

Personal Mention

Mrs. Cecil Richardson, of Hayward, California, spent Sunday in Coquille with her daughter, Mrs. Rosetta Randall, and with Rita Milligan. Her son, Marine Major Harold Richardson, is the fiancé of Mrs. Milligan. Another son, Ralph Richardson, was stationed here at one time with the Coast Guard. Mrs. Richardson left early Monday for Idaho, to visit her sister and family. She later will visit her son, King, who is stationed with the Navy at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mrs. Minnie D. Tibbet, of Eureka, California, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Arnold Gauer, and family and also her sister, Mrs. Florence Cameron. Mrs. Tibbet arrived last Wednesday and left yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Gauer, Joan and Richard, Mrs. Tibbet and Mrs. Florence Cameron spent the day in Myrtle Point Wednesday before Mrs. Tibbet left.

Walter M. Laird who recently purchased the house and lot belonging to Miss Markham, on East Tenth street, later sold it to Mr. Capps who is employed at the Western Condensing Co. plant here.

Mrs. Wm. Renschhausen, of North Bend, was a business caller in Coquille, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oxley, of Yamhill, Oregon, came to Coquille Monday, to take the three children of Mrs. Harold Britton home with them. The two women are sisters, and Mrs. Oxley will keep the youngsters while Mrs. Britton is hospitalized following surgery Monday. They left to return to their home Tuesday.

Mrs. Walter Lake returned Sunday from La Verne, Oklahoma, where she and her baby visited relatives. She met her husband at his parents' home, where he was on furlough from Florida.

Mrs. Ray Zumwalt and Mrs. Clyde Waggoner of Elk River, were shopping in Coquille, Tuesday.

Susie Throckmorton celebrated her sixth birthday at Bandon beach yesterday.

C. S. Woomer of Bandon, who owns a farm on the North Bank road returned Monday from Portland, where he visited his brother in the Vet's hospital.

Sidney Nordstrom was before County Judge Felsheim last Friday and was found to be insane. Attendants from the asylum took him out to Salem on Saturday.

Mrs. Claron L. Gormley, who formerly was employed in Slater's store, is recovering from recent surgery and is now at home.

Two Service Men Guests At Rotary

Don Chase, who was recently released from a German prison camp, was a guest at the Rotary luncheon meeting at the hotel on Wednesday. Don had to bail out from a crippled B-24 bomber over Austria in January and in speaking of the Germans said, "We did not like them and they didn't like us."

However, in talking about the Red Cross he said, "If they ever ask for anything, don't hesitate to give as they are doing wonderful work and probably ninety per cent of us wouldn't have come back if it hadn't been for the weekly Red Cross packages of food and supplies."

Maurice Williams, who is an instructor in the Army Transport Service at Palm Beach, Florida, was also a guest. Maury has done quite a bit of travelling since being in the Army and has flown to Australia, South America and Africa and says that travelling by air sort of spoils one for other means of transportation. It took him nearly a week to come from Washington, D. C., and he had to stand in the vestibule as far as Pittsburgh before he could get inside the car.

Evan Albom gave a talk on the questions to come before the people in the special election June 22. The principal feature that he brought out was that the ten million to be voted on for the state building program would not increase property taxes but would simply authorize the state to use that amount from the surplus from the income taxes already on hand.

Some discussion was had on the program for the 4th of July celebration.

For the first time in months no Rotarian guests were in attendance. Other guests than those mentioned above were Donald B. Stickney, of Powers; Melvin Giles, Stan Sherwood, G. L. Tyler and Rev. Liston Parrish, of Coquille.

Nice Birthday Party For Four-Year Old Carrol Adamson

A very important event in the life of little Carrol Jean Adamson was the lovely lawn party given at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kyle, on the occasion of her fourth birthday yesterday. Pictures were taken of the beautiful cake and of the small guests, to be sent to her father, Roy E. Adamson, SC3c, who is serving in the South Pacific. Favors were pretty baskets of candy, sticks of gum, colored pencils and writing pads for each youngster.

Ralph Collier, of Myrtle Point, was unable to attend but sent a gift. Cake and ice cream were served to Judy and Dickie Thrift, Joan and David Geiss, Phyllis Ann Johnson, Phyllis Ray, Sharon Karentt, Colleen Jacobson and Carrol Jean. Mrs. Tommy Thrift assisted with the serving.

Mrs. Anna E. Bonnell Buried Today

Funeral services are being held at two o'clock this afternoon, at the Schroeder chapel, for Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Bonnell, 80 years of age, who passed away Tuesday at the state hospital in Salem, where she was taken a couple of weeks previously.

Rev. Chas. G. Brown will officiate at the service and interment will be in L.O.O.F. cemetery, No. 2.

Mrs. Bonnell had made her home with her son, Wm. Bonnell, on Rink creek for several years. Other surviving children are Mrs. Margaret Brockwey, of Coquille; Mrs. Bertha Barnett, of Silt, Colo.; Mrs. Thelma Barnett, of Rifle, Colo., and Bert Bonnell, of Payette, Idaho. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Louisa Brahm, of Fortuna, Calif.; 28 grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

School Clerks Not Elected This Year

The June eighteenth annual school meetings will be different from those held in other years in one respect. In past meetings the clerk of the school board has been elected but hereafter the clerk will be appointed by the new board. Four districts, Myrtle Point, Pleasant Point, Laurel Lake and Four Mile, are voting on matters of consolidation. Zone two, including Eastside, Allegany and Sumner, will elect a director. The only name on the ballot is that of the present incumbent, Mrs. Ida Linder of Eastside. Only voters of those three districts are eligible to vote for that director.

In nearly all districts the budget for the school year will be voted upon, however, the law allowing the assessor to make an extension of time.

The Gravelord district is now a suspended district, since it was decided by a vote of twenty to four to send the children to Myrtle Point on a bus operated by Mrs. R. G. Baker. Mrs. Baker has had a bus on that line transporting the non-high students. A new bus is being purchased to handle the increase of passengers.

George E. Oerding Sells Ned C. Kelley's Country Home

The country home owned by Ned C. Kelley and located two miles from Coquille on the Fairview road was sold by George E. Oerding, a Coquille realtor, to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Zaddach, who will move into their newly purchased home in the near future. The house vacated by the Zaddachs will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wilshire and family who come from Portland to Coquille, where he will become manager of the First National Bank. Mr. Kelley recently purchased a house in town on Eleventh street, where he is making his home. Mr. Kelley is a retired insurance agent and Mr. Zaddach is an employee of the state of Oregon.

Legion of Merit To Stauff Son-in-Law

Mrs. Harry R. Turkel received a letter from the Washington, D. C., Star Broadcasting Station enclosing a copy of the following news release regarding her husband who is also the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stauff:

News release—Passed for Publication, May 26, 1945, Advanced Headquarters, Ninth Air Force, Germany:

For organizing and training a unit which was instrumental in the Ninth Air Force's successful efforts against the Luftwaffe, Lt. Col. Harry R. Turkel, 8046 F street N. W., Washington, D. C., was recently awarded the Legion of Merit by Lt. Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Ninth Air Force.

Because of the nature of its work and composition, the unit is still on the secret list.

A former State Department employee, Col. Turkel drafted commercial and taxation treaties for 12 years prior to entering the Army three and a half years ago. He spent a year and a half with the Ninth Air Force in Africa before coming to England and the continent.

During the capture of Cherbourg, Col. Turkel was with the 30th Assault unit of the British Commandos and was also a member of the Task Force which took Paris on Aug. 25. Later assignments have included staff work with the First Allied Airborne Army, plus a tour with the 45th Infantry Division up to the time it captured Nuremberg.

Lt. Col. Turkel was wounded on Armistice Day. He was home once since Oct., 1943, after fifteen months in Africa and where he was at the time of President Roosevelt's visit.

Lumber For War Still Vital Need

The Pacific offensive will be endangered by shortages of the lumber it urgently needs in great quantities unless losses of manpower and vital equipment in the West Coast lumber industry are stopped, Col. W. B. Greeley, secretary-manager of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association, warns in Seattle.

He cited recent War Department statements which projected the war's greatest lumber demands as rising from the attack on Japan, and pointed out that logging trucks idle for lack of tires and the manpower losses which the lumber industry has suffered in common with all other Pacific Northwest war industries, are two prime factors of the 1945 drop in West Coast lumber production. To date the industry's record is clear of failure to meet any military demand for West Coast lumber, Col. Greeley declared.

Utmost efficiency on the part of milk producers throughout the nation will be required this year to meet consumer demands, according to government authorities. The 1945 national milk production goal is 120.5 billion pounds of milk, which must be met with fewer cows, as well as less labor and equipment.
