"Juvenile Protection" Is Subject For W.S.C.S.

Woman's Society Christian Service met in the parlors of the Pioneer Methodist Church Thursday, June 7th. The regular monthly business meeting was conducted by Helen Peterson, president. A change from the usual potluck at noon time for the three summer months will be a sack lunch. Coffee will be furnished. The last potluck was served on Thursday by the following hostesses, Eula Schram, Helen Howe, Etta McPherson and Mrs. Leonard. The program, with Etta Ellis in charge, began at 2:00 p. m. Mrs. Chas. Brown was in charge of the devotionals.

The subject, "Juvenile Protection and Delinquency," was presented extensively and listened to with interest. The subject covered juvenile protection in war time and in the transition to peace. The term, "juvenile delinquency" is variable but trends of today's offences indicate a nation-wide pattern of behavior in this sphere and the church has an ever increasingly important place in this picture and with distinct functions, the group was told. Assisting with the program were Mesdames Lena McCurdy, Sybil Avery, Anna Christenson and Mrs. Rogers. Attending members were: Mesdames Helen Peterson, Ernest Purvance, Louis Fugelson, Chas. G. Brown, Georgia Richmond, Miranda Way, Anna Kinde, Etta Ellis, Fern Peterson, Sybil Avery, Lena McCurdy, Clara Morrison, Mary Harman, Ella Nelson, Shelley, Eva Stevens, Esther Taylor, R. B. Rogers, Mildred Gould, Anna Christenson, Nelita Oddy and Mrs. Zel M. Ireland, of Sacramento.

Two Flue Fires Call Out Department Tuesday Afternoon

The fire alarm at 1:00 p. m. Tuesday called the department to the Orvin T. Gant home, just north of the Beach street bridge, where sparks from the flue which burned out set the roof on fire. It was extinguished before much damage was done.

A second alarm, at three o'clock Tuesday afternoon, was from the Watson House, at Front and Hall, where another flue fire was causing uneasiness. It was extinguished without any damage being done.

Two Perverts Are Sentenced To Pen

Two "boys" who were before Judge King in circuit court the past week, charged with the "commission of acts of sexual perversion" were each sentenced to penitentiary terms by the judge, although one has appealed from the jury's verdict of guilty.

The one appealing was Milton Anthony Scott from the Bay. His trial started June 5 and ended last Thursday. After the judge had sentenced him to seven years in the pen his attorney gave notice of appeal and a $3500 bond was posted yesterday. Anthony was then released from the county jail. He is 50 years of age.

The other boy, R. D. Bender, 43 years old, had been a preacher at North Bend. He had skipped from North Bend but at the request of the sheriff's office here the state police arrested him in Portland and Sheriff Howell and Deputy Talley brought him to the county jail the first of the week.

When taken before Judge King on Tuesday he pleaded guilty and was given a six-year penitentiary sentence. The sheriff left with him for Salem this morning.
