs home, among which were some Japanese pencils and a musical instrument much like a mandolin.

The W. T. Alpines have heard from their son, M/Sgt. Karl M. Alpine, who is stationed at a B-29 base somewhere in the Pacific that he has been advised he has enough points to his credit to be released from service. At the time of his writing he had not fully made up his mind what he wished to go in the matter. Karl's duty at his base is to give the big fortresses their last inspection and "go-ahead" O.K. before they take off to bomb Japan.

Word has come in that Harold Simmons, who has last served in Germany, will be stationed there with the Army of Occupation. His wife, the former Edith Hull, and their two children reside in Coquille.

Mrs. Ronald Holbrook and little son returned to her parents' home in Myrtle Point this week, after spending two weeks here with her husband's parents. Grandpa and Grandma Holbrook seem to be lost since their one and only grandson left.

Mrs. Wayland L. Buoy writes from Oakland, where she is visiting her husband that she had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Carol (Young) Dunshie and little daughter in Berkeley one day last week. Mrs. Dunshie is the daughter of "Ye Sentinel Editor." She has just recently moved to Berkeley.

Coquille Unit Red Cross Notes

Coquille Red Cross will meet Friday, June 8, from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. in Guild Hall, to sew, knit, crochet, sew on buttons, make buttonholes, piece baby quilts, etc.

For work room and home sewing, there will be men's bedshirts, bathrobes, regulation kit bags, bedside bags, scuff slippers, etc. These are easily made and are much needed articles. For the knitters there will be yarn for sweaters and sox.

Those having completed sewing or knitting in their homes are urged to bring their article to the work room as soon as possible to include in a shipment going forward shortly.

The Unit is pleased to report that Mrs. Victor West is doing nicely following recent surgery. She is at Kaiser Hospital in North Bend. Workers were pleased to welcome Mrs. Frank Homenyk at the work room again. She is now much improved in health. Mrs. Florence Hall is back from Montana, where she visited a son in the service.

Through error, Mrs. Annie Robinson was given credit that was due Mrs. Pearl Robertson for a recent donation.

Those desiring tickets on the very attractive Red Cross Afghan made by Mrs. Earl Nosler some time ago, are urged to arrange for them before June 29, as the award will be made on that date at 4 p. m. in Guild Hall.

"Our outlying Red Cross group, Fairview, McKinley, Sitkum and Dora are doing very nice work and we are very proud of their co-operation," reports Mrs. D. B. Kesner, chairman of production. "Are you sewing or knitting for your son, husband or brother in the service or are you allowing some other woman to do the work you should be doing?"

Townsend Club No. 1 Notes

Townsend Club, No. 1, had a good meeting Tuesday evening. The vice president was in the chair and Mr. Buckner gave the opening prayer. The Flash had good news for all of us. We were glad to have three visitors present and also to report two new members. A program of violin music and readings was enjoyed; also refreshments were served after the close of the meeting to the 35 persons present. Door prize was received by Wm. Shuck.

It is hoped that a good crowd will go to North Bend Friday, June 8, to hear Sherman J. Bainbridge. He is general manager of the National Recovery Plan.

At the next meeting a sack lunch will be served.—Press Cor.

Card of Thanks
We wish to try to express our thanks to all the people who helped us in so many ways after the fire which destroyed our home near Bridge. The donations were sincerely appreciated.
