

B. P. W. Met At Bandon Monday

Members of the Business and Professional Women's Club met June 18 for a wonderful potluck dinner at the Bob Geaney cabin at Bandon. Hostess Myrtle DeLong welcomed the group with a crackling fire in the big fireplace. The long table before it was laden with food. All this and the ocean view made a magic setting. Eva Stevens, retiring president, read her year's report. Lois Elrod, was activities chairman and made an excellent report, $70,000 worth of bonds having been purchased by club members.

Courses were presented by the president to Leah Rover, Inez Rover, Ida Oerding, Ida Owen, Laura Brandon for regular attendance for six months. The Rover sisters have not missed a meeting during the year and received special gifts as well.

Before turning the gavel over to Florence Barton, the new president, Mrs. Stevens, thanked the club members for their loyalty and help in making the year an enjoyable one for her as president and extended her personal wishes for a very successful new club year. Mrs. Stevens treated the club to strawberries and ice cream as an expression of her farewell in office.

A committee was appointed to select a girl to run for queen for the 4th of July celebration. Bertha Smith, Bess Maury and Edna Robinson were appointed on the auditing committee.

Attending were the following: Madeleine Kelly, Ida Owen, Hazel Hanna, Clara Bosserman, Grace Detlefsen, Ida F. Oerding, Inez Rover, Irene G. Hartwell, Claire Hultin, Inez Chase, Leah Rover, Dorothy Tuttle, Lois Elrod, Arlene Robertson, Florence O. Hallock, Bertha J. Smith, Bonnie Walker, Hattie Lee Holman, Florence Barton, Lois Stevens, Bess Maury, Eva Stevens, Jennie Price, Genevieve Preston, Ruth Beyers, Myrtle DeLong, Edna Robinson. Visitors were Jackie Hopkins, Mary Anne Walker and Patty Geaney.

The Chas. G. Browns Guests At Several Farewell Affairs

A series of dinner parties were given this month honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Chas. G. Brown, who are attending the annual Methodist Conference at this time and who will not return to the Pioneer Church here for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Geis entertained with a six o'clock dinner on Wednesday, June 6; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klingbell were hosts at their home Thursday, June 7, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson invited them for Wednesday, June 13.

After the morning worship service last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Brown enjoyed a picnic luncheon and wicker roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cooper. Again in the evening they were guests of the Coopers, where they had an early dinner on the terrace and roasted wieners in the outdoor fireplace.

Birthday Party For A. A. Kyle Last Saturday Evening

Mrs. A. A. Kyle entertained a group of friends at a birthday party honoring her husband on last Saturday. The evening was spent in playing pinocle and refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Schaefer, of Coos Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Adams and son, Dickie, Mr. and Mrs. Royer, of Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. George Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Larson, Mr. and Mrs. George Burr and Mrs. Evan Alborn, of Coquille. Mr. and Mrs. James Manning, of Coos Bay, were unable to attend the party but sent a gift.

Lincoln Club Met With Mrs. Von Pegert Last Wednesday

The Lincoln Club met with Mrs. Fred Von Pegert on Wednesday, June 13. A potluck dinner and a good meeting were enjoyed by all who attended. The women who met and who helped sew and make the quilt blocks were: Mesdames Buckner, Hatcher, Weir, Roth, Collier, Wilson, Garrison and Clinton.

THE MIGHTY WAR LOAN

Extension Of Tax Payment Time For Men Over-Seas

Secretary Morgenthau announced today that an additional extension has been granted to overseas members of the armed forces on their income-tax obligations which were postponed because of overseas service.

The action is intended particularly to help servicemen who stop in the United States for a few months while enroute from the European to the Pacific theatre of war.

The extension is embodied in an amendment to the income tax regulations and was issued by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Joseph D. Nunan, Jr., with the approval of the Secretary.

Specifically, the new regulation provides that the postponement granted an overseas serviceman will continue until he has been back in the United States for a continuous period of five and one-half calendar months (not counting the month in which he returns). In other words, an overseas serviceman will not lose his tax postponement if he stays in this country for a short period while en route to another overseas assignment.

The new time allowance was decided upon after consultation with the War Department regarding the approximate time which may be spent in this country on furloughs and in re-training camps by servicemen being transferred from Europe to the Pacific. Formerly, the regulations cancelled the tax postponement of an overseas serviceman after he had been back three and one-half calendar months.

The tax laws exempt the first $1,500 of active service pay for each member of the armed forces, and women owe no taxes.

Geo. F. Burr Motor Co. Improving The Shop Front

George F. Burr plans on concrete surfacing the entire Hall street front of his property between the city hall and his office building, on which he has a ten-year lease for the lower floor. E. L. Perrott & Son have already concreted a portion of the area and Mr. Burr expects to enclose that much of the Hall street frontage and make it into a storage place for truck parts and accessories. He will also put a roof over the entire lot after the concreting is done.

FREE BUTTER

The Worcester Telegram-Gazette (Worcester, Mass.), reports that a local retailer is stimulating used fat collection by offering a half a pound of butter free in exchange for six pounds of used cooking fat.

Response to the offer has been good, and dramatizes not only the desperate need for used cooking fat, but the purchasing power of the four cents and two red ration points each pound brings.

SALVAGES OWN WEIGHT

War Food Administration, asking housewives to save merely one pound of used cooking fat every month, underestimated the assiduity of Mrs. Paul Debusman, of Wichita, Kansas, who turned over to meat dealers in 1944 more than her weight in salvaged fat.

Setting her weight, 118 pounds, as her goal, Mrs. Debusman made available for synthetic rubber, fabric, paint and varnish, soap and countless other war and civilian manufacturers, 120 1/2 pounds of used cooking fat last year.

FARM FOLLIES

The whole country knew that Jack White worked hard on his farm day and night. It's too bad, you'll allow, that he's not working now. CAME on teams would save arms, legs, and sight.

Hal Clark To Drill First Near Eureka

Hal R. Clark, of Los Angeles, who has been interested in the oil and gas possibilities of southwestern Oregon, and has a number of leases in Coos county, came in Sunday evening from L. A. He stated that his first well-drilling, which he is prepared to start soon, will be in the neighborhood of Eureka, Calif., but he has no intention of giving up the idea of drilling in Coos county. He is an independent operator and not connected with any of the major oil companies. He left for Portland by Tuesday's train, but expects to be back here the last of this week.

George E. Oerding Sells Two Coquille Residences

The beautiful country home and two acres of land, located in Sanford Heights and owned by Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Lewis, was sold by George E. Oerding, a Coquille realtor, to Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Latimer. The Lewises will vacate their home about July 1 when the Latimers will move in. The sellers have purchased a cranberry bog south of Bandon and eventually expect to build a new home on their Bandon property and in the meantime, they are developing the bog. Mr. Latimer is chief radio man in the Navy and expects to be retired by October 1.

The second deal completed by Mr. Oerding was the property located at 936 N. Henry St. and owned by Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Rutledge, who are now at Ridgecrest, California. The house was sold to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ward, who took possession of the property but, on account of a change in plans, Mr. Ward, who has a radio shop corner of First and Taylor streets, is leaving for another location.

Four Plead Guilty In Circuit Court

Besides the seven divorce cases heard by Judge Dal M. King in circuit court on Tuesday this week, four criminal cases were brought before the court and all pleaded guilty.

Wm. J. Johnson was charged with involuntary manslaughter. He was brought to the county jail last Friday and his sentence was to ten years in the pen.

His victim was a woman whom he had hit with his fist following a drunken party and a night of debauchery and his claim was that he did not know she was dead until some time later.

Robert Raymond, brought over from North Bend last Friday, had been bound over to the grand jury for contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He pleaded guilty and Judge King postponed sentencing him until next Tuesday.

H. R. Betts, bound over on a larceny by balle charge in Coos Bay J. P. court, was sentenced to 90 days in jail. He is to be paroled immediately if he promptly repays the indebtedness involved, within ten days.

The charge against Chas. Wentworth was "malicious and wanton injury to personal property. He admitted throwing a whiskey bottle through the window of the inn at Lakeside, in what was a family row. He was also given 90 days in jail with an immediate parole if he pays $50 for replacing the plate glass window.

MELTS FAT IN THE OVEN

"In saving fat for salvage," suggests a Chicago woman, "let it accumulate for a few days, then try it out in a covered pan in the oven."

"Fat is extracted quicker this way, for it is completely surrounded by heat, and cheaper, for it can be tried out at the same time the oven is lighted for other baking or roasting. Melting fat in the oven also eliminates any smoke or smell that may result from rendering it down on the top of the stove."

Housewives, used to thinking of fat salvage only in terms of bacon and pork fat, are learning now to look for fat every time they cook. For only by saving every drop of used cooking fat—in particular—trying out all scraps of meat returned from dinner plates, raw fat cut from meat—can the additional 100,000,000 pounds of fat needed this year, be salvaged.

Don't Worry About Us! We'll do it!

THEY tell us that the fat salvage problem has got to be licked in the small cities, the towns and on the farms.

Our country has to have one hundred million more pounds of used fats this year over last. And we're the people who must save it.

We've rolled up our sleeves! We'll save every drop and bit it is possible to scrape—and keep on doing it till the last Jap is licked.

HOW TO DO IT: Save all used fats in a tin can. Keep it handy to the stove. Scrape your broilers and roasting pans, skim soups and gravies, for every drop counts. Keep solid pieces of fat, such as meat trimmings and table scraps, in a bowl. Melt down when your oven's going, add the liquid fat to the salvage can. Take the can to your butcher as soon as it's full. He will give you four cents and two red points for every pound. Your County Agent or Home Demonstration Agent can give you full particulars.

100,000,000 More Pounds of Used Fats Are Needed This Year!
