Leaving for their home in Corning, Calif., Monday were Mr. and Mrs. John Coolidge, after a short visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Roy Deadmond, and aunts, Miss Carrie Byerly, Mrs. Clara Kibler, and her father, Wm. Byerly. Mr. Byerly made the trip to their home for an indefinite visit. He is not at all well but his sunny face will be missed by relatives and friends and not the least by the church congregation, where he seldom failed to attend. His many friends wish him a safe pleasant, trip and a quick return.

Last Sunday was Rev. Chas. G. Brown's last trip out to Fairview to speak at the morning service and his sermon was enjoyed by all who heard it. Mr. Brown is being transferred from the Pioneer Church in Coquille. Rev. W. R. Munger, from the Assembly of God church in Coquille, will deliver the sermon next Sunday morning.

The young people's choir has been invited to the Fay Holverstott home next Friday for practice. All young people living near the church are asked to be at the four corners by 7:15 o'clock, at which time cars will be there to pick them up.

The church will be open Wednesday from two until three o'clock in the afternoon from now on for prayer. There will be Bible study also. Anyone interested in prayer and results are invited to attend.

Betty Hatcher, who was given a scholarship, left Tuesday morning for a two weeks' trip to Corvallis 4-H summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Noah returned to their home Wednesday evening after a ten-day visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Harry Krantz, and family on Middle Creek. Mr. Noah is improving and his friends are glad he can get around without so much difficulty.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Krantz have received from the government a paper showing the battles and places of participation of their son, Dee, somewhere in Germany. Among other places he was in the Belgian Bulge, one of the first to cross the Rhine and was with the Americans who first met the Russians in Germany. He was transferred only a few weeks ago from one division to another and now anticipates being returned home.

Lt. Harold Norris writes that he has recently been awarded the air medal. He is co-pilot on a B-29, stationed in the Marianas and at last writing, had completed seven missions over Japan. On returning from their last mission, they were forced to land on two Jims, later returning to their base.

Clifford Hall writes his parents he is anxious to be home but is a member of the Seventh Army, one slated to remain in Germany on patrol duty.

At the school meeting Monday night Ivy Frye was elected director and the budget was voted for the bus. Bids for bus operator are to be opened August 1.

Helping R. J. and Fay Holverstott with having are Ivy Frye and Dunane, Bill Noah, Russell Stillwell and Sam McCauly. The latter is now ill at home with a severe case of poison oak.

The Alford family plan to leave this week for Freewater, Ore., as their farm has been sold to Ivy Frye. The Alford's are selling their belongings preparatory to the move.

Red Cross meet Thursday next week, June 28, at one o'clock at the church. The chairman, Mrs. Emma Hall, reports lots of urgent sewing to be done and ladies of the valley are asked to turn out and help.
